

CURTIS & UTLEY, REAL ESTATE LAKEVIEW, OREGON

120 acres on Cottonwood creek, 35 acres into Timothy, Alfalfa, Grain, and a nice garden, water right, an ideal small dairy or poultry farm, lots of outside grazing, house, barn, granery and other out-buildings. Price, $1800, half cash. 11 miles from Lakeview. 8-room residence in Drenkel addition, near City Park, two lots 100 by 150, barn and chicken house. Price, $2000, half cash at 6 per cent. The price is less than cost. 320 acres good land, part into grain and alfalfa, near Union School, all fenced and cross fence, barn and corrals. Stock water in creek always. This is a good farm, at $20.00 per acre. 310 acres three miles north of Lakeview, 200 acres fine alfalfa land, about 100 acres now in cultivation, 100 acres pasture land, part of which can be planted to fruit. Warner Creek flows through the land and a nice spring that can be piped to the house and barn. Place fenced, house and barn. Price $16 per acre. 80 acres of meadow land, cuts 80 tons of hay. At head of lake, price $15 per acre. 680 acres 8 miles north of Lakeview for $15 per acre. 80 acres into meadow, cuts 100 tons, 40 acres pasture land and all the balance is fine grain and alfalfa land, good water right, new house and large barn, 500 acres fenced. This is sure a bargain. 40 acres timber—good wood claim, 1 1/2 miles from town, has between 800 and 1000 cords of wood, good road and level land. Price $350. Two and one-half lots in the Sherlock Addition opposite Dunbar new residence. A bargain at $550. Act quick. We have several good ranches for cattle and sheep. Send for our large bulletin giving prices of land all over Lake and Modoc Counties.

F
A
R
M
L
A N
D
S

Lake County Examiner THURSDAY, JUNE 25, 1914

WEEKLY WEATHER REPORT For week ending June 24, 1914

Date	TEMPERATURE		PRECIP. Amount	CHARACTER OF DAY
	Maxi- mum	Mini- mum
18	87	50	0.00	Clear
19	79	51	0.00	Clear
20	74	51	Trace	Clear
21	68	26	0.00	Clear
22	70	42	0.00	Partly Cloudy
23	53	45	0.01	Cloudy
24	60	43	0.00	Cloudy

C. C. GOTT, OBSERVER.
Station five miles Northwest of Lakeview.

BRIEF MENTION

Dry lumber at Christie's mill 1 1/2 miles north of Camas Prairie. 2t

J. P. Duckworth will buy your sheep pelts paying nine cents per pound.

E. A. Pelletier came in town Saturday from the Drows Creek saw-mill where he is employed.

Lost—Last Sunday evening a black leather purse containing $17. Finder return to this office and receive reward.

J. N. Fitzgerald, who has been here the past several days, left yesterday for his home at Newport, Oregon.

Mrs. W. A. Leonard came over from Klamath Falls last week on a visit with her daughter, Mrs. F. Zim Baldwin.

Miss Ethel Winter, formerly of Dorris, California, is employed as stenographer in the Fremont National Forest office.

F. L. Williams, who owns a ranch on Dry Creek on the West Side, arrived here Saturday from Sacramento to look after his property.

Chas. Reed, well known local dairy man purchased 15 head of Holstein heifers from the stock recently brought from Wisconsin by J. E. McCool.

The bill introduced by Congressman Sinnott, permitting homesteaders to divide their five month's leave of absence in two periods, was passed by the House.

J. C. Brocklesby came down from Paisley Sunday and will remain here for some time building a large barn for J. E. McCool and son on their dairy ranch west of town.

That considerable interest is being taken in the racing tournament to be held in Lakeview July 2, 3 and 4 is evinced by the numerous parties getting their ponies in trim for the occasion.

T. W. Gould, who comes from Pennsylvania, is another newly appointed official for the N.-C.-O. Railway. He becomes resident engineer of the company stationed at Reno, and is in charge of maintenance of way.

Joe Ambrose announces that the Mulkey Shearing Coralls west of Lakeview will be ready to receive hands to be shorn as soon as there is any work to be done. Mr. Ambrose will personally superintend the corals as usual and guarantees satisfaction to patrons.

Seceders from the Western Federation of Miners at Butte, Mont., have launched an independent miner's union as a result of the recent split among the laborers. All peace overtures from President Moyer were rejected and little hope is held for a compromise between the two factions.

Mrs. G. W. Morris, formerly of this place but now a resident of Stockton, Cal., is here visiting with her daughter, Mrs. George Fitzgerald, at their home south of Lakeview. Mrs. Morris is mother of R. E. Morris of the West Side and Homer Morris of Chewaucan. She expects to remain here all summer.

Wm. Tallman, of Baker, president of the Cattle and Horse Breeders' Association of Oregon, has advised O. M. Plummer, manager of the Pacific Northwest Livestock Association, that an important meeting of his society will be held in Portland during the livestock show at the Union Stockyards next Fall. Stock raisers from all over the Northwest will be expected to attend this convention.

Col. Theodore Roosevelt is suffering with an affection of the larynx as a direct result of the hardships he endured in his recent Brazilian trip, which will effectually prevent him from taking part as an orator in the political campaign in the United States this Fall and compel him to exercise the greatest care for some months to come.

Henry Stein was over from Warner Valley a few days last week.

Chas. Lake of Reno, Nevada has taken a position with the Hotel Lakeview bar.

Born in Lakeview, Oregon, Saturday, June 20, 1914, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Paxton, a nine pound girl.

A. Liebes, traveling representative for the Oliver Typewriter Co. was in Lakeview a few days the first of the week.

A ten-pound baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. George Deter on June 20, at their home on the east side of the valley.

Mrs. J. Chas. Smith of the Parisian Millinery, is again able to be up and attend her duties following a two weeks' illness.

Mrs. E. R. Patch and children Thursday morning left on their return to Chico, Cal., following a several days' visit here.

House Cleaning Time—Let Detrick repair your stoves while the hot season is on. No trouble while the cold season is on. M 21-tst

G. W. Rice, chief engineer of the Goose Lake Valley Irrigation Co., last week bought the 1912 Dorris auto belonging to Mrs. J. C. Dodson.

A dance will be held at the Antler's Club rooms in the Heryford building next Saturday night. All members and their ladies are expected to be present.

The meeting of the Tri-State Pacific Coast Good Roads Association which was set for July 17 and 18 at Medford, has been postponed until Monday and Tuesday, July 27 and 28.

R. J. Martin and family arrived in Lakeview Monday evening from Kansas City, Mo., and were met by J. F. Hanson and taken to the Point Ranch on the West Side where they will remain this summer.

William B. Froer, new agent for the Klamath Indian reservation, has taken up his duties succeeding Edson Watson who has been in charge of the reservation for the past four years. Mr. Froer comes from Guthrie, Oklahoma.

W. M. Barnett and wife of Wasco, Oregon, spent a few days in this valley last week, having driven their car down accompanying the party of State Highway officials and Judge Daly. Mr. Barnett is interested in a bank at Wasco.

It all depends upon the patronage guaranteed, whether Fort Bidwell is to have an up-to-date lighting system, says the News. Several enterprising men are behind the move and have ample funds for the purpose at their disposal.

Cedarville Record: The Misses Georgia Turner and Hallie Gillespie left here last Friday for Wisconsin where they go on a visit. George C. Turner accompanied them as far as Reno and went on down to San Francisco on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Moore, former residents of Lakeview but now of Ashland, arrived here last week and will remain several days visiting with relatives and friends, having made the trip over in their auto. Mr. Moore is city attorney of Ashland.

A baby girl, weight eight and one-half pounds, was born to Mrs. Johnson, wife of G. W. Johnson, assistant cashier of the Bank of Lakeview, on June 5, at Santa Rosa, Cal., where she is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Woodcock, formerly of Lakeview.

The Examiner erred last week in stating that Mrs. A. L. Thornton and son had returned home with the party of lodge delegates and others who went to Portland. They will remain several weeks visiting with relatives at Mrs. Thornton's former home at McMinville.

Lassen Advocate: Geo. Winchester is off on his annual vacation, and this time he will go as far north as Paisley, Oregon. He took a commercial traveler with him, and will be gone for two or three weeks. He is a brother of R. E. Winchester of the Goose Lake Valley Meat Co., of Lakeview.

E. A. Reames and wife and F. H. Hopkins were here from Medford last week. Mr. Reames having come over on a water contest between the Chewaucan Land & Cattle company and the Brattain estate. Mr. Reames was formerly District Attorney of this district comprising Lake, Klamath and Jackson Counties.

The first freight vessel to be towed through the Panama Canal was the Grace liner, Santa Clara, carrying a cargo of Pacific Coast products 90 per cent of which was loaded at Portland, nearly all of which will be discharged at New York. The vessel is comparatively new, this being her third trip to the Pacific Coast.

Cracked Wheat for baby chicks, for sale at Bailey & Massingill's, 2t

J. F. Hanson left for Reno Tuesday morning on a short business trip.

Dick Guinee, a business man of Paisley, was in Lakeview several days last week.

O. L. Huff, agent for Buick autos, was down from Prineville last week. He was accompanied by Mrs. Huff.

H. A. Brattain returned to his home at Chewaucan last week following a trip to the Rogue River Valley.

Last week two car loads of metal culvert were received for the county roads from the Ingot Iron Company of Portland.

Miss Mable Arzner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Arzner, has gone to Susanville on a visit with her uncle, Wade Snyder.

Assessor A. J. Foster last week returned from a trip over the northern part of the county on business connected with his office.

On Saturday, June 27, the Ladies Civic Improvement Society will name the judges to award the prizes for the best old and new lawns in this city.

George Storkmann and family are now occupying their new home in the Watson Addition, which he recently purchased from R. A. Vandervort.

On June 13 Park Ranger Momyer reported at Klamath Falls that 166 visitors had reached Crater Lake park, compared with five at the same date last year.

Dr. Ida Behrendt, optician, arrived in Lakeview Friday from Paisley. She will remain here until after the Fourth and is located at J. A. King's residence, south of the M. E. Church.

The Snider opera house is being remodeled and improved. The interior is being covered with beaver board which will make a very attractive finishing. The work is in charge of I. A. Underwood.

At the school election last week Klamath Falls voted to furnish free text books to the pupils, being among the first places in the state to adopt this system. Portland likewise voted free text books at a recent election.

Reno Gazette: Colonel Charles Hamilton, vice president of the Nevada - California - Oregon Railroad, left Friday night for his home at Waco, Texas, having completed his duties here in connection with the reorganization of the road.

Owing to the small pox and scarlet fever epidemic which has been prevalent at Cedarville, Cal., the past several weeks, the committee on Fourth of July celebration has decided not to hold any celebration on there this year, says the Record.

Mrs. E. H. Clark and son and Mrs. D. H. Bemis returned home Saturday from a several week's visit with Mrs. Clark's sister in Portland. They were met at Klamath Falls by Mr. Clark and Paul Drenkel, who brought them back in his automobile.

F. H. Lord spent a few days in Lakeview last week, having come up from Reno with Herman Strassburger, traveling representative of the Southern Pacific. Mr. Lord is agent for the Grand Trunk Railway with headquarters in San Francisco.

Darnell's Band will go to Paisley next Saturday afternoon to give a dance. They will go up in automobiles and will stay for the ball game Sunday afternoon between Lakeview and Paisley. There will likely be a concert in that city on Saturday evening before the dance.

Comptroller of the Currency Williams estimates that about $500,000,000 in national banks throughout the United States is available for farm mortgage loans under the provision of the federal reserve act making it possible for national banking associations to lend money on improved farms.

Fourteen Progressive candidates and two Democratic candidates tied for State Senator and State Representative at the recent election according to the canvass made of the vote by Secretary of State Olcott. He has notified all of them to appear before him on the afternoon of June 25, either personally or by Attorney, and draw straws to determine who shall obtain the nomination.

A bountiful rain which will do much toward reviving all grain crops from the injury they have suffered from recent frosts has been falling in this valley almost incessantly for the past 48 hours. The rain began Tuesday night and up to this time the precipitation will probably equal two inches or more. The moisture will also prove a great boon to range conditions.

The Ladies Aid of the M. E. Church will serve refreshments on July 4th. The place and details to be announced next week.

Mrs. F. M. Miller arrived Tuesday evening from Berkeley and will remain here this summer with her husband and sons.

E. H. Lamb, traveling representative of the Northwestern Railroad with headquarters at Sacramento, was in Lakeview the forepart of the week.

W. C. Hammett, engineer for the Chewaucan Land & Cattle Co., was up from San Francisco last week on business connected with the company's holdings.

Miss Nellie O'Connor, arrived at this place last week from Barsto, Cal. and will remain on a few weeks visit with her brother, Dan E. O'Connor.

With the inauguration of the change in passenger service over the N.-C.-O., it is announced that the division point will be changed from Likely to Madeline.

Bidwell News: Mrs. J. Darnell and little brother Harry Ayres, arrived Monday from their home at Lakeview and are the guests of their father, Geo. H. Ayres and family.

A party of four candidates, composed of A. J. Foster, H. O. Kuhl, W. P. Curtis and D. R. Patterson left this morning for Klamath Falls to be initiated into the Elks lodge tonight.

Mrs. Winters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Burgess of this city, arrived here Monday from her home at Ghakenberg, Nebraska and will remain on a several days' visit with her parents.

Adin Argus: James Poore had the misfortune to get his foot dislocated Thursday morning. He was attempting to mount a fractious horse and the animal while bucking fell with him with the above result.

C. H. Brown has been appointed traveling freight and passenger agent for the Southern Pacific Company for this territory taking the place of H. Strassburger who has been transferred to Nevada territory.

Nydena Tooth Paste cleanses and polishes the teeth, prevents discoloration, retards decay, benefits the gums and leaves the mouth clean and healthy. Twenty-five cents the tube at Snyder & Reynolds Drug Store.

Miss Emily Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Clark of this place, and who has been in San Francisco the past three years arrived last week to spend her vacation. She was accompanied by her cousin, Mrs. Phillis O'Donnell.

George B. Whorton last week returned from a trip to Stockton, Cal., where Mrs. Whorton and children spent the winter. His son, Malloy, returned home with him and Mrs. Whorton and daughter arrived on last night's train.

Mrs. W. A. Leonard and daughter, Miss Billie, mother and sister of Mrs. F. Zim Baldwin of this place came over from Klamath Falls last week. Mrs. Leonard returned home Wednesday, but Miss Leonard will remain here on a several day's visit with her sister.

Eph Miller has identified himself with J. B. Auten in the hardware, grocery and furniture business, the business change taking effect the first of the week. Mr. Miller was at one time postmaster of Lakeview, but for the past few years was manager of the Chewaucan Mercantile Co., of Paisley.

Hair naturally soft and luxuriant needs careful attention to preserve its natural beauty and color, while hair that is thin should be given constant treatment to make it abundant and luxuriant. HIRSU-TONE is excellent for either purpose. Two sizes 50 cents and $1.00. For Sale at Snyder & Reynolds Drug Store.

Alturas New Era: The cornerstone of the new court house will be laid under the auspices of the Masonic lodge of this place on July 22nd, with appropriate ceremonies. It is reported that Hon. Wm. T. Cressler, of Cedarville, and Reuel A. Laird of this place will be the principal orators, and the program promises to be an interesting one.

Harney County News: Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Snelling returned Sunday morning to their home in Lakeview, after a visit with their daughter, Mrs. C. M. Faulkner. Mrs. Snelling had spent two weeks here and Mr. Snelling came last week. Accompanying them to Lake County were the two oldest children of Mr. and Mrs. Faulkner, and their mother will follow them in a short time for a summer visit at her old home.

Wm. F. Paine & Co. REAL ESTATE LAKEVIEW -:- OREGON

Gordon Hats

- GORDON Sennits, high and low crown, price$1.50
- GORDON Woven Porto Rican Straws, price$3.00
- GORDON Natural White Finish Panama, an excellent quality$8.00
- GORDON Fur Hats, in all the best novelties, price$3.00

Benjamin-Washington Clothes
Walk-Over Shoes

BRITTEN & ERICKSON

Save Your Buildings

Unprotected lumber rots, cracks, splits and soon goes to ruin. Paint is the only protection.

It's money saved and money made to keep your home well painted.

ACME QUALITY PAINTS AND FINISHES

are made to last. They will stand years of service and exposure to rain and sun, heat and cold, and still look better and protect better than cheaper paints after only a few months' service.

You will be surprised to know how little it really costs you.

We carry a full line of ACME QUALITY paints, varnishes and stains suitable for covering every kind of surface, and if you prefer to personally do the odds and ends of retouching about the home, we can advise you the kinds of material to use, and these ready-mixed paints assure you finishes of the highest quality.

Lakeview Mercantile Co.