To Determine Owners

In the federal court the suit of the government against Archie Mason for $1,900 worth of timber cut in Crook county has been begun before the jury. It appeared from the testimony that Mason had lumbered from various claims belonging to others, but with their apparent consent. Money was offered the government to settle the bill at one time but was returned. Because of the uncertainty of the owners of the timber, the men who filed on the claims, the government or Mason, suit has been brought to collect its full value from Mason.

Getting New Members

The membership committee of the Chamber of Commerce is making an active campaign for more members. W. H. Dolbeer, the chairman of the committee, states that the indications are that the membership will be greatly increased as a number of the business men whom he had approached on the matter speak very favorably of the Chamber and have signified a willingness to join. The Chamber has passed through the critical stages of its existence and is now at the point where it will do a great good for the Klamath country if the proper interest is taken in the organization. All of the committee appointed at the meeting of the directors are attentive to the duties assigned them and it will be but a short time until good results will accrue from the reorganization of the body.

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

The use of adversity are blessed indeed when they point the way to prosperity.

The best and most universal motto is hard work and plenty of it faithfully persevered in.

Many a man when he has drowned his trouble straightway hunts some more that he may send it by the same route.

People are much inclined to take you at your own valuation, so keep a stiff upper lip and display the original price tag.

Trouble always has plenty of promoters, not a few of which make a trade under the guise of peace-makers.
