OBJECTIONS TO THE PLATFORM

The proposed anti-injunction and tariff revision planks in the platform to be adopted by the convention continue to attract attention and discussion among the party leaders, and are said to be the only points upon which any issue may be raised.

Speaker Cannon, who is in Chicago, is strongly opposed to the anti-injunction plank in the form generally accepted as drafted. As to tariff revision, Mr. Cannon has already had important conferences with Representatives Payne of New York and Dalzell of Pennsylvania, two of his most important lieutenants in the Lower House of Congress.

While the opposition to the anti-injunction plank have many supporters, including the Oregon, California and Washington delegations, it is still a question whether Speaker Cannon can eliminate it from the Taft platform. The Speaker himself is in doubt as to his ability to erase or even modify the plank, but this fact only serves as a stimulus to the efforts he is making.

The possibilities for a stampede for Roosevelt has gone a glimmering and with it the forlorn hope of Johnathan Bourne. The continuous fight made against Taft will not bring him any favors from the Secretary if he is elected President. Further than this the prominent republican senators have announced that henceforth, so far as they are concerned, Bourne would not be recognized in party councils, on account of his present support of Governor Chamberlain.

Holding that a notary public is a state officer, and that his duties and functions are not confined to any particular district or section, Attorney-General Crawford contends that a notary public can officiate at any place within the state during his two years of appointment. The opinion is given in the case of a notary public who removed from Glendale to Portland.

Lincoln County, Oregon, is said to be the only county in the United States that ever voted to restore the saloons after having once shut them out. The liquor men seem to feel that they are back again only on sufferance and have made promises that in the future their places shall be run in a manner to which no exception can be taken.

Some men are dishonest enough to cheat themselves in a game of solitaire. This would seem to be the limit.

SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Klamath, Bertha R. Conner, Plaintiff
Daniel R. Conner, Defendant.

To Daniel R. Conner the above named defendant: You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit on or before the 23 day of July 1908, being the last day of the time in the order of the publication of this summons, the first publication thereof being on the 11 day of June 1908 and if you fail so to appear and answer, for want thereof the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief prayed for in the complaint herein to wit: For a decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony existing between plaintiff and defendant; for the care and custody of Lorene J. Conner and for such other and further relief as to the court may seem just and equitable.

This summons is served by publication thereof in the Evening Herald by order of the Honorable J. B. Griffith County Judge of Klamath County, Oregon, made, dated and filed in this suit at Klamath Falls, Oregon, on the 11 of June 1908. Which said order is required that summons in this suit be published once a week, for a period of six successive and consecutive weeks from the 11 of June 1908.

H. W. KESSEK,
Attorney for Plaintiff
