AT SETH'S SERENADE.

When Seth got married we had a bee,
And went up to his house for a shivaree.
Some took drums, and some took pans,
And some took whistles, and some tin cans
With strings in the bottom and room to rub,
And they yowled like wildcats at every scrub.
And the durndest noise that ever was made
Was the whooptedew at Seth's serenade.

But we carried something beside the noise
To that little home, we girls and boys.
And after the bang, and fun, and din,
Seth gave us an invite and we went in,
And under each arm was a bundle hid—
We loaded them down, that's what we did!
Pounds of this and pounds of that—
Bundles were big and bags were fat.
And then the squinty a speech he made
For the rest of the crowd at Seth's serenade.

"We're here to wish ye long life," said he,
"And a way that is smooth and as straight as can be.
Start every day as ye're startin' now
With a smile on your face and a care-free brow.
So I bring ye to-night—friends Seth and May—
A can of the cheer that starts my day."
Then he crowned the heap—he's a knowin' man.

With a Chase & Sanborn coffee can.
And before we left we had coffee made—
'Twas the best of the treat at Seth's
serenade.

MILLS ADDITION LOTS
are Advancing in Value

When blocks in Mills Addition were offered at bargain prices a number of shrewd investors bought; since that time values have increased materially.

These Lots are Bargain Buys at present prices, and there is every reason to anticipate an advance in prices. Remember these lots are FIFTY feet in width and ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY FEET deep—more than double the area of most town lots offered to investors.
