COIN SWEATING.

An Illegal Practice Which Has Fallen Into Disuse.

Chiefly allied to the making of counterfeit coins and usually combined with that nefarious trade is what is known as "sweating," which requires considerable skill to accomplish successfully. A rubber mold is used, into which a gold coin to be sweated is introduced and held with a clip. Copper wires having been adjusted, the coin is immersed in a bath of cyanide of potassium and an electric battery set going. The action of the electricity upon the coin in the acid solution sweats the metal—that is to say, causes so much of it to become dissolved. This process is gone through with a large number of coins, and the gold deposit thus obtained is extracted from the acid.

It is for the purpose of detecting the existence of such reduced coins that bankers weigh gold coins in a balance and if one is in the scale it will immediately be shown by the indicator. The light coin is then taken out, and what ever the shortage represents, that amount the customer will have to make up or be fined.

But, all things considered, sweating is not a poor business, says H. L. Adams in his interesting book, "The Story of Crime," and evidently it is thought so by the criminal fraternity, for it has declined to a mere nothing. A counterfeit weighs 123.27447 grains, and the limit of error in the weight is 1/10 of a grain, from which it may readily be gathered that sweating cannot now be a very lucrative business.

BANISHED THE BORE.

A Remedy That Dampened His Ardor For Sitting.

The head of a bureau in an important government department has long been afflicted with a friend who calls upon him regularly and sits down and sits and sits and goes on sitting till assault and battery be upon a circus. The other day this sedentary bore was in the full exercise of his function when suddenly the official, who had been scrutinizing him closely, cried: "I know it! I was sure of it! Confound those office boys, with their tricks on strangers! They've been putting glue on your chair again. Hi, Jimmie, bring a sponge and a pail of water!" And pressing with all his weight on the shoulders of his victim to keep him down, he continued: "Don't stir; you'd tear the cloth sure. Nothing is half as adhesive as glue on a cane seat chair. Here, Jimmie, moisten this gentleman so that we can get him loose. Don't spare the water; the cloth won't shrink or fade." The faithful messenger obeys, and when the operation is concluded the official conducts the visitor to the door and bids him farewell, with the remark: "Perhaps you want to hurry home and change your clothing, so I won't keep you. Goodby, bless you! If your trousers are spoiled, let me know, and I'll stop the price of them out of the pay of the infernal scoundrel! If I can find out who he was, and to that task I will devote all the energies of my lifetime and the whole machinery of the government. Goodby! The scoundrel! I thought for several days past that there was something wrong." His friend goes like the victims of youth, never to return.—Argonaut.

Overheard on the Links.
 "Neatness is essential on the links," said H. J. Whigham, the golfer, at a dinner in Chicago. "At Shinnecock Hills one day I played behind two young and pretty girls. Overtaking them, I heard the younger say, 'How many holes on this course, Alleen?' 'Nineteen, dear,' said Alleen, 'including the one in your stocking.'"

Animal Tales.

J. J. Hahn, a barber of Kansas City, owns two dogs, each born with only two legs—the hind legs. The dogs walk like human beings.

The National Horse Show Association of America announces that the next horse show will be held at Madison Square Garden the week commencing Nov. 10.

The Cookbook.

It is better to cook too slowly than too fast.

Cauliflower will be much better and richer if it is boiled in half milk and half water instead of all water.

For creamed cabbage boil the cabbage tender, drain off the water and put into the pot with a large teaspoonful of flour, a tablespoonful of butter, a little salt and half a cupful of milk. Cook, stirring, until the sauce is smooth.

Try steaming an omelet instead of baking or frying it. After the butter has been heated on the pan pour in the omelet and set in a steamer and cover loosely. When it is done, brown it over in the oven and serve.

Home Helps.

Vinegar diluted with water will remove grease from a stove.

Be prompt with home repairs, and the house will look ten times smarter than when little damages are permitted to be in evidence.

A small piece of window glass will be useful for holding the leaves apart in a cookbook, and one can read the recipe and not soil the book by too much handling.

One often hears complaints that the silver ruins and iron molds the clothes. To prevent this, as soon as the boiler is emptied rub well over with soap. This will not only prevent rust; it will also help to make suds for the next boiling.

An Apology.

An excited military looking gentleman entered the editorial sanctum one afternoon, exclaiming: "That notice of my death is false, sir. I will horse-whip you within an inch of your life, sir, if you don't apologize in your next issue."

The editor inserted the following next day: "We extremely regret to announce that the paragraph which stated that Major Blazer was dead is without foundation."—Detroit Free Press.

PETITION.

In the County Court of the State of Oregon, for Klamath County.

In the Matter of the Application to Adopt Baby Eaton, a minor child. To the Honorable J. B. Griffith, Judge of said Court:

Your petitioners, W. P. Rhoads and Mattie E. Rhoads, respectfully represent:

1. That your petitioners are husband and wife, reside in the State of Oregon, and reside at Merrill, in said Klamath County.

2. That they have in their possession a female child of the age of eight months, and that said child is the illegitimate offspring of Iva Eaton; that the said mother is a non-resident of the State of Oregon, and that said child is wholly without parental care and protection.

3. That your petitioners are competent, able and willing to support, educate, train and properly care for and bring up said child.

WHEREFORE your petitioners pray a decree of the Honorable Court:

I. That said child be, to all legal intents and purposes, the child of the petitioners.

II. That the name of said child be changed to Iva Willia Rhoads, and that a certificate of such change be granted.

W. P. RHOADS,
 MATTIE E. RHOADS,
 Petitioners.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 1st day of May, 1909.
 (Seal) E. E. FITCH,
 Notary Public for Oregon.

ORDER.
 In the County Court of the State of Oregon, for Klamath County.

In the Matter of the Petition of W. P. Rhoads et al to Adopt Baby Eaton, a minor.

Upon reading the petition, filed herein, of W. P. Rhoads and Mattie E. Rhoads, his wife, praying for a decree of this Court that the above named Baby Eaton, a minor child, be the child of the petitioners, and it also appearing that Iva Eaton is the mother of said child; and it further appearing from the affidavit of W. P. Rhoads, one of the petitioners, that the said Iva Eaton is a non-resident of this State and that personal service on her of said petition and this order cannot be had;

It is considered and ordered that Monday, July 5, 1909, at 10 o'clock a. m., at the Court House of said County, is fixed as the time and place of hearing said petition, and that the said Iva Eaton appear at such time and place to show cause, if any she have, why said petition should not be granted.

It is also ordered that said petition and this order be published once a week for three successive weeks in the Evening Herald, a newspaper printed and published at Klamath Falls, in said County, the first publication to be made on the 4th day of May, 1909.

It is further ordered that a copy of said petition, and this order be forthwith mailed to the said Iva Eaton at Carson City, Nevada, her place of residence.

Dated at Klamath Falls, Oregon, this 3rd day of May, 1909.

J. B. GRIFFITH,
 Judge.

"Business is Good at Gillette's"

The people appreciated the big saving we offered them in matting this week and many homes have been made to look brighter by the addition of a new floor covering at a very small cost

Housecleaning Time

After cleaning house and laying down that new Japanese Matting, you should discard your old winter mattresses. ∴ Try the

McRoskey Innerlaced Mattress

we are now offering. The McRoskey system of inner-lacing produces a mattress with a perfectly smooth surface, which has many advantages over the old-fashioned tufted mattress, with its succession of bumps and depressions.

Gillette's Furniture House

We could make clothes expressly for you here at home, but a local tailor shop today is impractical and unprofitable.

It has no labor market from which to secure desirable cutters and tailors—

It cannot afford to install a modern plant designed to reduce cost of production—

It doesn't do sufficient business to enable it to buy woolens direct from the mills—

It cannot keep abreast of metropolitan styles and workmanship.

Therefore, we send our orders for fine made-to-measure clothes to Ed. V. Price & Co., of Chicago.

We can take your measure the same way we would if running shops here, and furnish you your clothes, made as you want them, at 50% less than we could make them locally. Won't you call today?
