EXPENSIVE MUD.

America leads the world in the production of mud—not cheap, low-grade mud, but mud of a very expensive quality. Our mud is not packed in neat boxes, labeled "Made in America" and protected by low tariff duties from the pauper mud of Europe. It is spread out thickly over millions of miles of our country roads.

Only one mile in fourteen of America's roads can be said to be really improved. The rest are mud—deep, narrow streaks of sticky, oozy mud. The farmer fights with mud when he takes his load to market. It is said to cost him twenty-five cents a ton per mile to haul his produce, while the thrifty Frenchman on mudless roads does it for half as much. The American farmer pays for his mud in decreased profits, in harder labor, in poorer schools; his wife pays in isolation and loneliness.

Nor is the farmer the only one who pays the mud tax. The city man who thinks he is buying eggs is buying also mud. Mud puts its price upon our bread, our meat, and our fuel. Three hundred million dollars per year is the estimated cost of muddy roads. We can think of no way in which our people could get less fun for the same money.

COURTSHIP IN THE NORTH.

The old Eskimo lit a cup of walrus oil and peered over the seal-skin curtain.

"Aurora," he called sharply, "is that young man down there yet?"

"Yes, pa," answered the Eskimo belle.

"Well, I want you to cut him out, understand?"

"Er—you'll have to do it yourself, pa; he has been here so long he is frozen to the snow settee."

A BROAD DISCRIMINATION.

There is an elder of a certain church who thinks that things are only half done or not well started in which he has no voice. At a prayer meeting he offered thanks for the safe return of the minister and his wife. With proper dignity and in a loud voice he said: "O Lord, we thank Thee for bringing our pastor safe home, and his dear wife, too, O Lord, for Thou preservest man and beast."

BE SURE YOU ARE RIGHT.

"Bill had charge of the animal tent," said Mr. Ringing, "and among his pets was a leopard. This leopard gave Bill more trouble than all the rest of the menagerie put together."

"One day when I had left the show on some advance business, a telegram was handed to me. It was from Bill and read: 'The leopard has escaped. What shall I do?'"

"That was just like Bill. He didn't want to make a mistake. 'I immediately wired back to Bill: 'Shoot him on the spot.' Two hours later I received another telegram from conscientious, careful Bill: 'Which spot?'"

Helping the Town . . .

By banking your money in a bank in your own community you increase the community's power to do business. If substantial farmers want to borrow money there is more to loan them. If you bank your money away from home it is loaned to other farmers, merchants and manufacturers. Help your home people. Money hidden at home helps no one. Placed in a bank it is put to work in ways that help all.

A Savings Account . . .

In a rainy day fund, a life insurance policy, a sick benefit, a funeral benefit, and an old age pension. There is no fortune chance in the postbook, and it is under the owner's control at all times. It will tide him over sickness; it will care for his family when he can't go; it will see him through old age, and buy him when he dies. It is a simple business proposition. Begin early, and keep it up, and, like manna in the desert, it will supply him as he journeys.

Now is the time to open an account with the
