PROCLAIMS COLONIST DAY FOR STATE OF OREGON

Governor Issues Manifesto Directed to Attention of Comers From East, Setting Forth Advantages of Great State to Settlers

SALEM, Feb. 17.—Governor West has issued a Colonist Day Proclamation, and coming on the heels of the circulars being issued by the Central Labor Council of Portland, picturing Oregon as a wilderness to be shunned, its optimistic view and wholesome advice are timely. The proclamation is a call to those who would come and achieve success from the bountiful resources of a great state. It is as follows:

"Oregon is waiting for colonists. Her unclaimed acres need settlers. Farms need to be peopled and cleared, orchards to be planted and cultivated, homes to be founded. The state awaits investment and industries and well directed effort. For this it offers unbounded opportunity, prosperity and success.

"Oregon does not need the city man, subsisting upon a daily wage, except as he may follow the institution of the factory, the workshop and the business house or the development and the cultivation of the farm.

"Oregon needs investors, active men, with active money and efficient effort. She needs energetic men to people the vacant places and reap the abundant products of a fruitful soil. Oregon needs rural development, men who have the training, the capability, the energy and the money to build homes and achieve independence in the country.

"True prosperity demands that the cities do not outstrip and over balance the country. If we build up the country districts, the cities will keep abreast with their factories, mills, shops and stores.

"It has been the custom in the past to set aside a day to be known as Colonist Day, at which time it has been urged that all Oregon people write to Eastern friends, telling them of the opportunities here and inviting them to cast their lots with us. It is proper, as loyal and patriotic citizens of Oregon, for us to draw a true picture of the state and its possibilities for our Eastern friends, for the truth needs no embellishment.

"Now, therefore, I, Oswald West, governor, by virtue of the authority in me vested, do hereby appoint and proclaim Thursday, February 22d, to be known as Colonist Day throughout the state of Oregon, and I earnestly recommend that all the people on this day write their friends and relatives in other states, showing to them the great possibilities of Oregon for the farmer, the stock raiser, the dairyman, the poultryman, the fruitgrower—for all productive industries—in order that those whom Oregon needs may be induced to join with us in the upbuilding of our magnificent state."

Advice to Newly Rich Man Is Very Numerous

Welsh Farm Hand Inherits Million From Long Lost Father, and Newspaper Solicits Hints From Readers as to How to Distribute It.

United Press Service
 LONDON, Feb. 17.—Prince Bevan, the Welsh farm hand who has just inherited $1,000,000 from his long lost father, who recently died at Eagle Pass, Texas, is receiving plenty of gratuitous advice as to what to do with his money.

A local newspaper put the query as to what would be the first thing he should do with the money, up to its readers. There are suggestions numerous and humorous. But the boy smiles and goes on working at his $5 a week job. The only expenditure he has made so far has been to buy a new suit of clothes.
