WASHINGTON, D. C., July 13.—Lorimer of Illinois has been ousted from the United States senate by an overwhelming vote, 55 to 28.

Characterized by the vehemence of the Chicago man's attack on the minority members of the investigating committee, Senators Kern and Lee, the session of the senate this morning which led up to the final voting was replete with excitement.

Neither Senator Kern nor Senator Lee answered the speaker. Lorimer said: "My opponents urged William J. Burns to bolster up their case. He put a venerable United States senator in the grave on testimony the president now believes to have been untrue."

When the verdict was announced Lorimer, smiling, arose, walked toward the republican cloak room at a swinging gait. As he reached the door Senator Smoot clasped his hand.

EDUCATION WAS FIRST PROFESSION

ONLY PROFESSION THAT CAN DEVOTE ITSELF EXCLUSIVELY TO MAKING MANLY MEN AND WOMANLY WOMEN

CHICAGO, July 13.—Speaking on the subject of "What is the Biggest, Best Next Thing Professionally," A. B. Winship, editor of the Journal of Education, of Boston said today before the National Education Association:

It would be easy to name many good next things professionally, to name the best next thing in devices, methods, discipline, equipment, administration and philosophy that is the best from one man's point of view.

The new times are surely here. The profession that meets the demand of these times will be the leading American profession, and education can meet these demands better than law, medicine and the ministry.

Medicine is not likely to meet the new demand unless it ceases to think it more professional to kill a patient regularly than to have him restored to health irregularly.

The coast is clear. Education can be the leading profession of the country. It is the only profession that can devote itself exclusively to childhood and youth to the making of manly men and womanly women.

Education was the first profession. Why may it not be the greatest? It is the only learned profession whose leaders in the scholarship are "professors," and the one man who met all the needs of all time was the Great Teacher, the founder of the profession of education.

If the teacher is to lead the preacher, the physician and the lawyer in the professional race, there must be a transfiguration—the teacher must think in larger units than they, must be more dominant and less domineering, must rise above self-consciousness and class-consciousness, and be more sub-consciously dominant than they.

With these ideals there are boundless opportunities for half a million teachers with eighteen million students.

TOURIST TRAVEL LIGHT FOR JULY

LATENESS OF SEASON WILL MAKE AUGUST THIS YEAR THE BIG MONTH FOR VISITORS TO KLAMATH RESORTS

Tourist travel has been lighter into the Klamath country at this time than in years.

Instead of July being the heaviest month for travel into this section, it is now certain that this season to August will get the credit for the "bumper" tourist crop.

The lateness of the season is held responsible for this condition of affairs. Tourists do not start for this section until it is certain that the trip to Crater Lake can be made, but this year regular travel to the famous lake will not be inaugurated for at least a week or ten days.

Commercial Agent Bailey of the Southern Pacific is suffering a slight attack of the grip, and was not at his post at the depot this morning.

SAYS A KING WILL AGAIN RULE FRANCE

Leon Daudet, Newspaperman and Duelist, Predicts the Restoration of the Monarchy in Five Years, or Even Less

PARIS, July 13.—"In less than five years' time there will be a king of France."

The man who makes this remarkable prophecy is not accustomed to eat his words. He is far more accustomed to make other men eat theirs.

In the role of prophet, Daudet has this great advantage, that it is himself who is the king-maker. In a little office overlooking the busy Chaussee d'Antin this energetic son of the great Alphonse Daudet disseminates the seeds of monarchy.

According to Daudet and his fierce, enthusiastic co-workers, France at the present day is in the possession of the alien.

When Daudet is questioned upon the means by which he proposes to establish the monarchy in France he repudiates all idea of violence and bloodshed.

At a picnic on July 4th, fifty families attended. There were horse races, foot races, boy and girl races, and a gala dance in the evening.

That the infant town has every incentive to progress is evidenced by the spirit and faith of its citizens. It is only six miles from this place. It is the center of the Horton irrigation project.

It has an efficient postoffice service, and within the past month a general store and blacksmith shop were added to its other recent acquisitions.
