Returns From All Over the State Indicate That the Tuff From Here Has Been Heated in the Orange Suit. Many Contents Will Undoubtedly Be Made, But It Seems That Progressives Have Won Close Victory

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 4.—The tuff forces suffered a stunning defeat in the state wide primaries of yesterday. The progressives will control the assembly, which names the presidential electors, by a big majority, and will also control nearly all of the county central committees.

Kala, in the Fourth, Mendocino, in the Seventh, and Knowland in the fifth congressional districts are the only tuff congressmen known to have been re-elected.

Hayes in the Eighth barely leads Robert Clark, progressive, with returns incomplete.

The progressives have nominated the congressman John E. Hahn in the First, C. W. Bell in the Third, W. D. Gorman in the Fourth and A. V. Brown in the Seventh.

In the second district B. H. Nuttall, independent, is nominated, and in the First Judge Clinton Coe, independent, progressive, is fighting it out to the last vote with B. H. Nuttall, independent, with the result still uncertain.

Defeat Admitted

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 4.—Administration men here concede that Hart has defeated Conick in the First district. The administration will get behind Kent, who today began circulating a petition.

Curry Wins

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 4.—Curry is estimated to have beaten Devlin by about 100 votes. It is reported that Devlin admits his defeat.

Clarke Beats Firm

SAN JOSE, Sept. 4.—Hayes claims that he has defeated Clarke by about 100 votes. Clarke refuses to concede his defeat. The result may be close, with a few outlying districts to decide.

Hunter Carries County

YUBA, Sept. 4.—Hunter has carried Humboldt county. The vote was: Hunter 639, Conalck 611, Hunt 599.

MILITIA ENCAMPED ON GROUNDS OF THE MICHIGAN PENITENTIARY PREVENT ANY CHANCE OF ANOTHER UPRISING

JACKSON, Mich., Sept. 4.—Five companies of militia are encamped in the state penitentiary yard today. As a result of the uprising it is now proposed to re-establish the whipping post.

ABEL ADY MAY ATTEND MEET

KLAMATH WATER USERS' ASSOCIATION WILL MEET TO SELECT DELEGATES TO CONVENTION TO BE HELD IN SALT LAKE

On Saturday at 10 a. m. at the office of the Klamath Water Users' Association in the White Madrox building, a meeting of the board of directors will be held for the purpose of electing a delegate to the meeting of the Federated Water Users Association, which begins at Salt Lake September 15.

It is not known who will be candidates for the trip, but it is believed in some quarters that President Abel Ady of Midland, will be one of the strongest aspirants for the plum. He was recently re-elected president of the association, and was a delegate to the national irrigation congress last December.

BOUDINOT SEEKS AN INJUNCTION

HE CLAIMS THAT THE ALGAMA LUMBER CO. IS CONSTRUCTING A LOGGING LINE ACROSS HIS FARM PROPERTY

In an effort to prevent the Algama Lumber company from constructing a logging railroad across his property, Wm. A. Boudinot has started an action in the circuit court.

In his complaint Mr. Boudinot sets forth that the lumber company owns property adjoining his place, the northwest quarter of the southeast quarter of section 10, and that a line is being constructed across this property without first having secured his permission.

The line, the complaint sets forth, runs between the house on the Boudinot place and the road, thereby depriving the plaintiff of the rights to which he is entitled.

Albert E. Elider appears as attorney for the plaintiff.

MONEY RAISED FOR COURT COST

COUNCIL MAKES A RAISE TO DEFEND THE ACTIONS RECENTLY BROUGHT AGAINST THE CITY. RECORDER HANDLES FUNDS

Lacking cash with which to defray expenses of defending the injunction suit brought against the city in the matter of the award of city printing, and another suit brought to obtain a special election for the adoption of another charter, it was necessary for the council last night to secure a little.

The method was suggested by Councilman H. E. Savidge, who believed the way was by drawing a warrant for $50 for county clerk fees.

City Recorder Leavitt suggested that this would be too much, and that $25 would be enough. He said the warrant ought to be drawn in favor of somebody.

"Suppose we let the police judge handle the money," suggested Savidge.

"Is he under bond?" asked McGowan, thinking of the safety of the cash. This caused a laugh.

Undesirables Are Ordered to Leave City Without Delay

Driving White Horse, Officers Make the Rounds of the Restricted District and Give their Orders to the Women

POLICE OFFICERS SAY MEAN BUSINESS

Gamblers and Street Walkers are Included in the General Campaign. Reports Have it that Many People Heretofore Respected are Under Suspicion

Klamath Falls is now in the throes of a moral crusade.

This morning residents of the restricted district were instructed to pack their trunks and get out of town.

Representatives of the sheriff's office, co-operating with the city police, are engaged in securing data concerning other residents of the city who heretofore were the mantle of respectability, but who are suspected of practicing the very acts complained of by the members of the women's association most active in the cleaning up of the city.

Some startling disclosures are expected. It is said that women and young girls, familiar figures on the streets during the past few months, will shortly be given an opportunity of explaining their conduct in some court.

Anyway, the city officials are in dead earnest, and it is certain that Klamath Falls is sure to be an Eutopia for the most ardent moral crusader originated since Carrie Nation first achieved fame with her little hatchet. In this movement the city authorities have and will have the hearty co-operation of the county officials.

Vice must bid adieu to Klamath Falls. Bright and early this morning the moral squads were on the job. Deputy Sheriffs John Schallock and Wheeler took over the restricted district for their line of endeavor. In a hurry, it is said, that was a white horse, the two officers visited four houses on Oak street. There was no sign of life in any of the places, but persistent ringing of the bells brought forth representatives of the place.

"This house must be closed. The inmates will be given an opportunity to leave the city. Their presence will no longer be tolerated, either within the limits of the city or of Klamath county."

This was the ultimatum. There was no argument. "We'll beat it," was the reply of various and diverse females, clad in hastily collected garments.

In the meantime, the city police, acting under instructions from Chief Smith, were engaged in rounding up evidence against street walkers, gamblers, and other characters in the city whose actions, connected with disclosures which have been recently made, has led to the belief that they have been practicing, in other than the restricted sections, crimes against which complaints have been made.

Although it is not generally known, the police have a little bit of the advantage in the crusade now in full force and effect. Several days ago, officers discovered in the resident district of the city two lawdy houses. They were promptly given notice to quit, and the mandate of the police was obeyed.

In addition to that, the local officers recently arrested three men on charges of gambling, and secured a conviction in each case. When they were about five weeks ago, gambling has been almost an unknown practice here. It is admitted, however, that there are men in the city who are not waiting for an opportunity to turn the tiger loose on the first opportunity. The police declare, however, that if they do, the storied tiger's tail will be badly twisted, and the tiger itself will be beat completely out of shape. In this resolution the sheriff's office heartily concurs.

No effort will be made by either the sheriff's office or the police to make any arrests of the women now residents of the restricted district, but it is expected that arrests of gamblers, street walkers and others not now generally known as being involved in the vice sold to be prevalent here, will be made shortly.

The residents of Klamath Falls' fallen women district will be given an opportunity to leave the city. There is no especial time limit, but it is expected that the trains leaving this city today and tomorrow, at the latest, will carry the women on whom notice has been served. The others, living at the present time in other sections of the city, are not expected to remain here until they are notified. They are expected to use good judgment and leave forthwith.

The charges made by The Herald of graft against three members of the present city council will be one of the first matters taken up by the Klamath county grand jury, which will meet here next week.

Today subpoenas were served on important witnesses in the case, and they are required to await the earliest convenience of the inquisitorial body.

Sheriff W. B. Barnes and Deputy Sheriff Wheeler are two of the witnesses. The Herald, anticipating such action, has been persistent in inquiring of the witnesses likely to be called, and this morning secured confirmation of the service of the papers.

Other subpoenas were served on Fred Mills, J. F. Kent, L. Montgomery, William Davis and W. E. Seehorn.

Messrs. Barnes and Wheeler are said to be familiar with the demands made by the three councilmen, Messrs. Savidge, Crisler and Goslar. Wheeler was the first man who bought the Livermore bar at public sale, and who, it is alleged, was first seen by the councilmen with a view of securing the payment of a large sum of money in order to effect the transfer of the liquor license from the bankrupt Livermore to himself.

Subsequently, it is said, Wheeler effected a compromise with the councilmen, and paid a little more than $800 in money and notes. Then, at the first meeting of the city council, the license transfer was made.

Fred Mills' connection with the case is a mystery. He is a prominent attorney in the city, and, in a conversation with a Herald man today, declined to outline in what way he could be connected with the case.

J. E. Kent, also an attorney, was present when the money was paid over by Wheeler to one of the councilmen. It is certain that Mr. Kent acted only as an advisor of another, and not directly interested party in the matter, and, it is said, cannot be the most remote possibility be connected with the matter except as a witness.

L. Montgomery is a bartender, employed at the Livermore bar. It is said that he was present on the day that the councilmen first made their demand for money from Wheeler, and will corroborate any testimony given by Wheeler.

W. E. Seehorn's connection with the case is not known. So far as can be learned he was not one of the witnesses called before the prosecuting attorney a few days ago. He is engaged in the wood business.

The grand jury is called to meet next Monday. It is expected that the graft cases will be the first considered but Prosecuting Attorney Kaykendall, aside from declaring that all of the testimony which has been collected will be submitted, has not indicated whether or not there will be other matters taken up by the jury first.

CAPTAIN LEE IS BACK IN TOWN

COUNTY AMBASSOR MAKES LONG TRIP TO THE HAUNTS OF BIG GAME—TRAVEL IS MADE BY DIFFERENT WAYS

Captain J. F. Lee, Frank Sargent and Allen Sloan, who for the past five weeks have been hunting in the Diamond Lake country, returned to the city this afternoon, and report having had a fine time.

The travel to a short distance past Diamond Lake and back was made by rig, but to go about forty miles beyond Diamond Lake over the mountains the men went horseback, with three pack horses carrying their equipment and provisions.

Captain Lee says they found considerable snow at some spots in the mountain country, but enjoyed all the time away.

WOMEN ASK FOR ENTIRE CHANGE

PETITION IS BROUGHT TO THE CITY COUNCIL, BRASING MANY NAMES—COUNCILMEN ENGAGED IN AN ARGUMENT

Bearing a petition probably a dozen feet long asking for the enforcement of law against the red-light district, a quartet of women from the W. C. T. U. bore down upon the city council last night and precipitated a hot argument among the city fathers, which finally led to the matter being referred to the police committee on motion of Councilman Charles McGowan, seconded by Councilman M. E. Doty.

The petition, brought in by Messrs. B. S. Grigsby, Carrie A. Howie, Frances E. Boyd and O. A. Stearns, had as its first signer Rev. George H. Pease, pastor of the Grace M. E. Church, the total of names running to nearly 300. In offering the document to the council Mrs. Boyd asked that it be considered, and that the women give it their prompt attention. The petition asked that the part of the Anderson charter adopted April 23, 1913, be enforced by the city council.

Lawyer Herbert E. Crane spoke first to the measure, not saying whether he represented clients or was appearing as an individual. He said some people took inconsistent attitudes in asking the enforcement of the ordinance, and in then jumping into court and challenging the ordinance.
