

INJUNCTION MAY STOP IMPROVEMENT

As a result of the visit of the street committee of the city council to Second street, where the thoroughfare is to be beautified by a boulevard, it has been decided to put a culvert in at Oak street when the fill is made to complete the boulevard across there. That is to say, the committee will recommend such a proposition to the council, and the council will hardly override the committee.

Willow street, where another canal reaches from the bottom land to Lake Neena, will probably remain open, or at least virtually so, for some time. It may be filled gradually this coming winter and next summer. The Oliver county fair, of which Caleb T. Oliver is manager, will probably get the benefit of the short cut via Second street, as enough street-filling has been done to make that route to the fair grounds appear feasible. If it is used, a temporary crossing at Willow street canal will be made. Possibly a scow will be put in there and used, after the fashion of a pontoon bridge. Since the question of the city official paper has been taken to the circuit court and may be held up there for some time, unless it gets quicker action by the bench than other suits entered before it, it may be the means of delay to the improvement of Second street.

The ultimate completion of the boulevard work is assured, but when it comes to getting the property necessary for the extended highway viewers must be appointed to meet with the property owners and fix the damages. The notices of the viewers' intended meetings must be, according to the charter, published in the city official newspaper, which, at this time, is an unsettled quantity.

YOUNGSTER TELLS OF MANY CRIMES

PORTLAND, Sept. 6.—Alfred Berry, a 16-year-old pickpocket and sneak thief, who was arrested at Seaside after securing a complimentary ticket on a Portland paper as a "boy tourist" and son of a Louisville, Ky., millionaire, has made a full confession of his crimes to Sheriff Harry White and Ed H. Wood, chief special agent of the O. W. R. & N. The statement clears up the theft of a woman's purse on an O. W. R. & N. train between Pendleton and Portland on the morning of August 28. Miss Lila Lawrence of Tacoma, Wash., reported to the train authorities that the property was taken from under her pillow in the sleeper about 3:30 a. m. She felt ill, and went to the woman's dining room at that hour. On her return the pillow was found thrown toward in the berth and the purse gone. Berry was in the same sleeper, and was suspected, but nothing came of the investigation.

The boy yesterday told the officers that he got the purse, but threw it out of the window when the investigation started, and did not learn what it contained. Miss Lawrence reported that her loss included a watch, diamond ring and a large sum of money. Berry also admitted having burglarized a number of rooms in a hotel in Lewiston, Idaho, where he registered. A large diamond ring which he has been wearing was taken from a hotel in Akron, Ohio, and five women's watches were collected along the route. Berry's suit case, which he left at the Imperial hotel, has been opened by the police, and has been found to contain several rings and other jewelry.

JEWELER KILLS A LARGE BUCK

CAPTAIN McCauley BRINGS THE NEWS FROM HARRIMAN LODGE AND PELICAN CLUB—DUCKS ARE PLENTIFUL

Captain McCauley came down last night from the Upper Lake, where the Mallard Club houseboat is now located. He reports hunting great at this time.

Yesterday Captain McCauley visited Harriman Lodge, where several Portland hunters are making their headquarters.

"Mr. Linsman, a Portland jeweler, killed a fine buck yesterday," said Captain McCauley. "Naturally he was very proud of his feat. He fired when about 200 yards distant, and the buck fell. The animal weighed over 300 pounds."

Mix 'n' Up

Anyway, it's great weather for ducks.

Of course many people will feel cooler when the grand jury concludes to quit.

And now some of the old umbrella yarns may be revived without fear of contradiction.

If anyone wants to know who's leaving the city let him go down and watch the outgoing trains.

Klamath Falls has not yet laid any claims to white hopes. There is too much harmony in the city to develop any talent along this line.

There is a man in Klamath Falls who owns stock in the Standard Oil company, and yet he has the effrontery to profess ignorance concerning the campaign contribution of that concern to the Roosevelt campaign fund. Just think of it!

LORELLA LOCALS

Mrs. George Noble, with her three children, has left for a month's visit with her relatives in Ashland.

The Misses Shible of Medford are visiting their two brothers, who recently purchased the Frank Swingle property.

C. D. Chorpeng, the Lorella school master, arrived last Friday from the Willamette Valley, where he has been attending summer school at Salem and Monmouth. Mr. William Pankey has been at work the last three weeks improving the interior of the Lorella school house, and will have it completed in time for the opening of school.

Mr. David Campbell and Walter Broadword have gone on a hunting trip to the Diamond Lake country. Their friends here have their mouths all set for a roast of bear meat on their return.

Mr. H. H. Burnham has returned from Dayton, Ore., and is gathering his horses, which he has recently sold.

Mr. Frank Swingle and wife stopped a day or two with Langell Valley friends on their way to Ashland from Fort Rock, where they have been to visit their son, H. F. Swingle.
