MAYOR GAYNOR TELLS OF VICE IN GREAT CITY

BEHIND MOST REMARKABLE CRIMINAL OF GENERATION

New York Executive Declares That He Will Not Set a Thief to Catch a Thief—Outlines His Policy as Pertaining to the Police Affairs of the Great Metropolis of the United States

Gaynor vs Graft

Of the twelve that dipped the cap with Jesus one betrayed Him. It is not all astonishing, then, that Becker betrayed Waldo.

It would not only be weak, but contemptible in a mayor to sacrifice his heads of departments when some clamor arises. I will never set a crook to catch a crook. My police head must be an honest man.

The great sources of graft are enforcement of the excise laws, the law against gambling, and the law against prostitution.

There are grafters still left in the police of the old regime, and I would not be surprised if an old-time inspector should yet be caught.

Becker is not a type. If all the evidence against him is true he is the most remarkable criminal of a generation.

In enforcement of the excise law we have cut off graft of $2,000,000 a year alone.

CHARGED WITH A FELONY, HE IS GIVEN A CHANCE TO RETURN GOODS STOLE AND GET JAIL SENTENCE

Eller is experiencing some difficulty in assembling the watch chain and charm, ring and other articles, and is being held in the county jail.

Kastle is willing to change the charge if the goods are returned, but it has developed that Eller sold the ring to a local barber, who has sent it to Seattle to have the initials removed. A telegram has been sent to the Seattle firm, asking for the return of the ring.

BOWLING TO BE WINTER SPORT

Bowling tournaments promise to be a feature of the winter months, following the leasing of the Jericho Club alleys by the Palm Cigar store. Already there is talk of a tournament, and there are several teams in sight. Since taking over the alleys a few days ago, the new management has spent considerable money in planing, leveling and shelling the alleys, and they are now in first class condition. A new set of pins and regulation balls have been ordered, and will arrive in a few days.

The White Pelican hotel will be represented by a team of the best pin artists in the city. Several of the guests at the hostelry have made good records in other cities, and two or three possess medals won at big tournaments. The Mika and Odd Fellows will each have strong teams, and it is reported that the Moose Lodge will have a quintet of tenpin knights.

The lad has a promise of employment, and will start to work Monday.

Rollo C. Groesbeck, the defendant's attorney, asked the court to parole the prisoner, stating that the leniency of the court would be an incentive to the youth to mend his ways. The prisoner also expressed his desire of starting anew, and the request for parole was granted after the judge took occasion to give the prisoner some helpful advice.

BUD ANDERSON IS WINNER OVER THE FAST PICATO BOY

VANCOUVER LAD PURPORTS HOLD HIS OWN KNOCKOUT

Because of Grand Jury Probe, It is Decided Not to Give a Decision. Picato is Held Up by Had to Keep From Causing the Suspicion to Arise That Fight Had Been Held.

Special to The Herald

MEDFORD, Ore., Dec. 7.—That Anderson is a wonder. He will certainly be the world's champion of the lightweight class some of these days.

This statement was made last night by the manager of "Rab" Picato, a manager with fifteen years' experience in the ring game, at the conclusion of the ten-round bout between Anderson and Picato, in which the former was master in every stage of the battle.

Owing to the fact that the grand jury is in session, and is said to be investigating boxing matches held here, last night's bout was declared a draw by pre-arrangement, Anderson being afraid to score a knockout with an indictment for "arranging a prize fight" hanging over him.

Anderson led from the start, and in the second round he would have won from his opponent by the knockout route, but for the pre-arrangement consummated by the grand jury's activity. In order to keep Picato from taking the count in this round, Anderson held him up for several seconds.

Picato displayed cleverness, but he was no match for the Vancouver lightweight. Considering the fact that Picato is one of the toughest "trial horses" championship aspirants have to meet before getting a chance at the top notches in the lightweight division, local fans are confident that Dick Donald's protegee will some day lead the 132-pound division.

ALLEN TRIAL IS POSTPONED

FAILURE OF SPECIAL VENUE MEN TO ARRIVE HERE RESULTS IN CONTINUANCE OF CASE UNTIL MONDAY

The trial of Robert Allen, charged with forgery, was continued until Monday, when the circuit court convened this morning. This action was taken by Judge Benson on account of the inability of some of the members of the jury panel to reach the county seat before that time.

After seven jurors had been accepted by C. M. O'Neill for the state and Deputy District Attorney Manning for the defense Thursday, the panel was exhausted, and the sheriff and clerk were instructed to draw a new venire of nine jurors. As some of the jurors reside in remote parts of the county, some time is required to serve them with summons.
