SAFE REMEDIES ENDS CATARRH TROUBLES

GIVES INSTANT RELIEF, CURES AND PREVENTS CATARRH AND COLD IN THE HEAD

The quietest, best and safest way to cure catarrh or a cold in the head is by using a remedy that will "touch the spot" and do its work quickly without leaving any bad effects. Ely's Cream Balm, which is applied to the nostrils or rubbed on the throat or chest, gets right at the root of the trouble and instantly relieves even the worst case of catarrh or cold. A few minutes after applied you can feel a loosening up in the head, the pain and soreness are gone, the sense of taste, smell and hearing come back, and you feel like a different person.

Ely's Cream Balm cleanses, heals and strengthens the inflamed membrane, takes away that stuffed up feeling and dull pain in the head, relieves the throat soreness and stops the nasty discharge which is the cause of the disgusting hawking, spitting, blowing of the nose and foul breath. Hay fever victims who are made miserable by fits of sneezing, coughing and wheezing get instant and permanent relief by the use of this simple remedy.

Don't snore another minute. Ely's Cream Balm will relieve you immediately, and a 50 cent bottle will more than likely work a complete cure. All druggists sell it.—Adv.

WEEKLY SERMON

Good Resolutions

By Rev. J. S. Stubblefield, Pastor First Presbyterian Church

Matt. 24:23—Though all men shall be offended because of thee, yet will I never be offended.

This is the season for good resolutions. Many of the good resolutions made last Wednesday have already been broken. People do not ordinarily think much of broken resolutions. A broker would have a hard time disposing of broken resolutions on Wall street, even if he offered them below par. Today, I suppose, there are millions of broken resolutions in this country that could be picked up for a little less than nothing. Some people have an idea that broken resolutions are worse than nothing. Many men would give a good deal to have their broken resolutions taken off their hands or heart.

Our text is a resolution. It is one of Peter's good resolutions. It was made in the early part of the night. When Peter gave expression to it Jesus told him that it would be broken three times before the dawning of the morning. Now, when it received the third fracture, Peter shed a few tears over it, but bugged it all the

County Court Calls Attention to System now in Vogue and Promises an Answer to the Grand Jury

In a frank statement issued late Friday afternoon, County Judge Warden, speaking for the county court, announced that answers to the specific charges of the recent grand jury would shortly be given publicly. In the meantime, the court called attention to the present system in vogue in the county court house, and showed how the hands of the county court had been tied by tradition in methods. Statement regarding this feature is as follows:

"While we do not question the motives of the grand jury, we desire to state in the premises that, as a county court, our motives have been good and we have sought to do that which we believed to be for the best interests of Klamath county.

"Very likely we have made mistakes in some capacities. We were not human were this not so.

"We were somewhat chagrined to find, however, that in the whole report there was not one good thing said of us. While we have doubtless made mistakes, we could not bring ourselves to feel that we were wholly bad.

"And while we regret that we have been placed in an unenviable light occasioned by the report, we are constrained to say that we believe much good will come of it and that diverse things may be talked about, now, on account of its issuance, which the county court could not heretofore discuss without a feeling that some of its constituents might believe that it desired to control the county politically or rush unadvisedly into print.

"The county court and commissioners are executive officers. They keep no books and handle no money. The county clerk is by law their secretary and bookkeeper, and the county treasurer the custodian of all the funds.

"The system of bookkeeping in vogue is obsolete and dates back over twenty years. The county clerk is also circuit clerk, recorder and auditor. His vault is too small and unsafe, and consequently his records in a jumble. His method of bookkeeping is out of date, and he has too much to do.

"The books are now kept exactly as they were kept during the period of the former county court, and bills are paid in identically the same way. There is a form of bill used which the claimant signs and swears to before the county clerk, saying therein, on his oath, that the above claim is just and true and the amount claimed is due and unpaid. This lays him liable in case of fraud, but has long been recognized by the law, and by former county clerks and county courts as the proper way to present a bill to the county court. The county court then passes on the same at its regular meeting, and, if it feels satisfied that it is just and proper, allows the same. If not, it disallows it."

Regarding the expiring of the books, the statement reads:

"As per recommendations of the preceding grand jury, that parties residing outside of Klamath county be secured to expert the books of the county clerk as they are kept by the county clerk, it was expected by the county court to commence expiring on November 15th, a gentleman from San Francisco having been engaged to commence at that time, but after waiting until December 1, it was ascertained that he could not perform the service. An effort was then made to secure the services of Mr. E. M. Wilson of Medford, who annually experts for Modoc county, California. He advised us that it would be impossible for him to commence work before January 12 to 20. In the meantime, Mr. C. L. Parvish of Portland was called to our attention, and we have engaged his services. His work commenced January 2, 1913."

Deputy District Attorney Charles J. Ferguson is expected home today from San Francisco, where he has been spending the holidays.

THE NEW YEAR

It is a good time of the year to meditate, to think a little about the past and more than a little about the future. The past cannot be undone, but the future is ours to mould as we will. The year 1913 will be largely what we make it. If we are dissatisfied, it may be that the fault lies with ourselves, and it might be well to turn a page and plan something different for the new year. Come in and get the rest of the story.
