MEDAL FOR BEST GOOD ROAD STORY

COMPETITION IS OPEN TO ALL SCHOOL CHILDREN BETWEEN THE AGES OF TEN AND FIFTEEN YEARS

A gold medal to the school boy or girl between the ages of 10 and 15 years who writes the best composition, not to exceed 300 words, on the repair and maintenance of earth roads, is to be awarded by Logan Waller Page, director, office of public roads, United States department of agriculture, Washington, D. C. All compositions must be submitted to Mr. Page before May 15, 1913, and the medal will be awarded as soon thereafter as the compositions can be graded. The composition may be based on knowledge gained from books or other sources, but no quotations should be made.

After many years' experience in dealing with the public road situation of the country, it is Mr. Page's belief that ignorance on the subject of repair and maintenance of roads is as much the cause of their bad condition as any other one factor. It is expected that the competition will bring about a better understanding of the subject of repair and maintenance in the rural districts.

Many children living in the rural districts have experienced the disadvantages of roads made impassable through a lack of proper maintenance, and it is expected that their interest in the competition will stimulate greater interest among the parents. Bad roads have prevented many children from obtaining a proper education and have even prevented doctors from reaching the side of rural parents in time to save their lives.

Any child between the ages mentioned, attending a country school, may compete. Only one side of the paper must be written on; each page should be numbered; the name, age and address of the writer and the name and location of the school of which he or she is attending must be plainly written at the top of the first page. The announcement of the competition has been sent to the superintendents of schools in the rural districts. No further information can be obtained from the office of public roads. This announcement should be plain to everyone, and all children will thus start on a basis of equality.

Princess Victoria May Marry Soon

It has been persistently reported from Europe that ex-King Manuel of Portugal, whose escapades with Gaby Deslys made her known throughout Europe and America, is about to wed a distant relative of Kaiser Wilhelm—the daughter of Prince Wilhelm Hohenzollern, head of the non-reigning Catholic branch of the Hohenzollern family. For several months the ex-king has made regular visits to Sigmarings, the family home of the princess on the Danube, and he is there now.

JIU-NI-YEL HOP POSTPONED WEEK

INSTEAD OF FRIDAY, DANCING AND CARD PARTY WILL BE GIVEN ON THE EVENING OF THE NINTH OF MAY

On account of a conflict with a social evening arranged by the local lodge of Elks, the Jiu-ni-yel Club has decided to postpone its dancing and card party for a week. Instead of being given Friday night at Houston's opera house, the entertainment will take place a week later.

Quite a number of invitations have been sent out by the committee. There is much interest being shown in the party, and a large attendance is assured.

J. N. Gregg of Kennett is among Wednesday's visitors in Klamath Falls.

George Bradnack is here from his homestead in the Rhett Lake country.

5 KLAMATH CO. PHONE POSTS OUT

LACK OF BUSINESS, SALE OF LINKS, ETC., CAUSE OF TELEPHONE OFFICES IN STATE TO BE CLOSED

SALEM, April 20.—The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company has closed sixty-seven telephone stations in this state and has applied to the state railroad commission for its approval. The matter will come up for hearing before the commission on May 5th in Salem.

These former telephone stations are scattered throughout the state. The company gives various reasons for abandoning them.

Many were abandoned because the receipts were too small, some because the agent had moved away, some because the agent was unsatisfactory, some because the line had been sold, some because the company found no further use for them.

Of the sixty-seven stations closed, five are in Klamath county. They are the stations located at Bald Butte, Clover Creek, Olene, Parkers Station and Pokogama.

James Pelton, a well known Fort Klamath resident, is in the county seat. He will be here for several days.

A. C. Mullineaux came in from Chiloquin Tuesday on a business trip.

Staid Washington Has a Bowery Too

Street Better Known as Ninth Street, But it Sure is Some Lively Little Lane at That, Say Reports

(Written for the United Press)

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 20.—Washington, capital of capitals, where everything, including the city's morals, is under the watchful eye of the house and senate, each with a different idea as to how to run a national capital, has a Bowery. Of course, that isn't the name of the street. Such a name is not "high brow" enough for the nation's capital. Even if it had started blisfully in its youth with that cognomen some legislator would have changed it to commemorate some one from his district who had invented a new kind of soft soap, or had ideas on currency reform. Its name is merely Ninth street—a non-committal sort of distinction which is possessed by streets all the way from Oshkosh, Wis., to Lone Peach Tree, Alabama.

But if its name is mediocre, Ninth street has atmosphere. Not even a patriotic senator or a valuable congressman could rob it of its atmosphere. The wearied New Yorker who longs for a breath of Broome street, or Spring street, or the Bowery; the Westerner who craves to hear again the metallic jangling of the tin piano in front of the moving picture show on Douglas street in Omaha; the Milwaukeean or Chicagoan who wants surcease from legislative worries by the cosmopolitan sights he would see along Third and Wells streets, or Dearborn street—all, all are invited to go down on Ninth street when they come to Washington and get the atmosphere from home and possibly meet another from his home town.

For Ninth street has an individuality of cosmopolitanism which satisfies all strangers in the District of Columbia. Somehow the lights are brighter, the moving picture show signs more lurid, the people happier looking, and the hurdy gurdy more blantly like the "home town" than anywhere else in Washington. It is as if Ninth street, realizing that it stands as the only unexpressed, really human note in the national capital, knows its responsibility, and is determined to let no influence, not a legislative one, deprive it of its quietude.

"Bowery" of Washington comes from Pennsylvania avenue street, a matter of three very city blocks, in the northwest corner of the city. It isn't anything more than a succession of stores where goods are cheaper than anywhere else in town; where the one-price shows, the pawnshops seem to have conspired for companionship. Some of the pawnshops always form the central note of a street which naturally

MORE SHEEP AND LESS COW-CHEAP

SWIFT & COMPANY IN NEW YEAR BOOK TELL THE PUBLIC THAT THERE IS NO PROSPECT OF CHEAPER BEEF

CHICAGO, April 20.—"Eat more lamb and mutton and less beef," advises Swift & Co., meat packers, "if you would reduce the cost of living." The company issued its 1913 "year book" today, summarizing conditions in the packing industry.

The packers see no hope of relief from high beef prices. Figures in the book assert that, while the population of the United States has increased approximately 14,562,000 in the last ten years, the number of cattle in the country has decreased 7,468,000 during the same period.

"From this," reads the book, "it is evident that the consumer, if he does not wish meat values to mount still higher, must advocate increased production of cattle. To relieve the pressure of the present demand for beef the increased use of lamb and mutton is urged."

Edmund Chilcote, George J. Walton and Fred B. Bremer made a trip to Merrill and vicinity Tuesday in the former's automobile.

John A. Durst is here from Marysville in the interests of the Standard Oil company.
