CHAMPION FLY CASTER IN CITY

J. B. KIMIFF, WHO HOLDS THE SUPREMACY IN CALIFORNIA, IS HERE TO FISH—WOULD ORGANIZE CLUB

Mansfield, former world's champion fly-caster, who visits this section every year, is not the only fly-caster of note to seek out Klamath waters, as J. B. Kimiff, a member of the San Francisco Fly-Casting club, and champion of the state, is here to fish for several days. He will spend some time at Harriman lodge.

Kimiff has organized fly-casting clubs in various places in Oregon and California. He may affect such an organization here, according to several sportsmen, providing proper enthusiasm is shown.

ARANT GOING TO PARK NEXT WEEK

TRIP WILL BE MADE TO DETERMINE THE TIME CRATER LAKE WILL BE ACCESSIBLE TO TRAVELERS

In order to ascertain some knowledge of the time when Crater lake will be open for traffic, Park Superintendent W. Frank Arant plans to visit the park in a few days. He will leave the first of the coming week if the weather is favorable. Captain Arant is of the opinion that the park will be open to tourists by July 1, if the weather continues warm enough to melt the snow.

OBJECT TO SHIP BEING A TARGET

THREATENED DISPOSITION OF HISTORIC BATTLESHIP OREGON CAUSES BIG PROTEST IN THE STATE

WASHINGTON, May 15.—If proposals of naval officers are realized, the historic battleship Oregon, and her sister ships, the Indiana and Massachusetts, will be used as targets for the batteries of the more modern fighting machines. The proposition is causing unfavorable comment.

PORTLAND, May 15.—Public sentiment is expected to checkmate any attempt that the navy department may make to destroy the old battleship Oregon. Following the department's announcement that the Oregon was to be scrapped, such a storm of protest and indignation was brewed that the secretary of the navy yielded to popular demand, and promised that the old fighting craft should not go to the bonafire.

Now come dispatches from Washington that the Oregon, with other battleships of the older types, is to be used as a target for high-powered projectiles. As this would amount to practically the same thing as a perhaps less interesting method of destruction under the trip hammers, the feeling against target procedure is already manifest.

"It's an outrage to think of consigning the Oregon to such a fate," says Frederick V. Holman, president of the Oregon Historical society.

"It seems unnecessary and an unwise procedure. If there were no other way in which the efficiency of the navy's high-powered projectile could be tested, it would be a different thing. The Oregon should be saved. Its presence in Portland harbor, in view of its war record, and its wonderful trip around the Horn, would have a patriotism inspiring effect on young and old. If the battleship must be consigned to oblivion, it should be taken out on the high seas and sunk with honor. The proposition to make it a target, and so set it up for destruction, is unjustifiable."

GARDEN SAGE DARKENS GRAY HAIR SO NATURALLY NOBODY CAN TELL

Restores Its Lustre, Prevents Scalp Itching; Dandruff and Falling Hair

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. While it is a messy tedious task, it well repays those whose hair is turning gray, faded and streaked. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks dry, wispy and scraggly just an application of two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred fold. Don't bother to prepare the tonic; you can get from any druggery a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," ready to use.

SENIORS BONING ON THEIR LINES

PLAY TO BE PRESENTED TUESDAY EVENING IS AN ADAPTATION FROM THE GERMAN—LARGE CAST REQUIRED

Tuesday evening, May 20, at Houston's opera house, the annual senior play will be presented by the senior class of the Klamath county high school. The play selected this year is a translation of the popular modern German comedy, "Die Journalisten" ("The Editors"), by Gustav Tretzgar. Although the dialogue will be in English, it is the intention to make the production in all other respects as typically German as possible.

The theme of the drama is the rivalry between two political parties, each represented by its own newspaper. The following is the cast of characters:

Edward Oldendorf, editor of the Times, and candidate for representative, Robert Riggs.
Konrad Boltz, assistant, Harry Mesner.
Hellmaus, Hardin Carter, and Kampe, Albert Jones, employed on the Times.
Muller, Paul Noel.
Henning, owner of Times, Oliver Applegate.
Colonel Berg, the Courier's candidate for representative, Ernest Noel.
Ida Berg, his daughter, engaged to Oldendorf, Jennie Applegate.
Adelheid Runkel, waitress, friend of Ida, Maysel Sanderson.
Korb, Adelheid's secretary, Ralph Hurn.
Senden, Harry Galearneux, and Blumenberg, Theodore Case, on the Times staff.
Schmoek, Lester Boggs.
Judge Schwarz, Clifford Levits.
Philip Piepenbrink, Joe Skelton; Kleinmichel, Rex La Prairie, and Fritz Kleinmichel, Louie McClure, voters.
Mrs. Piepenbrink, Hazel Summers. Bertha Piepenbrink, Alla Balls.
Mme. Pavoni, French dancer, Ines Elliot.
