

What the Tariff Will Do for Us

A Careful Study of the New Measure by an Expert

By BOND P. GREGG
(Staff Correspondent of the United Press)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 12.—There's mighty little hope for the drug store blond and the artificial beauty in the new democratic tariff law. If not naturally beautiful or entrancing, and the ancient and masculine partiality for the girl who classes as a "good looker" doesn't change, it's a good night for yours. One thing seems evident, and that is that the democratic tariff framers did more to discourage the use of face paint and enamels and phasty nose powders than all the mothers clubs and reformers organizations could have accomplished in a hundred years. Of course if your beauty can't be washed off the tariff doesn't affect you. But if you get the color of your cheeks or hair from a drug store, and depend solely on artificiality for your beauty and attractiveness, you'd better make up your mind to ask father or hubby for a bigger allowance or prepare to be a wall-flower henceforth.

With the exception of false teeth, talcum powder and bustles, everything from "switches" to cosmetics will cost more than heretofore because of increases in import duties. Paint and pastes, lotions and lozenges powder and perfume, sachet and switches—in fact, practically all the beautifiers so dear to the feminine heart, have had the import duties increased, and therefore they'll be dearer. The beautifiers which haven't had the import raised, haven't had it lowered, so they'll cost as much if not more. Those democratic tariff framers, if they are at all to be judged by their attitude toward artificial beauty, are as straight-laced when it comes to face powder and rouge as the most inexorable Puritan preacher who ever fro m the pulpit denounced frills, furbelows and feathers. Taking all the increased duties on toilette accessories and striking an average, women and girls will have to pay from 2 to 5 cents more than formerly for the following articles:

Perfumery, cologne, toilet water, sachet powder, all applications for the hair (including dyes), mouth washes, tooth pastes, skin preparations, tooth soaps, cosmetics, some face and body powders, and many others.

False teeth and bustles, which latter are classed as "attire made of wire," are about the only beautifiers that will come in duty free. Nothing personal is meant by saying that a good many more women than will admit it will be thankful for these. The new law does decrease the tariff on talcum powders and some perfumed soaps and camphor. But the tax on musk, that seductive, overwhelmingly and perennially popular perfume, is boosted. Milady's powder rag of chamols will come in with a 20 per cent reduction, but as one of those lasts a mighty long time, the decrease hasn't raised an awful lot of cheering and applause.

Yes, there is one other hope. The duty on manicure instruments has been shaved, so you can keep your fingers "pretty" as cheaply as before, at any rate.

Town Topics

Undergoes Operation.
Edward Short, the 11-year-old son of John Short, was operated on this forenoon by Drs. Fisher, Morrow and Hamilton. The little fellow had been suffering with tonsil trouble.

Goes to Agency.
Dr. Hamilton was called to the Klamath Agency this afternoon to attend a case, the nature of which was not given in the telephone message summoning him.

Another De Lap.
Word has been received from Ashland of the birth of a son Monday to Mr. and Mrs. Chester De Lap. The proud father is a son of County Clerk C. R. De Lap, and a twin brother of Charles De Lap.

To Move to Town.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Ankeny are preparing to forsake for the winter their ranch in the valley and move here. They have a home on West Main street.

On His Way Home.
True Cox, the well known rancher from the Seven Mile country, arrived in the city Tuesday night from Alameda, on his way back to the ranch.

INQUIRIES ARE COMING FAST

UNIVERSITY LECTURE ARE IN BIG DEMAND FOR LECTURE COURSES SINCE ARRANGEMENTS ARE COMPLETED

(Herald Special Service)
EUGENE, Nov. 12.—Lecturers from the regular faculty of the University of Oregon are available for public library courses anywhere in the state without expense to the library or to the hearers, and inquiries are becoming numerous.

The cities of Coos Bay, Marshfield, North Bend, Bandon, Coquille and Myrtle Point are trying to arrange a series whereby each university professor in the series would give a lecture in the public library of each city.

A series running to the close of the college year has been arranged for Salem, and a series of three of four lectures weekly is scheduled for Portland main, branch and suburban libraries as far as January 9th.

Other places negotiating are Newberg, Astoria, Pendleton and Silverton.

Consultation hours will also be arranged at some of the public libraries between university professors and people who desire to talk over books or subjects in which they are especially interested. Such consultations may often result in the seeker entering one of the University's free correspondence courses. The consultation hours will often become a clearing house for general information as to how the University can place at the disposal of each community what knowledge it has available.

Lots of Prunes
It now develops that Douglas county will ship at least 175 cars of dried prunes this year. There is 40,000 pounds in each car load. Sharpen your pencil and figure out what this means to the farmers that were forehanded enough to plant out a few acres.—Roseburg Review.

Breaks Into Fiction
Jack London, world famed as an author, pays a tribute to the Rogue River Valley in the December issue of the Cosmopolitan magazine, in his novel, "The Valley of the Moon." Two lovers are seeking for perfect content, and the search is always found futile, but London, at 20 cents a word says nice things about us. The beauties of the scenery, the returns of apple raising, the climate and fishing are woven into the tale.—Medford Sun.

All Highbrows
Results from last Tuesday's election now appear to have placed Jackson county third in the state in its majority for the university appropriations. Jackson county has taken pride in its support of good schools, and it is gratifying to know that at this special election, when so small a vote was polled, that the majority in favor of the university bills was so strong. It is quite probable that a larger vote would have made a larger proportion of "yes" votes.—Ashland Tidings.

Water Users Given Further Time
be paid by November 30. Proceedings will be commenced for the collection of all such dues remaining unpaid after December 31st.

"This new order does not give relief from the final payment of the 1912 construction charges, but suspends action for collection until May 1, 1914, during which time payment should be made for the full amount of $2 per acre by every water user able to make said payment.

On May 1, 1914, the 1913 construction charge can be met by the payment of $1 per acre, and the remaining $2 per acre will be carried over for five years, providing the operation and maintenance charges are paid as above stated.

"During the next session of congress, bills recommended by the Interior department will be introduced providing a general extension of time for twenty years. Should such a bill pass, it will leave all who have paid three full construction charges sufficient credit to meet every dollar due at that date, and give credit ahead for all amounts paid in excess of three full payments that have been made upon the base of $2 per acre per year.

"This general extension of time will be urged with all the forces at the command of the water users."

Up From Malin.
August Cacks came in Tuesday from Malin for a short visit.

Wife of New Mayor of New York

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—Mrs. John Parroy Mitchell, wife of the new mayor of New York, is one of the youngest women to become the first lady of the Metropolis. For that matter, her husband will be the youngest mayor of the city—his age is 35—and she is not so old. Mrs. Mitchell is an intellectual woman, much interested in ethical culture. While she believes in woman suffrage, she has not been bolshewick about it, and has not associated herself with the women who have been denominated suffragettes.

It is not likely that as wife of the mayor she will keep up a large establishment, for the Mitchells are not wealthy, and the young mayor will probably have to live within his salary of $15,000 a year.

Clarence Is Here
NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—Clarence Mackay returned today from Europe, accompanied by the children of Joan Ellen. When asked if he planned a divorce he replied:
"I think you will understand why it is impossible for me to discuss my domestic affairs."

the sportsmen of Sacramento. Both geese and ducks are to be served, and hunting parties will be in the field from now until just before the banquet. Pledges were made by members present at Tuesday's meeting for at least 500 birds. A prize is to be given to the member supplying the largest bag, providing it does not exceed the limit laid down in the game laws.

The following committees were appointed to arrange for the annual meeting:

- Sale of tickets—W. O. Smith, J. B. Chambers, J. J. Parker, C. C. Ferris and T. W. Phiniger.
 - Banquet—E. B. Hall, C. I. Roberts and Fred L. Houston.
 - Duck committee—J. B. Chambers, C. I. Roberts, Dr. E. V. Morrow.
 - Program for meeting—Hunter Savidge, W. O. Smith and E. B. Hall.
- The association now has a membership of 93. All of these have joined voluntarily, without solicitation. It was proposed to increase the membership to 200, and a special prize of a hunting coat was offered by J. B. Chambers of the Gun Store to the one securing the greatest number

WILL ALTER THE STEAMER KLAMATH

CABIN ARRANGEMENT WILL BE COMPLETELY CHANGED IN ORDER TO FACILITATE WORK OF TOWING

(Herald Special Service)

SHIPPINGTON, Nov. 12.—We are told that the steamer Klamath is to be much altered and changed, after the present towing season is passed.

The boat, it is said, will be cut down to the proportions of a tug boat, that is, her cabin will be mainly cut away, and heavy towing bits will be placed shaft the midships. There will be quarters forward for the crew.

The boat formerly was operated by the Crater Lake company, and is the fastest steamer on the Upper Lake. It is now owned by the Pelican Bay Lumber company, and is used in towing logs.

This Year's Grain Crop in Klamath County Is Estimated at One Million, Two Hundred Thousand Bushels

One-third more grain has been produced in Klamath County this season than has ever been produced before. This has been due mainly to the fact that we have in the last twelve months had quite an influx of new farmers. Within the next year there will be a great many more farmers coming into this county. This will mean increased business in the city of Klamath Falls. More business houses will be required to cope with the increase of trade. More workmen will have to be brought in. These workmen will require homes to live in. Property values will increase with the increased business. We have some choice locations which can be bought at a reasonable price on easy terms. Why not buy one of these lots, build on it and secure yourself of from 15 to 20 per cent interest on your investment? This is an opportunity to let your money make money. Why not take it? Call at our office for information as to good building locations.

Regal
A Shoe For a Purpose

Style is like a shadow. You can point your finger at it, but you can't put your finger on it. It doesn't shout—it whispers. It aims as much for repression as for expression. A case in point—

"Barrister" Walking and Business Boot—$5
Made of Black Calf or Russet Leather—roundish, sloping toe—perforated cap—medium arch—low, square, solidly planted heel—top corners curved off—invisible eyelets—Gothic hooks—a boot with that deceptive plainness which is the quintessence of present-day "smartness."

There are 97 exclusive Regal Shops and 500 Accredited Regal Agents. Send for our Fall Style Book, "Round the World with a Regal," picturing what to wear and when to wear it.
