When the case was called this afternoon Prosecuting Attorney Irwin stated that it would be impossible for him to proceed, as the complaining witness had not been served with a subpoena. After censuring the sheriff's office for not attempting to make personal service, the case was dismissed by Judge Benson.

Juror Orfield, drawn as a member of the December panel, was discharged, as he is a justice of the peace.

This forenoon, naturalization petitions occupied the attention of the court. The following were granted papers:

- Ernest Max Heppie, Midland, native of Germany. Elizabeth Amelia Bunge, Klamath Falls, native of Germany. Louis Lawrence Steen, Klamath Falls, native of Norway. Arnold Prose, Fort Klamath, native of England.

TOP STEERS ARE BRINGING $7.50

DESPITE BIG SHIPMENT OF HOGS TO PORTLAND UNION STOCK YARDS, PRICES STILL REMAIN AT 8 CENTS ON THE HOOK

(Herald Special Service)

PORTLAND, Dec. 1.—The cattle market is holding steady for top quality, with steers selling at $7.50 for best stuff. More medium grade cattle were offered than choice. Cow stuff was about the same grade of poor quality that has been offered for some time, selling from $4.50 to $5.75, with just one lot selling for 6 cents.

There was a big run of hogs for the first of the week, but tops still held at 8 cents for three loads Monday, and the week closed strong with fifteen loads for the open market, and the top quality still going at 8 cents.

The show is billed for December 8-13, and will attract shippers from the entire Northwest. It will be the largest show ever held west of the Rockies.

Sheep receipts were increased from every Northwestern state last week, and still the sum total was not exceptionally large, but what the run lacked in quantity it amply made up in quality.

Prime ewes brought $4 again, and choice wethers $4.75 to $5 for exceptional quality. Lambs elicited a $6 bid, with the market closing on a firm basis.

F. Hughes of Salem, D. E. Duncan of Hood River, C. F. Stone of Klamath Falls and George H. Kelly of Portland. All members of the commission were present at the hearing.

The following recommendation was made by the jury: "We, the undersigned grand jury of Klamath county, Oregon, after carefully inspecting the county jail, do most respectfully recommend that the honorable county court place the county jail in a sanitary condition by burning all of the filthy bedding and refurbishing the same with new, and thoroughly cleaning and calamineing the interior of the building, and that the jailor or sheriff see that the place be kept in a clean and healthy condition in which to receive and confine our prisoners.
