UNION SERVICE HELD TOMORROW

CHURCHES WILL UNITE IN A THANKSGIVING OBSERVANCE, TO BE HELD AT THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The Protestant churches of the city will hold their annual Union Thanksgiving service at the Christian church tomorrow, beginning at 11 o'clock. The Thanksgiving sermon will be given by Rev. A. F. Simmons, pastor of the Baptist church.

The musical part of the services will be conducted by J. B. Mason. He will lead a choir composed of singers from all of the churches.

Elder S. D. Harlan of the Christian church will lead the Scriptural reading. The Thanksgiving prayer will be offered up by Rev. J. S. Stubblefield, pastor of the Presbyterian church.

The offering will be under the direction of Rev. E. C. Richards, pastor of Grace M. E. church. This offering will be the nucleus for a fund to be used in the enforcement of the prohibition law after Oregon goes "dry."

MIDGETS WILL PUT ON DRAMA

"THE WEDDING OF TOM THUMB" WILL BE GIVEN AT THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH A WEEK FROM TOMORROW NIGHT

After some strenuous rehearsing and drilling, the cast to produce "The Wedding of Tom Thumb" has reached the point where the date can be set. Accordingly, posters have been issued announcing that the bill will be presented at the Christian church Friday, December 4th.

The play is put on entirely by children, and the little shavers are showing remarkable talent in their preliminary work.

You movie fans who are getting the names of companies or productions the actors recently listed in this column, had better hurry and send them in. If you wish to get in on the prizes, season tickets to the theaters. The contest closes Saturday, and all lists not submitted by that time will not be considered.

There have been a number of inquirers at work on the list, several of whom had nearly all of the names and companies. If they wish to get in on the prize, they had better submit their lists without delay.

In addition to the farce comedy, "Another Man's Wife," produced by six local people at the Orpheus tonight, a three-part Indian feature will be shown. "The Last Ghost Dance" is a stirring picture of the early days in the West, and introduces many of the noted chieftains now living on the government reservation in Oklahoma. The story centers around White Eagle a young brave who had graduated from Carlisle Indian school. His love for a rancher's daughter is spurned, and in revenge he dons his war paint, and exhorts his fellow redskins to rise up and slay the whites. At the last moment, however, White Eagle becomes remorseful, and is mortally wounded in defending his intended victims.

"Auntie's Last Attempt," a comedy, completes the bill, which will be repeated tomorrow.

Everything is in readiness for a gala time at the Star Thanksgiving night. The Medford High School Vaudeville company will arrive tonight. So that the show will start promptly at the usual hour. Tomorrow night the boys have some fine press notices, and we are of the opinion that they will make many of the so-called professionals take a back seat. Four reels of pictures will be run, in addition to the four vaudeville acts. The bill will be repeated Friday night.

Tomorrow afternoon a special matinee will be given at the Orpheus. "Bamford in Arcadia," a film version of the story of this name published in the Saturday Evening Post, will head the picture program. A comedy will complete the bill.
