PATRONIZE THE REGULAR ADVERTISER—HE IS A LIVE CONCERN

AUNTIE—Lucille, I notice a neat little advertisement upon this page, FISCHER'S ROOMING HOUSE. Now, do you know I think that is a good little advertisement, just enough to always keep before the people, and yet enough to announce their business.

LUCILLE—Well, Auntie, you know I always said that this particular page that the Herald is featuring twice a week, called the "Mutual Girl" page, would be a fine thing to advertise in, and I heard the other day that Mrs. Fischer's rooms were about all full all the time, now, supposing it does cost her a little, isn't that better than to not advertise, and have half of her rooms unoccupied?

AUNTIE—You are quite right, Lucille. How would strangers who are coming in all the time, and other people who want to make a change, know about Fischer's Rooming House, if they did not tell the people where they are and all about it. I see her rooms are at number 1017 Main street, about half way up Main street from the depot, and just a handy nice location. I hope they do well, and they will do well if they advertise—they can't help it if the advertise in the Herald.

MORAL—FISCHER'S ROOMING HOUSE is a comfortable place to get a furnished room by day, week or month, from 25 to 50 cents. Go and see them.

PALMS TAKE TWO FROM THE REGALS

CAPTAIN OF WINNING TEAM REACHES 200 MARK TWICE, FATTENING HIS AVERAGE TO SOME REAL PURPOSE

Owing to other affairs conflicting with the scheduled night of the game, the Palms and the Regals bowled their series of three games last night at the Palm Alloys. The Palms took the first and last games.
Captain Kent spilled the maples in such a manner as to chalk up 204 in the opening game. After making a decent score in the second, he hung up 200 in the last ten frames.
Tonight the Maximums and Linkville roll.
Last night's scores follow:

CORVALLIS HIGH MAY PLAY HERE

BENTON COUNTY BASKET SHOOTERS ARE PLANNING A TOUR OF SOUTHERN OREGON THIS MONTH

There is a possibility that the Corvallis high school team may play in Klamath Falls February 22 and 23, against the Klamath county high school squad. The team is planning a trip through southern Oregon, and if it makes this it will come to Klamath Falls.
Besides the two games with the high school, there might be a third with the Merrill high school team or the Kewpies opposing the visitors.
Neutrals Leave Alsace
United Press Service
BERNE, Switzerland, Feb. 9.—The exodus of neutrals from Alsace ended today as result of extraordinary precautions taken by the German government, which ordered that all neutrals must be out of Upper Alsace by the morning of February 10th. Before being allowed to cross the frontier, they must spend a fortnight on the right bank of the Rhine, falling in which they are threatened with one year's imprisonment.
It is estimated that the government's Grand Canyon game refuge, in Arizona, now contains about ten thousand deer.

RITCHIE MAKES A GOOD BEGINNING

AFTER KLAMATH FALLS HUSKY KNOCKED OUT HOPEFUL IN FIRST ROUND, S. F. FANS ARE STARTED GUESSING

"If that Ritchie boy continues as he did when I saw him knock Murphy out in less than one round, I'll try and have him shown in the Klamath livestock division," says Cale Oliver, in a letter from San Francisco, commenting on the showing made there recently by Earl Ritchie, an 18 year old Klamath lad who is in San Francisco after heavyweight honors.
Marion Salazar makes the following comment in the Bulletin on the bout:
"Tom Sharkey refereed the windup, where Earl Ritchie, an 18 year old heavyweight, disposed of Jack Murphy in a round.
"Ritchie's performance in disposing of Murphy so quickly created more or less sensation and sent the fans home wondering if in the youngster a budding champion has not been unearthed.
"Murphy, who is built along the lines of Willie Meehan, flashed into prominence a week ago by walloping an opponent to slumberland in jig time. But last night the tables were reversed on him, and he had scarcely put up his hands when he ran into a straight left, which brought

A LITTLE SPORTING GOSSIP

By Hal Sheridan

United Press Service
NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—Candidates for outfield berths on the rejuvenated Yankees this season will have to prove themselves as adept at handling the ground balls as they are snaring the elusive fly before they can be sure of their jobs.
This is the latest ultimatum laid down by Manager Bill Donovan and only one of the several innovations. "Wild William" is planning to introduce in the hope that the Highlanders can be kicked back in the elite section of Ban Johnson's loop.
"Many is the game," sibilized Bill recently, "I have lost myself and seen other pitchers lose through some snafu."
In directing his gardeners toward this end, "William" will be aided by Joe Kelley, one time famous outfielder on the Baltimore Orioles, and now chief ivory hunter for the Yankees.
The cinder from his nose in a stream. "A few seconds later a cuff to the side of the head sprawled Murphy on his face, and he had just regained his feet when a left to the stomach caused his legs to double and lower him to the floor.
"Murphy was resting on all fours on the canvas when Referee Sharkey waved Ritchie to his corner and awarded him the fight."
Insurance that pays, on par on time. See Chillico, 625 Main St.

"We used to do it in the old days," said Joe, the other day, "and I can't see why we can't do it now. Many is the time I have seen Hugh Jennings, McGraw and many other old stars work for hours at a stretch learning the hop of a ball over a certain bit of ground. An infielder isn't considered much of a man if he isn't a good judge of a fly ball—and why shouldn't the outer defense be just as good a judge of a ground ball?"
Bob Shawkey just learned recently that he broke his hand in the world's series last October. The hand had been troubling him for some time and not long ago he had a doctor examine it. The examination showed that the two small bones in his right "finger" was badly cracked. Shawkey lays the blame onto Rabbit Maraville. He remembers, he said after stopping a sisler off the Rabbit's bat, that his hand pained him. The "M. D." fixed it up and promised Bob he would be as good as ever this season.
Two Birthdays Today
United Press Service
WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 9.—Representatives Dixon of Indiana and Claypool of Ohio today celebrated birthday anniversaries. Dixon is 68 and Claypool 56.
At least 25 per cent of the larch timber over large areas in eastern Oregon has been killed or weakened by mistletoe, and the forest service is taking steps to combat the pest.

SHOLL LEADING IN THE BOWLING

LINKVILLE MAN HAS THE HIGH AVERAGE, WITH JOE KENT SECOND IN LINE — TWELVE ABOVE 150 MARK

Percival Sholl, the old "strike-out" of the Linkville team, is leading the league in individual average, according to a glance through the dope book. He has an average of 171 for nine games played. Joe Kent is next with 166 5-6 for an even dozen games.
Following are the averages of the league bowlers who have rolled in more than three tournament games:

Name	Games	Average
