BUYING BLINDFOLDED

NOW many men and women in Klamath Falls do their shopping blindfolded? Funny when you think of it, that thinking men and women will play "blind man's buff" with their money.

You don't have to shop blindfolded unless you want to. The out-of-town houses started the big game of "blind man's buff."

But it's a dangerous game for us to play in our town.

It isn't a fair game. It isn't fair to ourselves. It isn't fair to our community.

It isn't fair to our home merchant. He is helping us, co-operating with us, working with us to upbuild and improve all our home institutions.

Then let us play fair with ourselves and with him. Let us give the home merchant the first chance. That is all he asks.

THE LETTER "E"

SOMEONE has advanced the opinion that the letter "e" is the most unfortunate character in the English alphabet, because it is always out of cash, forever in debt, never out of danger, and in hell all the time.

For some reason he overlooked the good fortunes of the letter, so we will call his attention to the fact that "e" is never in war and always in peace.

It is the beginning of existence, the commencement of ease and the end of trouble. Without it there would be no meat, no life and no heaven.

It is the center of honesty; makes love perfect, and without it there would be no editors, devils, nor news.

Scattered Shots

AT A RECENT meeting of prospective mother-in-laws it was decided that a training class should be started for some of Klamath Falls' future husbands. It was stated that far from being able to prepare breakfast for two and darn their own and their wives' socks, some of the young men contemplating matrimony do not even know enough not to use shaving soap for washing dishes.

THE PACKING plant to be built by the Klamath Packing company will furnish Klamath farmers with a good market for their stock. The best sugar factory when it is erected also will add to the farmers' income. As soon as a few more of this type of establishments are started, Klamath Falls will grow as never before, with the kind of growth that will be healthy and continual.

SOME MEN ARE content to only recognize their duty, not do it.

A KLAMATH FALLS band will be greatly appreciated this year. The time to show your appreciation is to give your support right now.

THE WISE MAN is not the one who knows everything, but the one who is able to keep the world from knowing just how little he knows.

OUR WEEKLY SERMON

"The Stature of a Man" By E. C. RICHARDS, Pastor Grace Methodist Episcopal Church

And which of you by being anxious can add one cubit unto the measure of his life? Matt. 6:27. Till we all attain unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ. Ephesians. 4:13.

There are two hemispheres to the moon, a dark and a light. So in life there are two hemispheres. These two are abiding, but not in the same ratio. Once the light was much the smaller of the two, but the light grows lighter and larger and illuminates the darker. Perhaps the darker will never wholly disappear. Shadows give tone and color and variety to all things. A house without shadows would be a monstrosity, a hugely deforming one. A painting without shadows would not be art. A mountain without shadows would be a glistening cone always with an overhead sun. A lake without shadows would be a burnished shield, not a lake. A tree without shadows would be without substance and a contradiction.

What would a life without shadows be? It would be a fully independent, uncharitable, unloved and unloving, glistening, heartless mockery of existence. Has your life shadows? Doubtless. And how often you have mourned over the fact and how it has sapped your energy and power. You have complained of the misfortunes that God has sent. You have murmured because of the lack in your life of what seemed blessings to others. And always you have worked out by these murmurings a sort of auto-intoxication that has poisoned your whole existence, brought hardship to your home, and blighted your friendships. Stop and think a moment. Would a God be worth much who would bring misfortunes to men? Could things go on with that kind of God? Are not the things that God brings to us, though seeming misfortunes at first glance, blessings in disguise? And are most all the things that we can truly call misfortunes brought on by our own will and sin? Scientists tell us that if we could look at the sun outside our own atmosphere, it would look blue. The reason things look so blue in life is that we get outside the normal atmosphere of the soul—we lose communion with God and cease to look at things in the God atmosphere. The easiest sermon to give is the one that nags. The easiest address to give is the faultfinding one. The easiest life to live is the critical. All these are easy in their first efforts, but in their final efforts they pale before those things that take that effort.

The most glorious thing to contemplate today is that the world's salvation is being worked out not by God alone, nor by man alone, but by both God and man. This view has in it not only encouragement but also something of self-satisfaction. If men alone had it to do, it would be hopeless. If God alone had it to do, we could take no satisfaction of pride in its accomplishment. The greatest privilege you or I can crave is the privilege to fight untrammelled in the vanquishment of wrong, error, sin. This view looks higher than any other. It has more of the tang of life in it than any other. Mere anxiety adds nothing to the measure of life. But when the Christ principle of fortitude, faith, effort, purity, prayer, self giving, is blended with the desire to be and do, then the life rises to the fullness of the Christ.
