

SOME MINOR WAR NEWS FROM EUROPE

LITTLE STORIES FROM THE FRONT THAT ARE COMING IN THROUGH THE CAPITALS OF THE NATIONS NOW FIGHTING EACH OTHER—SOME ARE TRIVIAL, BUT ALL ARE INTERESTING AT THIS TIME.

United Press Service LONDON, April 28.—(By mail to New York)—For the first time in history the Scottish bagpipe factories are working night and day, according to word from Glasgow.

It is not only the Scottish regiments that march to the battlefields behind the pipes. English, Irish, and even the Indian regiments have caught the "pipe craze," until now it is estimated that 10,000 pipes are playing "Johnny Cope" every morning in Britain, at sea or in France, and the demand for the instrument exceeds the supply.

The instruments cost from $35 to $45.

United Press Service LIVERPOOL, April 24.—(By mail to New York)—One of the most enthusiastic and most successful recruiting agents in all England is the frail little woman who with her band of militant followers only a year ago was conducting a veritable reign of terror. Almost nightly Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst addresses great mobs of men and women in one or another of the big industrial theaters, and of ficers say that her efforts are bringing hundreds of volunteers daily into Kitchener's army.

This is the way she put it to her audience last night:

"If you are able to fight, and you are of the right age, it is clearly your duty to come to the help of your country. How terrible it will seem to you later when you think of what you have let other men do for you.

"To employers of labor I would say: If you are feeling that you cannot spare the young men because of business has to go on. It is your duty to reconsider seriously whether they may be replaced by intelligent women. You must understand that before we are women, we are human beings; we have got brains, you know. In engineering work mechanism has now brought to such perfection that the workmen in many cases had only to touch a lever or button at the right moment—well, even I could do that. It is only in women's occupations that inventions and labor-saving devices have been neglected."

Hoping to show the Dunns in their true color, and in order to help his wards, who have been spoiled by wealth, the captain lets them know that they are penniless, and conceals the fact that he is the one to whom the fortune goes. The Dunns break off the match on finding the fortune gone, and the wards are brought to a true realization of the meaning of life as well as a true appreciation of their uncle's character. He then restores the fortune to them.

The cast follows: Captain Warren (retired sea captain)..... Guss Page Stephen Warren..... Paul Noel Caroline Warren..... Ella Dewis Mrs. Corcoran Dunn (who recognizes her duties as a member of the most exclusive circles)..... Louise Benson Malcolm Dunn (her son, the result of her teachings)..... Oliver Applegate Jim Pearson (a young novelist)..... Clifford Sevlis Graves and Sylvester (lawyers for the estate)..... Colman O'Laughlin, Claude Hill Abble Baker (the Captain's cousin)..... Mary McComb Edwards (the Warren's butler)..... Allan McComb Mrs. Hepton (handlady of boarding house)..... Anna May Johnson The Boarders—Mr. C. Dickens..... Harold Gillette Mrs. C. Dickens..... Verda Cozad Mrs. Van Winekle Ruggles..... Ethel Stubblefield Mr. Higgins..... Harry Prather

Here From Medford Miss Chloris Rippey arrived in the city last night from Medford, on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Harry Goeller.

On the death of their father, a wealthy stock broker, Caroline and Stephen Warren are left to the guardianship of their uncle, Elisha Warren, a retired sea captain. Regarding money and society as the end and aim of life, they resent the intrusion of their "backwoods" uncle. Mrs. Corcoran Dunn, a society leader, desiring a wealthy match for her son, Malcolm, encourages his intimacy with Caroline. The lawyers find in settling the estate that the broker has left all his fortune to his brother, whom he had defrauded in the past.

TODAY'S ODDEST STORY

United Press Service DENVER, Colo., May 17.—If you want to know what happens in a woman suffrage state when a man and wife—both voters—want to talk at a public political meeting at the same time, read the following true story.

Mrs. Helen Ring Robinson is a state senator from Denver. Her husband is known as Mr. Helen Ring Robinson. At a meeting in the Woman's Club both Mr. and Mrs. Robinson rose at the same time to address the chairman of the meeting.

"Mr. Chairman," they both cried simultaneously. They stood side by side, Mr. Robinson much taller and bigger.

Mrs. Robinson looked at the person who challenged her right to the floor, and without waiting for the chairman to recognize her, she pushed Mr. Robinson back into his seat and proceeded to deliver a few remarks.

BOX FACTORY TEAM IS VICTOR

FANS ENJOY REAL BASEBALL AT FIRST PRACTICE GAME OF THE SEASON—STRIKEOUT RECORD MADE

With the exception of a couple of ragged innings, the baseball game yesterday between the Ewauna Box company's team and the men Archie Tindall will make into a Klamath Falls team was exciting and fairly fast, and it boosted the prospects for a good season here by tickling all the fans attending. The game went to the boxmakers, 9 to 7.

Herbige, the shortstop for the boxmakers, proved a big sensation, and the way he fielded his position was admired by even the most critical fans. Incidentally, it might be stated that out of six trips to the plate he got four hits and brought in four of the runs.

Jess Siemens, who did the slab work for the Ewauna team, struck out sixteen men. This is the first game Siemens has pitched for several seasons, but he had control throughout the game.

At the end of the ninth inning the score stood 7-7, and two additional innings were played before the Boxmakers annexed the two runs that won the game for them.

Though beaten, Tindall's hopefuls put up a big game, and considering that this was their first practice, the aggregation showed up splendidly.

The lineups follow: Box Factory—Pitcher, Siemens; catcher, Willey; first base, Clair Arnold; second base, Winders; third base, O. Arnold; shortstop, Herbridge; outfield, Houston, Kelly, Thrasher. Town team—Pitchers, Hardenbrook (3 innings), Hickox; catchers, Ambrose and Noel; first base, Dale; second base, Hayden; third base, Mauer; shortstop, Page; outfield, Noel, Hostwock, Bradford.

KLAMATH FALLS OREGON WHERE PARTICULAR PEOPLE BUY THEIR DRUGS

Movies Hold Crowds When Plays Lose Them

By BEAU RIALTO (Written for the United Press)

NEW YORK, May 17.—Broadway theater goers who usually desert the Great White Way for the cooling seaside with the first flash of the hot weather are still to be seen in the neighborhood of Forty-Second street and Broadway. This class of Manhattan's theatrical population, which in former years has always neglected the bright lights at this time of the season, and here's the secret—the motion picture theaters are the magnet.

And it is not alone the money that keeps these thousands of people in the heart of the city these scorching afternoons, although in many cases this consideration looms up mighty big, for the war has made it necessary for almost everyone to economize. But the real explanation of the great mass of people seen on Broadway in the hot weather is that the "movie" houses are often many degrees cooler than the street. They are also nearer that will always be spoken of in the future as one of your favorites. Marguerite Clark is her name. It is a name that is as popular with picture fans as that of Mary Pickford. Miss Clarke is Little Mary's closest rival. She will be introduced to local theater goers in "Wild Flower," a five part Famous Players production, in which she has received the highest praise.

Max Figman will be with us again on Saturday and Sunday in a five part Laskey production entitled "What's His Name?" a superior dramatic offering of life behind the scenes. The management does not know where they can obtain a finer list of high class attractions, and feel certain that the public will be very well pleased with each and every program.

"Arizona," that great American drama, is the attraction at the Orpheus tonight, and the management recommends the offering to all. The production is in six parts, and is even better than the stage version, so long a favorite with theater-goers in this country.
