BUY RED CROSS SEALS

RED CROSS SEALS have been received for local distribution by the Woman's Library Club. They can now be purchased at the library and at the Bath Floral company, and will soon be on sale in other local business houses. Will you remember to buy them, and thus help stamp out the spread of the white plague in Oregon?

Every Red Cross Christmas Seal sold is a bullet in the fight against tuberculosis.

These seals last year helped to support thousands of needy tuberculosis patients and to give them a change for life. They provided for many visiting nurses, whose hundreds of thousands of visits brought instruction and other cheer to numerous patients.

They helped maintain dispensaries in scores of cities from the Atlantic to the Pacific, where thousands of consumptive patients received free treatment, aid and advice.

They provided the means to purchase millions of copies of circulars, pamphlets and other literature with which the public has been educated about tuberculosis.

They have established and helped to maintain more than 500 open air schools for children who need open air treatment.

These are just a few of the ways in which the $550,000 received last year was expended. This year a million dollars is needed. Surely any one can help by buying at least ten seals!

IN AN ADDRESS at Madison, Wis., the president's daughter declared that "men vote blindly." In 1912, perhaps, but they've fully recovered their sight since then.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S CHOIR IS BUSY

NEW PRESBYTERIAN ORGANIZATION WILL BE HEARD IN MUSICAL NUMBERS AT CHURCH AND OTHER LOCAL AFFAIRS

The young people's chorus, which has been organized at the Presbyterian church under the direction of the pastor, Charles T. Hurd, is practicing faithfully every Thursday evening in preparation for a musical program to be given on Sunday evening, December 19th. The following young people have already become members:

Messrs. Andrew Collier, Bert C. Thomas, J. S. Hogg, Chas. Dorr, E. J. Mayer, John Houston, Clinton Hurd, Harrison Bradshaw, Horatio Graves, Wm. Bennett, Fred Fleet, and Misses Vera Houston, Ruth Ball, Waive Draw, Georgia Porter, Elainore Steinhart, Harriet Fink, Josephine Fink, Hortense Hogue, Mary Ball, Marjorie Lambert, Madge Shive, Eva Hanks and Greta McMillan. Many others are expecting to join, and new names are enrolled at each rehearsal.

It is expected that this chorus will be heard not only in the religious services of the church, but in songs and choruses of a varied nature at social and other functions. Any young people interested are asked to meet at the church promptly at 7:30 next Thursday evening.

VAN'S PLACE Cor 6th and Main

A Society Nymph of the Wood

What promises to be the biggest social affair ever held in Merrill Valley will take place Thursday evening, December 30, when a masquerade ball will be given in the Merrill opera house. It has been decided to make the main feature of the evening a prize waits contest for a first prize of $10 and a liberal cash second prize. Any couple attending will be eligible to enter this contest. Judges from sections outside of Merrill will be chosen to award the prizes. Liberal prizes will also be awarded for best costumes and characters. Excellent music will be furnished, and the management will see that the large floor is in the best of dancing condition. An excellent supper will be served, and tickets sold to dancers will include supper for two. Harold Milligan of Klamath Falls will have charge of the prize waits arrangements, and Charles B. Hodgkin of Merrill will officiate as floor director. He will be assisted by competent lady and gentlemen floor managers.

Great interest is being shown in the final dancing party of the White Pelican Amusement Club's series, which will be held at the Pelican dining room Thursday evening. Modistes have been hard at work preparing gowns for the ladies who will attend, and the dance bids fair to be one of the prettiest of the year. All of the parties given by the Amusement Club have been highly enjoyable, and a big attendance is assured at Thursday's event.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis G. Van Bellen entertained two tables at five hundred at their home on Sixth street Tuesday night, their guests being Mr. and Mrs. Merle S. West, Mr. and Mrs. Albrecht Oehler and Mr. and Mrs. Philip J. Sinnott. The evening was enjoyably spent in playing cards, and a dainty luncheon was served by the hostess.

Mrs. Elbert B. Hall will be hostess at the next meeting of the Tuesday Bridge Club, scheduled for Tuesday afternoon at the White Pelican hotel.

Sewing of Christmas articles was chief form of needlework indulged in at Wednesday afternoon's meeting of the Art Needle Club, when Mrs. J. Fred Goeller entertained the club at her West Side home. Mrs. Rufus S. Moore, Miss Elizabeth McCurdy, Mrs. Nate Otterbein, Mrs. R. J. Sheets, Mrs. Charles E. Withrow and Miss Lulu Wattenburg were present as guests, in addition to the club membership: Mrs. R. H. Dunbar, Mrs. Robert E. Wattenburg, Mrs. George A. Hayden, Mrs. George A. Wirtz, Mrs. W. E. Faught, Mrs. George Chastain, Mrs. Arthur R. Wilson, Mrs. Floyd M. White, Mrs. C. C. Hogue, Mrs.

This is a photograph of a Newport society woman in one of the latest "stunts" of that resort. They have a cult which believes in dancing in the woods in imitation of fabled nymphs of the Greeks. But the dancing is done under the direction of Carey M. Ramsay, Mrs. Henry Newham, Mrs. Karl G. Cummings, Mrs. George Hurn, Mrs. E. S. Phillips and Mrs. J. Fred Goeller. Late in the afternoon Mrs. Goeller served delightful refreshments to her guests.

The Leisure Hour Club will be entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. J. N. Bridges at the Claremont.

In honor of the birthday of her uncle, Duncan B. Campbell, Mrs. J. S. Elliott of Pacific Terrace entertained delightfully at luncheon and cards Monday evening, the guests being the following Hot Springs residents: Mr.

a teacher, who has long studied the subject. Scores of society women, or perhaps their daughters, have taken to this kind of dancing. They wear the flimsies clothing, but they are free, and they say it makes them strong.

and Mrs. Merle S. West, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Whitman, Mr. and Mrs. George Watt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wood Eberlein, Dr. and Mrs. Warren Hunt, Miss Alice McCourt, Miss Ethel Lamm and Mr. Campbell.

A pleasant surprise party was held last Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Lockwood in Shipington, the occasion being Cletus Lockwood's 14th birthday anniversary. The guests were Edna Burns, Clara Owens, Bertha Owens, Lucille Harland, Cordelia Cantrall, Ed Cantrall, Howard Cantrall, Roland Cantrall, James DeChaine, Warren Bennett, Frank Owens and Raymond Harland. The evening was most pleasantly spent by the young people in games, music, singing and dancing until the midnight hour, when the guests enjoyed a splendid luncheon served by Mrs. Lockwood.

This week's session of the Shipington Sewing Club was held at the home of Mrs. W. P. Harlan, and following the usual delightful afternoon of needlework and social chat, the hostess served coffee and doughnuts to her guests, who were Mrs. George Nehrbas, Mrs. J. B. Finnell, Mrs. H. Putman, Miss Grace Brown, Mrs. B. R. Yancey, Mrs. R. E. Cantrall, Mrs. H. J. Lockwood and Mrs. Tom Phinagar.

As enjoyable as it was novel was the unique party given last night by the Docena, an organization of Klamath County High School girls. Invitations were sent out several days ago inviting guests to join in a "Trip by the Panama Canal from San Francisco to Tipperary, via New York," and advising the early making of reservations. The home of Miss Octavia De Lap on West Main street was San Francisco, the point of departure, and here the guests assembled, played several games, and enjoyed the first course of refreshments. With steamer tickets directing them as to which streets to traverse, which corners to turn, etc., the party set sail from the Golden Gate, and in time reached New York, as the home of Miss Pearl Dow was designated. Here followed more games, and the second course of the evening's collation, and after an enjoyable visit, the globe trotters, with an utter absence of mal de mer, crossed the Big Pond and landed at Tipperary, the home of Hortense Hogue. There was no mistaking the Celtic atmosphere of Tipperary, for the rooms were here decorated with emerald green, shamrocks and other Irish emblems, while in San Francisco and Gotham American flags and the national colors predominated in the decorative scheme. At Tipperary the guests finished their delightful luncheon and enjoyed games and Irish music and songs, the evening altogether proving one of unbounded pleasure for the tourists, who were Miss Ruth Ball, Miss Mary Ball, Miss Octavia De Lap, Miss Perle Dow, Miss Hortense Hogue, Miss Marie Griffith, Miss Hazel Griffith, Miss Kittle McAndrews, Miss Waive Jacobs, Miss Faye West, Austin Case, Charles Dorr, Anton Polivka, Joe Avery, Carl Newberry, Rollin Stitzer, Lawrence Motschenbacher, Will McMillan, Ira Orem and Verne McLellan.

The 25th birthday of Charles West was the occasion for a happy birthday party in his honor, given this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Putman, and attended by Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Yancey, Miss Grace Brown, Mr. West and Mr. and Mrs. Putman. A pleasant evening was spent, and the hostess served a dainty luncheon.
