

SPRING LAKE DRIPPINGS

ORINDALE NOTES

Politics is the general topic of conversation these days.

Mrs. J. Manning visited with Mrs. E. A. Schreiner Thursday.

The pie social at Mt. Laki church was well attended by Spring Lake people.

Rob White and Miss Maud Schreiner visited at Ward Dolan's Sunday afternoon.

Our school visited with Mt. Laki school Friday afternoon. A lively game of baseball was played, which resulted in a victory for Spring Lake.

The Spring Lake Farmers' Club met Tuesday evening. Poison was distributed and the work of exterminating the ground squirrel is on in full swing. Several important measures were brought before the club, and considered. The club accepted a new member, E. A. Schreiner.

Miss Maud Schreiner visited with Miss Zelma Folsom Thursday.

Mrs. Frank Stewart visited with Mrs. Dawson of the Mt. Laki district Friday afternoon.

Several of the Spring Lake people attended the box social given by the Fairview school Friday evening.

Mrs. Carl Shubert has been very ill for the past two days.

Frank Sevits has been helping Geo. Shell log brush the past few days.

Steve Foster and Will Lambert of Round Lake have been hauling hay the last few days.

H. H. Van Valkenburg has his farm work running full blast now.

We want to thank our honorable county court for the nice work they have done on the roads out this way.

Martin Real of Round Lake was a business visitor in Klamath Falls on Monday of this week.

James Stansbie has been breaking horses and mules this week to do his farm work with, which he expects to start next week.

Lyle Mimiwright has been helping James Stansbie the past few days.

Mrs. C. G. Hunt was on the sick list a few days the past week, but is much better at this writing.

The meeting of the S. W. K. Farmers' Development League was well attended at Plevna last Tuesday, and a permanent organization was formed. Glad to see the farmers get together.

W. B. Hoag has been helping Mrs. Hague the last few days, preparing for spring planting.

Wm. Brown finished logging brush on his place near Orindale this week. C. G. Hunt has been helping him.

Lloyd Alford expects to leave in the near future for Dunsmuir to commence railroading.

Mr. Ess dragged the county roads this week from his place to Keno.

T. A. Cregan has his plowing most done. He is a rustler.

H. S. Fox had a veterinary out to his camp near Orindale a day or two ago.

A business man had been absent on business for six months. When he came home his wife acted so strangely toward him that he was led to suspect her loyalty. Was there "another man" in the case? Had her loneliness led her to seek companionship which had ripened into love? Too busy with his duties as a secret service agent to settle down to an immediate unraveling of the mystery, the story of "Hop, the Devil's Brew," to be exhibited at the Orpheus theater on Sunday afternoon and evening only, tells how he discovered what was the matter, and how his wife was restored to him—saved from the deadly grip of the opium habit.

Tonight the offering at the Star will be a five reel Vitagraph Blue Ribbon feature, entitled "The Turn in the Road." These features, of which this will be the second one shown here, will undoubtedly prove to be among the best. "The Battle Cry of Peace" will be remembered by many, it being the first one of these features shown here, and it is such productions as will be seen in the coming Vitagraph Blue Ribbon productions, which are in a class by themselves. You will be able to see this feature tonight only.

A silver tea was given at the home of Mrs. J. S. Elliott in Hot Springs Addition by the Ladies Aid of Grace M. E. church, which proved highly enjoyable and which was attended by Mrs. Fred Cofer, Mrs. Herbert McCarthy, Mrs. J. S. Elliott, Mrs. R. R. Hamilton, Mrs. C. V. Fisher, Mrs. Harry Peltz, Mrs. W. A. Leonard, Mrs. George Fry, Mrs. Haines, Mrs. Guthrie, Mrs. Heffner, Mrs. Duncan, Mrs. J. G. Camp, Mrs. Oscar E. Peyton, Mrs. Schnabel, Mrs. Charles Martin, Mrs. Carey M. Ramsby, Mrs. W. J. Steinmetz, Mrs. Meier, Mrs. Roy Moore, Mrs. Humphrey, Mrs. Merle S. West, Mrs. Buttrick, Mrs. W. J. Roberts, Miss Frances Waldron, Miss Neva Faught, Miss Constance Fisher and Miss Grace Elliott. Musical selections were rendered by Mrs. Cofer and Misses Fisher and Faught, and Mrs. McCarthy gave some vocal numbers. During the afternoon dainty refreshments were served.

An audience of several hundred people awaited the opening of the series of Mathis-Vessey services at the Pavilion at 7:30 last night. The choir was composed of about a hundred voices, and did very effective work under the leadership of Bernard Vessey. Mr. Vessey also rendered "The Rosary" as a cornet solo and sang "The Man of Galilee," both of which selections elicited volumes of applause.

Mr. Mathis used as his text the very familiar words of Luke 5:4: "Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught." He said in part: "These words were spoken to Peter, but they are just as applicable today to you and me. There has never been in history the launching out in the things of business that there is today. The churches should likewise launch out, out where the waters are deep, for it is there that the greatest gifts and rewards are to be found. We don't get big returns from the shallow waters near shore." He further said: "We shall hear some people say during this series of meetings that they do not believe in revivals. Why, I remember when I was a boy back in Iowa we used to seine in the river there, and we caught some good fish and also some bad ones, bullheads and suckers, and the like; fish that were good lookers but not good eaters. But just because we caught a few bullheads and suckers with the good fish, we did not stop fishing, nor throw away the good ones. The devil doesn't believe in revivals, either."

"The churches have been catching a few new members with doughnuts, and oysters, and candy, and silver teas, and such things, but I think a revival is what we need. Although I am not much of a prophet, I will venture the prediction that when this series of meetings is over, if we have earnestly asked God to make us fishers of men in this community, the pastors of the churches here will be wondering what they will do with all the new members they have caught." The meetings tonight will begin promptly at 7:30. There will also be meetings tomorrow at 11 a. m., at 3 in the afternoon and 7:30 at night. Mr. Vessey will have charge of the music at each meeting, and the big chorus will sing. There will be no services at the Protestant churches.

The Ladies of the Maccabees and their husbands gave Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Frey a surprise one night this week, the occasion being their crystal wedding, following their wedding in Colorado fifteen years ago. Mrs. Frey was away for a while that evening. When she returned she found the guests all assembled. Mrs. F. R. Henry presented the gifts, which consisted of a sixteen-piece crystal set, in behalf of the ladies of the local hive, and two beautiful pieces of linen hand work were sent by an absent member, Mrs. Carrie Dryden, now of Montana. Mrs. Frey has been the commander of Local Hive No. 39 for the last year and a half, and through her efforts the lodge has prospered. The evening was spent in card games and social chat. Mr. and Mrs. Frey gave the history of their wedding and their journey through life, which was enjoyed by all. About 11 o'clock all adjourned to the dining room, where the table was loaded with the good things the Maccabees had brought. At a late hour all departed, wishing the happy couple many more years of happiness and hopes that they may all meet again on their golden wedding. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Frey, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hibberts, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Henline, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Henry, Mrs. Earl Sharp, Mrs. Sam Short, Misses Eula and Beale Frey.

At the last regular meeting of Prosperity Rebekah Lodge the following members were named as the banquet committee for April: Cora Sanderson (chairman), Linnie Brennenman, O. H. Brennenman, Mabel Merzmann, George Merryman, Louise Humphrey, George Humphrey, Alice Goeller, J. Fred Goeller, Nellie Halley, James Halley, Mary Hogue, C. C. Hogue, Lena Noel, Stella Lippert, Bee Templer, Elsie Chastain, George Chastain, Mary Dixon, J. R. Dixon, Anna Bean, Belle Willis.

The entertainment committee in charge of affairs at the close of the regular meeting of Prosperity Rebekah Lodge Thursday night surprised the members with a splendid little musical program rendered by daughters of the members and other young ladies. Those participating in the program were Grace Hoagland, Elizabeth Ramsby, Joanna McDonald, Gertrude Cofer, Harriett Sugarman, Fay Sugarman, Harriet Fink, Fern Hoagland and Josephine Fink. Each of the young ladies received a box of chocolates from the committee at the close of the program. In a contest of the "Survival of the Fittest" by the entertainers, Grace Hoagland was awarded a handsome box of stationery as the sole survivor.

A highly enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Charles Herman Foster on Alameda avenue last evening, when his many friends were present at a St. Patrick's social. As soon as the young people had gathered the evening was started by playing many games which pertain to the old remembered St. Patrick Day. After playing a number of games a most delightful luncheon was served, the table and rooms being very artistically decorated to suit the occasion. After luncheon was served more games were played, after which the host was bid adieu. Those present were Josephine Fink, Dortha Martin, Ida Brown, Dortha Sanderson, Beatrice McAndrews, Lucille Beckley, Gean Perry, Edith Montellus, Anna Hackland, Esther Haines, Myler Calkins, Elizabeth Cress, Leroy Glenger, Jack Elliott, Lynn Skillington, John McAndrews, Wallace Ardies, Howard Dow, Eldon Cofer, Herman Foster, Earl Humphrey, Thomas Delzell, Howard Grem, Bernard Hackland, Morris Maier.

Having specialized in Eye, Ear, Nose and throat work in the East the past winter, I wish to announce the locating of my office in Odd Fellows building in about a week. In the meantime I can be found at my home, and will attend to medical and surgical lines as well as the specialties.

DODGE BROTHERS CLOSED CAR

It is interesting to stop and recall how many good things you have heard of the car and how very few of the other sort

It is not over-stating the case to say here that the very large first year's production did not develop a single serious fault. This notable achievement surely justifies public confidence in Dodge Brothers as close and careful manufacturers.

The gasoline consumption is unusually low. The price of the Touring Car or Roadster complete is $785 (f. o. b. Detroit)
