

WILSON DELIVERS ADDRESS TONIGHT

Champ Clark Is Re-Elected; Stirring Scenes in Capital

Congress Organizes While Crisis Nears

Pacifists Kept From Congressional Galleries to Prevent Demonstration. Chaplain Prays for Almighty's Influence in "Present Crisis Thrust Upon Us"—Compulsory Training Bills Introduced.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 2.—Champ Clark was re-elected speaker, receiving 217 vote, Mann 205, Gilllette two, Lenroot two, and two members not voting.

Green of Massachusetts declared "the Republican party has never failed in its duty." Green nominated Mann and Lenroot seconded the nomination, saying, "The days have come when there will be no partisanship."

U. S. R. S. LOCAL MANAGER CHANGED

J. R. BOND OF MONTANA ARRIVES TO TAKE CHARGE OF LOCAL RECLAMATION OFFICE—CAMP MAKES STATEMENT

It was announced at the local United States reclamation office today that Project Manager J. G. Camp has been removed from office and that J. R. Bond, formerly of Browning, Montana, has been placed in charge. Mr. Bond is in charge today.

The chaplain prayed for "Almighty influence in this present crisis thrust upon us."

The Democrats are determined to have all the strength possible on the floor. Lee of Georgia, who is just recovering from pneumonia, was brought in on a stretcher.

Mrs Rankin of Montana was given a rousing demonstration on entering the chamber. Later when she took the oath many congressmen crowded around to shake hands with her.

Speaker Clark was escorted to his seat by Kahn of California. Kahn later introduced in the house the compulsory army service bill embodying the plans of the general army staff. This bill provides for the training of men from 18 to 22 years of age.

Senator Chamberlain introduced his military training bill, which has been amended to make the first class available immediately.

The following statement was made this morning by Mr. Camp: "The reclamation service must have a project manager at Klamath who will not only deal fairly with the water users but one who will, after co-operating with the local office, report fully and clearly to this and the Washington offices upon all matters pertaining to the affairs of the project and its operations and future development, so that these offices may have full information before acting on the many matters which pertain to the welfare of the settlers and of the government."

During the vote on the speakership Flood gave out a resolution which declares that a state of war exists between the United States and Germany.

"The above statement was made in a letter from the chief of construction to me, and I was requested to turn over the project to Mr. J. R. Bond and put in the coming month making him acquainted with the project," said Mr. Camp. "Mr. Bond is now in charge. This decision of the chief of construction is a surprise to me and I believe is founded on a misunderstanding which I am in hopes can be cleared up."

Flood also introduced a general bill covering all conceivable emergencies and providing penalties ranging from $10,000 fines to two years in prison and to life imprisonment. The bill provides a sentence of thirty years or life for failure of any person to obey a censor's orders.

"I have tried to do my best for the project and have kept my superior officers well informed at all times in regard to all project affairs."

Both parties offered all tickets of officers. The Republicans demanded a separate roll call on the vote for

SENATOR LODGE IS ATTACKED BY TWO PACIFISTS

REPORT BRINGS BLOW AND THE SENATOR IS FLOORED

Telegraph Operator in the Senator's Office Interferes and Beats Pacifist Bovona Up—Anna Peabody of Cambridge, Massachusetts, Accompanied Bovona to Senator Lodge's Office to Offer Insult to the Flag.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 2.—Alexander Bannwart Bovona and Anna Peabody of Cambridge, Massachusetts were arrested today on a charge of assaulting Senator Lodge. It is alleged they approached Senator Lodge in his office in the senate building and told him that his constituents are against war. "Any pacifist at this time is a coward," it is reported Senator Lodge rejoined. "Anyone that wants war is a coward," Bannwart is reported as saying. As he made the declaration Bannwart struck Senator Lodge and floored him.

General Gomez, the Cuban Revolutionist, in Havana Jail

General Jose Miguel Gomez, former president of the Republic of Cuba, who led the recent revolt against President Menocal, is now in jail, and this is the first photograph taken of him there. It shows him followed by a guard. Except during those hours when he is in a cell the general is watched and followed by an armed guard.

MESSAGE WILL ASSERT STATE OF WAR EXISTS

GERMANY STERNLY ARRANGED FOR ACTIONS

Said to Be Very Lengthy Review of Incidents Leading Up to the Present Crisis—Gardiner Offers a Resolution Declaring War on the German Empire, Declaring Laws of God and Man Have Been Violated.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 2.—It was announced late today that the president will address congress at 8 o'clock this evening. A committee will go to the White House at 7:30 o'clock and escort him to the house chamber. The message will assert that a state of war exists. It is said to be a lengthy review of the incidents which have led us to the present crisis and is a stirring arraignment of Germany.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 2.—It is announced that the president would deliver his message this afternoon if the house of representatives had completed its organization.

Chairman Flood, of the foreign relations committee, announced this morning that the administration's resolution declares that a state of war exists with Germany and does not contain a declaration of war.

Gardiner, Republican, has filed a resolution declaring war on Germany. The resolution says America should not permit other countries to bear the burden of the war on Germany, who has, after repeated warnings, continued to sink American ships and take American lives in defiance of the "laws of God and man."

ALLIES ADVANCE ON ST. QUENTIN

BRITISH TAKE TWO TOWNS AND FRENCH ADVANCE ON ANOTHER—FRENCH SAY GERMAN STRONG AT ST. QUENTIN

WITH THE BRITISH ARMY, April 2.—The British have taken Atilly, Villecholle, and have advanced within two and a half miles of St. Quentin, where they have been attempting to force a wedge through the German line. The French have advanced on Vauxhallon. A French statement says the Germans "strongly occupy" the St. Quentin lines.

ORGANIZE COAST ON WAR SITUATION

PORTLAND ROTARY CLUB HOLDS MEETING TO ACQUAINT PEOPLE WITH THE NECESSITY OF PREPAREDNESS

PORTLAND, Ore., April 2.—Opposing the plan of the general staff of the United States army to abandon the Pacific slope to capture in case of attack, and to retire to the Rockies until better prepared for war, the Portland Rotary club is organizing a campaign to acquaint the people with the necessity of preparedness. A mass meeting, attended by representatives of every one of the leading civic bodies of the state, was held in the Lincoln high school auditorium Saturday night.

Governor Withycombe, Mayor Albee, Bishop Walter Taylor Sumner, Mrs. James N. Davis of the Daughters of the American Revolution, and Ellsworth Benham of the National Security League, were the principal speakers.

Speakers declared that any invader should be met at least thirty miles off the coast with the Pacific Coast fleet of the navy.
