In Society's Realm
By MABEL MARTIN

The First Aid Society held a meeting Thursday afternoon at the White Pelican hotel. There was a large attendance of interested ladies. They were disappointed at the necessary absence of Dr. Cathey, who could not be present to give his first lecture, but arrangements have been made for it later. The Elks passed a resolution this week permitting the use of the Elks' Temple for Red Cross and other similar organization meetings. A committee of the wives of four past exalted rulers have charge of making arrangements for using the hall for such meetings and are Mrs. E. B. Hall, Mrs. J. J. Parker, Mrs. C. F. Stone and Mrs. C. J. Ferguson.

One of the most enjoyable parties of the week was a dancing party given by Miss Alice McCourt at her home on Alameda street and Esplanade avenue. The evening was spent in dancing, after which Miss McCourt served chicken salad, sandwiches, salted almonds, olives, devilfood cake, whipped cream and chocolate. The participants at the party were Miss Dorothy Weeks, Miss Pearl Boivin, Miss Jewel Barlowe, Miss Alice McCourt, Clifford Taylor, J. B. McAllister, Herbert Keefe, Dr. C. E. Wheeler, Mrs. H. J. McCourt and Mr. and Mrs. Watt.

A very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. Jacobs, on Eighth street, Friday, by a few of their friends. The affair was a complete surprise to Mrs. L. Jacobs. They presented her with a beautiful Pickard china cake plate. Those present, besides the family, were Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Magee, Mrs. Margaret Pitts and Bruce Jeffries.

The Klamath Falls B. P. O. Elks lodge will give a large informal dance Friday evening next week at their beautiful temple in this city at the corner of Third and Main streets. The dance will be in the form of a reception to the lodge's one hundred new members initiated within the past few weeks. E. B. Hall is chairman of the entertainment committee.

The Woman's Relief Corps is today making plans for a large turnout in the morning to bid the Fort Klamath army recruits goodbye at the station. Eight of the boys came down last night and will leave in the morning. The band will be out and a big automobile parade is desired. The parade will meet at the courthouse at 9 o'clock.

Women of Woodcraft Circle held their regular meeting at Moose hall on Tuesday evening, three delegates being elected to attend the district convention at Roseburg, Oregon, in June. The following were chosen: Mrs. Marion Hanks, Mrs. R. R. Bluebaker, Mrs. G. M. White; alternates: Mrs. H. North, Mrs. E. Virgils, Mrs. Ida Pink. Several candidates were initiated, after which entertainment of music, dancing and social good time followed by an impromptu banquet of dainty refreshments served by the Shasta, which was greatly enjoyed by the large crowd present.

The Loyal Woman's class of the Christian church held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Baister, at the Westside school, celebrating Mrs. Baister's birthday. A number of guests were present. After the business of the meeting, Mrs. Rambo read a chapter in "Travel in Bible Lands." A birthday cake with candles was presented to Mrs. Baister. Then a pleasant social time was spent over the teacups.

A delightful afternoon was spent Wednesday by the ladies of the Harmony Bridge Club, when Mrs. Bridges was hostess to the club at her home on Fourth street. Several ladies were guests of the club. Those present were Mrs. Silas Obenchain, Mrs. Frank Ward, Mrs. A. M. Worden, Mrs. G. K. Van Riper, Mrs. J. S. Elliott, Mrs. Henrietta Melhase, Mrs. L. J. Van Bellen, Mrs. Fred Shallock, Mrs. Henry Newnam, Mrs. H. N. Moe.

The members of the Eastern Star gave a shower for Mrs. E. B. Henry Wednesday evening owing to Mrs. Henry's misfortune recently when fire consumed the Henry residence on Klamath avenue. The Eastern Star members thought it their best opportunity to show their appreciation of the many occasions when Mrs. Henry, a popular local vocalist, has favored them in the past. About forty members were present and an enjoyable evening was spent, after which they served punch and wafers. Those present were Mrs. L. P. Willets, Mrs. Frank Ward, Mrs. H. McCarthy, Mrs. Geo. Chastain, Mrs. A. D. Miller, Mrs. W. H. Mason, Mrs. E. S. Martin, Mrs. C. Ramsby, Mrs. Thos. Martin, Mrs. Chas. Martin, Mrs. A. J. Lyle, Mrs. C. A. Plath, Mrs. G. K. Van Riper, Mrs. E. B. Henry, Mrs. C. H. Underwood, Mrs. R. R. Hamilton, Mrs. H. E. Momyer, Mrs. Hayden, Mrs. W. A. Delsell, Mrs. Marion Hanks, Mrs. Chas. Chitwood and Mrs. Willard Smith.

Heap big mileage! Built-In!

If you could dissect a SAVAGE you'd realize that "Heap big mileage" is built into it during every minute of its manufacture.
Highest grade rubber and fabric, perfectly balanced design, most careful workmanship, full size.
A tough road-gripping tread—neither so heavy as to produce stiffness, nor so light as to give insufficient protection to the carcass. Cushion of high-grade resilient rubber—absorbs the road shocks. Sidewall specially shaped to distribute flexing—will not crack. And the carcass— finest Sea Island cotton, long fibre, tough, triple coated, built up layer by layer into the strongest carcass that can be made.
High mileage, low cost per mile. Sold from factory to you through our own distributors. Watch for the red Savage sign.

Fifty candidates are to be initiated next Monday evening into the Woman's Relief Corps at a special meeting to be held at the west hall in the Odd Fellows' building, starting at 7:30 o'clock.

Mrs. E. B. Hall returned to Klamath Falls Friday evening from San Francisco and other points, where she has been visiting for the past two weeks.

Mrs. H. Roland Galayer and baby son returned Thursday evening, after nearly two months' absence in San Francisco. Her many friends extend to her a warm welcome.

Mrs. A. E. Whitman gave a children's party Wednesday afternoon at her home on Jefferson street. The affair was in honor of George Whitman's fifth birthday. Various games were played during the afternoon and later delicious refreshments were served at a table with pink and white decorations. The honor guest cut the birthday cake adorned with fine pink candles. The guests included Billie Mason, Frances Kent, Hope Gordon, Alazee Lyle, Gilbert Powell, Elizabeth Powell, Buster Brown, Callie Hector, Walley Hector, George Merryman, Jeanette Smith, Marian Smith, Buster Smith, Corrine Plath, Constance Schallock, Maria Grimes and Wilson Wiley.
