SUNDAY A CHURCH ORDINANCE

The United States in Phoccy was the subject announced for Wednesday night at the Adventist chapel. No meetings will be held till then.

"The general teaching of the school men is that the observance of the Lord's Day in the new law supersedes the observance of the Sabbath, not by obligation of the (divine) law, but by the ordinance of the church and the custom of the Christian people." In the Middle Ages, Sabbath meant only Saturday.

First used in England for Sunday in 1554. American Encyclopedia, latest edition, art. "Sabbath." 3-11

FOOT SPECIALIST COMING FROM CHICAGO

The K. K. K. Store has made arrangements to have a foot specialist from Chicago at the store December 10th to examine feet and give advice on the correction of foot troubles without charge.

This specialist, who was trained under the personal direction of Dr. Wm. M. Scholl, the recognized foot authority, has been loaned to the K. K. K. Store by the Scholl Manufacturing company of Chicago for this occasion. The store deserves credit for its progressiveness in obtaining for the foot sufferers of this community, an opportunity to get expert advice as to how foot comfort can be gained. It is certain that there will be no lack of people to take advantage of the chance offered.

One of the important duties of the specialist will be to instruct the salespeople in Fractipedia, the science of giving foot comfort and correcting the cause of foot troubles. 3-11

NOTICE OF ESTRAY

A sorrel horse came to my place, four miles out on the Keno road, with hobbles on front feet; has blue face; weight about 1,000 pounds.—James B. Moore. 30-41

Dearest Public

Say, why don't you come down here and see what I've got. I ain't joking about this selling out, 'cause I mean it, and the sooner you come in and buy some of this stock the sooner you will get me out of town.

If you don't come soon I will Hooverize my love for you, so, Doll, don't put this off.

Remember, it is more beautiful to receive than give.

You have heard of the bird in the gilded cage; well, that's me. You can liberate me, and it's such a little thing for you to do, and it means so much to me; and besides, I'll make the cute little soldier. I am going to drive the powder puff wagon for the Women's Battalion of Death.

We got lots of new things in the season's latest creations.

Lots of wrist watches for most any price.

Every breed of Ingersolls that the machinery turns out.

Our motto is you can't better the best.

McHattans, Main street, between sixth and seventh, heaven and earth, and the little sole store and the 114-dery, and just across from Van Ripper's store. Now if you ain't had me, you oughtn't to ever have any money.

FINE LOT OF HOGS SHIPPED TO PORTLAND

LOCAL STOCKMEN START HEAVY COMMENCEMENT OF HOGS WHICH HAVE BEEN FATTENED IN THE MERRILL DISTRICT

Two hundred and seventy-five head of fine hogs were shipped to Portland Saturday by Louis Gerber and G. W. Osfield, local stockmen.

The hogs, which were an unusually choice lot, left from the Midland yards, and were consigned to the Hunt Commission company at North Portland.

The hogs, which were purchased some time ago in Big Valley, have been fattened at Merrill.

LIEUTENANT HOME ON FURLOUGH

Lieutenant J. H. Carnahan, who recently received his commission in the United States army following his term of service in the officers training camp at San Francisco, has returned for a brief furlough before leaving for the front. He has received the rank of first lieutenant in recognition of his military ability in competition with many other aspirants. Lieutenant Carnahan's previous experience on the firing line with the United States army will be useful to him in his coming service.

OBSERVE

Meatless Tuesday

And Help Feed Our Soldiers

In compliance with the request of the United States Food Administration, we have arranged a special menu for tomorrow, and will continue to co-operate with the Food Administration on each Tuesday, so long as deemed necessary.

We Will Make Tuesday Popular

Doing without the ordinary meats on Tuesday need not be a sacrifice on your part, as we have prepared a most delightful menu, including chicken, fish, rabbit, oysters, vegetable entrees, etc., which will prove a treat. We will make it a pleasure for you to help save to feed our soldiers. Make it a point to visit the Rex Cafe tomorrow.
