MADE FRIENDS FOR COLONIES

Benjamin Franklin's Successful Diplomacy in France Meant Much to Young Country.

The first diplomat to represent the United States at a foreign court was Benjamin Franklin, who acted in Paris as official "agent" of the infant republic in France. The crossing of the Atlantic in the sloop Reprisal had occupied over a month, and Doctor Franklin had had many thrilling escapes from pursuing British vessels. Franklin was given a cordial reception in France, although his refusal to wear a sword or wig when presented at court shocked the fashionables. The greatest writers and philosophers of that golden age in France delighted to honor Doctor Franklin, and even the venerable Voltaire paid tribute to the genius of the American. Franklin remained in France nine years. At first he was merely the agent of "the American rebels," and had no official diplomatic standing, but even in this capacity he had sufficient influence to bring about the treaty of alliance between France and the Colonies, which had so profound a moral effect on the Revolutionary struggle. He raised a large amount of money in France, and after the signing of the treaty became the first American minister to that country.

Splendid Fossil Collection.
Smithsonian Institution has been enriched by a ton and a half of specimens taken during the last summer from the Burgess Pass fossil quarry in British Columbia, which was discovered less than ten years ago. The work was done mainly by Secretary Wolcott of the institution, and his wife. In two months a section of the quarry 180 feet square was taken out, practically exhausting the site which has yielded some of the finest specimens of middle Cambrian fossils yet discovered and the finest invertebrate fossils yet found in any formation. Large blocks of hard shale were first blasted loose, then carefully split with chisel and hammer to expose any fossil remains between the laminae. The shale has preserved for some twenty million years animals that were as soft and non-resistant as jellyfish, worms, crabs, etc., notwithstanding all the vicissitudes these rocks have since undergone from the time they were simply hardened mud. They have been subjected to much pressure and profound chemical change, but the fossils remain perfect.

PERSONAL MENTION

John Slade, who has been spending the past several months in Texas and California points, has returned to this city to reside.
Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Benson, who have been residing in Portland, have returned to Klamath Falls to live. They say this country appeals to them. Mrs. Benson was formerly Miss Marjory Lambert.
Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Beals and children are leaving for Roseville, where they will pass the holidays with Mrs. Beals' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clements.
Mrs. James Pelton, of Fort Klamath, is a visitor here.
Mrs. J. T. Ward of Malin is leaving for Los Angeles, where she plans to pass the winter.
Mrs. C. P. Chastain is a visitor here from Bray, California. Mr. Chastain is connected with the Bray Box Factory Company.
Miss Pearl Glass, formerly of Great Falls, Montana, is a newcomer in Klamath Falls, where she expects to make her home.
Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Beatty, who have been spending the past several months with their daughter, Miss Frances Beatty, will leave in the morning for their home in Cottage Grove. Mr. and Mrs. Beatty are quite impressed with Klamath Falls and may return in the spring to make their home permanently.
At a Disadvantage.
There had been unpleasant words before between the dramatist and a leading comedian as to the latter's habit of adding impromptu jokes to his part. "There's no need for you to gag," said the dramatist angrily, after the comedian had done it again. "Your part as written is quite funny enough. All you've got to do is to say the words and wait for the audience to laugh." The comedian did not look convinced. "That's all right for you," he grumbled. "You live in town and can afford the time. But don't forget I have to catch the midnight train to my place in the suburbs, and I can't wait till the audience laughs!"
There's one nice thing about matches-in-the-box — they never strike.
Cloves are no longer found in pickled things that are not confined in fruit jars.
