

DADDY! I WANT TO SING!

Young children love to sing the new song rolls on the Gulbransen Playerpiano.

Father enjoys playing the accompaniment and realizes that he is educating himself and family in good music and at the same time creating a desire in the young folks to study music.

A Player brings joy to all the family, fills in those years while the children are learning to play by hand, and places the world's best classical music at your command.

Gulbransen sell for $595, $660 and $750 on terms as low as $20 a month.

Play on and try out a Gulbransen at our store.

Will Demonstrate $11,000 Pipe Organ

There will be a musical concert tonight at the Star theatre from 6:45 to 7:15, previous to the first picture show, given to demonstrate to the public the new $11,000 pipe organ which has been installed there this week. C. M. Balcom, of San Francisco, the man who came here to install this organ, will remain at the theatre and operate it until another operator can be secured.

Schools for the training of policewomen are now maintained in many of the principal cities of Great Britain.

SAVE THE CHILDREN

The mothers of the twentieth century will go down into history as being true patriots. They have tearfully, ungrudgingly and bravely given of their own flesh and blood that true democracy might prevail throughout the world and that the strong arm of imperialism should be shattered once and for all. Now the war is won it can be said, in more ways than one, that it was won by the mothers of the country.

But you mothers who sent your dear boys "over there" to fight for world-wide liberty, also have a duty to perform with reference to the babes in your arms and your sons and daughters of tender age. Do you know that not very long ago, at the Y. M. C. A. at Kansas City 1500 boys were examined and 50 per cent of them were found to have some form of spinal trouble? If those boys had been examined by a competent Chiropractor when they were yet infants, these faults could have been corrected.

If your child is sick, weak, puny or not properly developed in some part of the body there must be a cause, and nine times out of ten it is found in the spine. Do not wait with the expectation that the baby will outlive the weakness; have the spine palpated, and if necessary adjusted. Many a boy, many a girl has gone to a premature grave or lingered through life a miserable cripple when a spinal analysis made in infancy would have detected some weakness which Chiropractic adjustments would have corrected.

Nature is the only true Healer. Spinal adjustments eliminate the cause of the trouble and Mother Nature heals. You say, "Oh, yes, that's a beautiful theory, but like all other beautiful theories, it's too good to be true." It is not only a beautiful theory, but it is beautifully true, as thousands of men and women who have been helped will attest any day.

"Save the Children." The children of today will be the men and women of tomorrow. You can do this by safeguarding their health while they are still in your arms.

AT THE THEATERS

THEATRES
Exhibitor's Herald says: "Homespun Folks" is "sure fire" as concerns entertainment value and will identify the Associated Producers insignia with "good pictures" in the public estimation.

Observer in the Chicago Examiner says: "Thomas H. Ince is first in town of the rural dramas with his 'Homespun Folks.' He has the shrewdness to insert a republican-democrat battle and the touch of the real country that is convincing. This is hot stuff in every city and crossroads in America."

Rob Reel in the Chicago American says: "Now the 'mother story' is the fashion. Thomas H. Ince's 'Homespun Folks' like 'Madame X' and 'Humoresque' has a mother story that holds considerable of audiences' attention. It's sweet all through with scenes like exquisite etchings. It has action, good healthy fights and villainy and Mr. Ince's 'new find,' Lloyd Hughes, who doesn't have to be compared to Charles Ray to establish him. He has a personality all his own. You'll laugh a lot, cry a bit and come away saying it is 'some picture.'"

Genevieve Harris in the Chicago Post says: "It is in every way a typical Thomas H. Ince production and you are certain to enjoy it. There is a depth and softness to many of its scenes that pleases your senses. It is

NO DROP IN FURNITURE

To our Many Friends and Patrons: Who have been figuring that furniture prices will tumble with other commodities: Here is an extract from the "Pacific Furniture Trade:"

A recent announcement to the trade by J. L. Young, president of the Retail Furniture Association of the United States, states: "Furniture will not join other commodities in the tumbling of prices for some time to come, and the descent to a lower level of prices will be gradual."

This followed the conference between the representatives of the National Associations of Manufacturers and Retailers, held at Grand Rapids on September 29th and 30th.

The fact that every piece of furniture turned out by the 800 factories having membership in the national organization of furniture manufacturers represents 80 per cent of labor determined the conference at Grand Rapids to make no effort at lowering of prices.

To do so would be to disrupt the wages of more than 1,000,000 men employed in the furniture-making craft and thus lead to a serious industrial disturbance.

Resolution Adopted

It was after considering the wage element and following an exhaustive investigation that a joint conference of the national manufacturers and the national retailers passed the following resolution:

Whereas, there has recently been established new and lower levels of prices on a number of commodities; and whereas, it has generally been reported that the costs of manufacturing furniture have been materially reduced; and whereas, the retail merchants, desirous of ascertaining facts, have requested the executive committee of the Retail Furniture Association of the United States to make a careful and thorough analysis of the conditions governing the cost of manufacturing furniture today and to insist upon a lower level of prices if conditions were found to warrant them; and whereas, this investigation has been made in a most extensive and thorough manner; and whereas, it has been determined that there can be no changes affecting the cost of furniture generally that would indige-neously take place in the immediate future without affecting seriously the wage and steady employment of the men employed in the furniture factories; therefore be it

Resolved, that the secretary be instructed to keep the members of this council informed of any changes in market conditions that affect the cost of manufacture, and furthermore, that we do it, desirable and to the best interest of the furniture industry, as well as of the American home, that concerted effort be observed by the manufacturer to reduce manufacturing costs other than that of labor, and to reflect these reductions in the finished product as soon as possible; and be it further

Resolved, that to our best knowledge and belief no general reductions in the price of furniture can possibly take place at this time, and that the decline would be extremely gradual and can only come with parallel reduction in the manufacturing cost."

I have had a streak of yellow up my back as wide as the Panama canal. Consequently I have not left one avenue open that would give me information and have more than one letter from some of the biggest men in the game, telling me why there could not be a reduction at this time.

also quite exciting and it is safe to say that everyone will stay right to the finish, at the Star theatre tonight and Friday.

Low Cody, the great lover of the screen, is almost put down for the matrimonial count in "Occasionally Yours," his third and latest Robertson-Cole super-special which opens tonight at the Liberty theatre. However, the bell saves him and he is ready for future conquests.

The famous love-maker, is hard put in his efforts to escape two dark Venuses—Betty Blythe and Elinor Fair—in "Occasionally Yours" and just how he does it is one of many punches in the picture.

"Occasionally Yours" boasts of one of the most notable casts of the season.

See "Shipwrecked Among Cannibals" at the Liberty theatre on Friday.
