

Ted A. Baughman

May 17, 1946 — Aug. 16, 2015

Ted Baughman

Ted A. Baughman, 69, of Astoria, Ore., died suddenly on Aug. 16, 2015. A well-known and accomplished sport fisherman, Ted was packing up after landing a brilliant coho on the sands of Social Security Beach. He collapsed and could not be revived.

Ted was born on May 17, 1946, in Columbus, Ohio, to Lawrence and Beverly Baughman, and moved to the Astoria area in 1948.

Ted spent his formative years in Jeffers Gardens attending Lewis and Clark Consolidated before graduating from Astoria High School in 1964. After graduation, he enrolled at Clatsop Community College where he earned an associate degree in industrial mechanics in 1966.

Ted was soon drafted by the U.S. Army, where he excelled as a diesel mechanic and sharpshooter. Shortly after basic training in 1966, Ted married Mickey Reneke, who would remain his beloved wife for the next 49 years.

Following Ted's honorable discharge from the military, he became a millwright at the fledgling Wauna Mill in 1968, which was the start of an uninterrupted 40-year career that would carry him until his retirement in 2008.

Ted was a dedicated father to his two sons, Ted Jr. and Chris, who grew up to become a successful scientist and accomplished machinist, respectively. In addition to their own offspring, Ted and Mickey's home was a reliable sanctuary for numerous children over the years, many of whom grew to think of them as their second parents.

Ted loved sports, and participated in numerous volleyball, baseball and bowling leagues. In 1973, Ted bowled the first perfect 300 game recorded at Lower Columbia Bowl during league play.

His true passion, however, was for fishing. He steadily harvested steelhead, coho and chinook from the bountiful waters of Clatsop County, only to share them with friends and family. Considered by many as the "mayor" of the Olney bridge on the Klaskanine River, Ted never hesitated to offer advice, encouragement or a helpful hand with the net.

Ted displayed an unending willingness to help out friends, family, and even the newest acquaintance, frequently deploying his considerable skill and energy without notice, and always staying until the work was done. He adored children, and "Papa Ted" always had time to wrestle, play catch, fish, ride bikes, play games or just tickle.

Ted is survived by his wife of 49 years, Mickey Baughman; son and daughter-in-law, Ted Baughman and Jennifer Treiberg (Redmond, Wash.); son and daughter-in-law, Chris and Michelle Baughman (Knapapa, Ore.); grandchildren, Erika Baughman, Sawyer Baughman-Treiberg, KayLee Baughman and Cody Carner; sibling, Nancy (Kevin) Miller; aunt, Janet Godwin; in-laws, Tom Reneke, Ginger Reneke, Terry and Rick Culver and Chuck Reneke; nieces and nephews, Judy, Dawn, Tracy, Joe, Amanda, Jordan, Nikki, Brent, Haden and Jaxon; and cousins, Chuck Godwin and Tom Godwin.

Family and friends are invited to the Celebration of Ted's Life on Saturday, Sept. 26, at the Warrenton Community Center, starting at 1 p.m.

An online guest book for comments is available at www.oceanviewastoria.com

David D. McDonald

Aug. 3, 1928 — Aug. 19, 2015

David McDonald

David D. McDonald, 87, died in Longview, Wash., on Wednesday, Aug. 19, 2015.

Dave was born and raised in Graettinger Iowa, to John and Ruby McDonald. He was the fourth youngest of 13 children.

He served with the Navy in the Korean war. After the war he went back to graduate from high school in Seaside, Ore. He married Emmadine in 1948.

Dave worked in the local lumber business early on, later owning his own lumber yard with a partner in Warrenton. After retirement, he went on to own a plumbing business in Seaside, finally retiring at 83.

Dave was preceded in death by two daughters, Patricia McDonald and Dyan McDonald-Hartill. He is survived by his wife, Emmadine, and son, Scott. He has six grandchildren, 13 great-grandchildren, and numerous nieces and nephews.

A celebration of life will be held Saturday, Sept. 26, 2015, at 4 p.m. at the Seaside Elks Lodge. Memorial contributions may be made to the Seaside Elks Lodge, 324 Avenue A, Seaside, OR 97138.

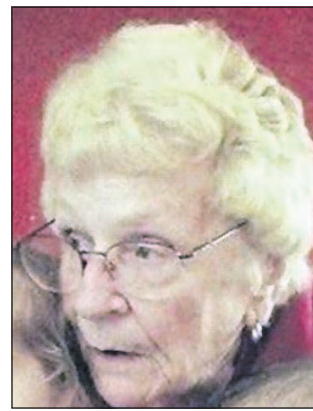

Jean M. Oberem

March 4, 1927 — Aug. 11, 2015

Jean M. Oberem passed away Aug. 11, 2015, of a massive stroke in Seaside, Ore., with her daughter and granddaughters at her side.

She was born March 4, 1927, to Carl and Althea Greiner in Polson Mont., where she grew up.

On July 1, 1949, she married the love of her life, William, who preceded her in death in 1995. They made their home, after marrying, in Columbia Falls, Mont. They had two children, Sharon and Bill. Bill also preceded her in death in 1972. They moved to Seaside to be closer to their daughter and family.

Jean Oberem

She is survived by her daughter Sharon Wucherp-fennig and her husband Steve, and granddaughters Christy Wucherpennig and Leesa Wright and her husband Jim. She is also survived by her two great-grandchildren, Amelia and Ej, who were the delights of her life. She is also survived by one brother, Dean, and her wonderful nieces and nephews.

A celebration of life will be held at a later date.

Hughes-Ransom Mortuary is in charge of the arrangements. Visit www.hughes-ransom.com to leave condolences and sign the guest book.

Keith Erin Turley

March 19, 1922 — July 10, 2015

Keith Turley

Keith Erin Turley, longtime Seaside resident, passed away July 10, 2015. He was born in Portland, Ore., on March 19, 1922. His parents were Elvy E. Turley and Leona E. Brown Turley.

After graduating from Lincoln High School, he joined the U.S. Army. He served honorably in the European, African, and Middle Eastern services. His working career was with the railroad.

He had an affinity for all things related to trains and travel. One of the highlights of his life was international travel. He visited all of the continents numerous times. He embraced the varying aspects of history, literature, cuisine, architecture, art, and music. Keith particularly relished his prolonged leisurely jaunts to Spain and Portugal.

Later, Keith met the love of his life, Mary Ellen. She came replete with a spirited Irish brood, which he boldly embraced. Together, they spent many hours sharing stories, jokes, games and sustenance. He had a special bond with his buddy, debater of world issues, and brother-in-law, Jim Heuer.

Keith took great pride in his memberships and in relationships in numerous fraternal organizations, including the American Legion, the Moose, and the Elks. He also enjoyed visiting the Waikiki Elks Lodge in Honolulu.

Keith was afforded unique opportunities. Through chance encounters he formed special relationships throughout the world. His smarts, quick wit, creativity, and excellent listening skills made him a special friend. Keith's 92 years on earth represent a life well lived. He leaves a lasting mark, and will be forever missed by those he positively impacted.

The family wishes to thank Melanie Bolles for the care and compassion she provided. Bob Smith was his unwavering friend and companion. He also derived joy from his canine companion, Teddy Bear.

Keith is survived by his sisters-in-law, Patricia and Helen Heuer; his two grandchildren, Harland and Jessica Spinks; and numerous nieces and nephews, their spouses, children and grandchildren. A stepson, Robert Lance Spinks, resides in Louisiana.

A private burial service has taken place at Ocean View Cemetery in Warrenton.

A celebration of Keith's life will be hosted by Pat Heuer at the Seaside Elks Lodge, 324 Avenue A, on Saturday, Sept. 5, 2015, at 1 p.m.

Remembrances in Keith's name may be made to the Oregon Elks Children's Eye Clinic, or the Oregon Wounded Warrior Project.

Jessie Gloria Wallace

Feb. 17, 1922 — Aug. 10, 2015

Jessie Wallace

Jessie Gloria Wallace passed away at her home in Seaside, Ore., on Aug. 10, 2015, at the age of 93, while sitting in her favorite chair. Jessie was born Feb. 17, 1922, in Tacoma, Wash., to William and Jenny Porter. She was the sixth of 13 children.

Jessie graduated from Chimacum High School in Washington state, and went on to attend Syracuse University before transferring to the University of Washington.

Jessie met Joseph Patrick Wallace at a USO dance in Seattle, Wash., in November of 1942, and a year later they were married on Nov. 15, 1943, in Seattle. Jessie took some time off her senior year of college to travel to San Diego, where her husband Pat was training in the Navy before he was shipped out to the South Pacific during World War II. Upon returning to the University of Washington, Jessie completed her master's of education degree in physical education.

When Pat returned from the Navy, Jessie met him in Los Angeles and the two boarded a train to West Virginia to meet her in-laws. Shortly after arriving back in the Northwest, their first child, Kristi, was born on July 31, 1946, in Seattle. The family of now three then returned to Missouri, where Pat attended the University of Missouri.

A couple years later the family moved to Vernonia, Ore., where on Sept. 17, 1952, their son, Dennis, was born. Six years later the family, now of four, moved to Seaside, where Jessie and Pat raised their family. Jessie taught girls physical education, oversaw the elementary school library and coached in the Warrenton School District until she retired in 1985.

Following the death of Pat in 1992, Jessie did volunteer work at Camp Kiwanilong for 19 years and volunteered at the Seaside Chamber of Commerce for 13 years. She was a longtime member of the Seaside United Methodist Church. Jessie loved the church and it was a very important part of her life. One of Jessie's favorite pastimes was butterflying. She shared her experiences of traveling all across the Western states with her husband, her sister, Iris, and her longtime friend, Trinda.

Jessie was wealthy in her friends. As her health declined her friends and neighbors offered her much loving support and kindness. She felt very blessed to have such great friends and family. She was very thankful to have such a wonderful life.

Jessie is survived by her daughter, Kristi Culver; grandsons, Patrick and Benjamin Culver; her son, Dennis Wallace and his wife Gail; and granddaughter Katie Boedigheimer.

In lieu of flowers, contributions can be made to the Seaside United Methodist Church.

A celebration of life is being held at 2 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 22, 2015, at the Seaside Methodist Church, 241 N. Holladay Drive in Seaside.

Hughes-Ransom Mortuary in Astoria is in charge of the arrangements. Visit www.hughes-ransom.com to leave condolences and sign the guest book.

"Advertising in the Seaside Signal really does work"

I'm pleased with how many customers and people tell me they saw my ad in the Seaside Signal. The cost of the ad is offered at a great rate and it WORKS!

*Patty Nelson-Strain
Owner, Patty's Wicker Café*

THE
DAILY
ASTORIAN

Ads that work.

Contact Wendy Richardson or your sales representative today about all your advertising needs
503-791-6615