

Seaside dispatchers recognized in aftermath of shooting

Seaside's Dispatch Center received a critical incident award from their peers during the annual APCO/NENA conference at the Sunriver Resort in Bend in October. The Oregon Chapter of APCO/NENA is devoted to the advancement of public safety communications.

Dispatchers Heidi Schneider and Andi Toombs were present to accept the award on behalf of the entire dispatch team. Both were on duty the evening of Feb. 5 when Sgt. Jason Goodding was killed in the line of duty. The entire team of dispatchers was recognized for their professionalism and dedication to duty in the aftermath of the incident.

"Although they were all personally affected by the loss of Sgt. Goodding, they continued to report for duty — with very little relief available — and carried out their dispatch responsibilities admirably," said Seaside Police Chief Dave Ham at the ceremony.

On Friday Nov. 4, the Oregon Peace Officers Association recognized Officer David Davidson with a medal of honor for his quick actions

during the same officer involved shooting in February. Davidson showed courage under fire and was able to return fire, ultimately stopping the threat that took the life of Sgt. Goodding. "Davidson acted professionally and honorably as he performed his duty, one that no officer ever wants to encounter during their career," Ham said.
