And Applies the Principle to Political Issues.
 Tillamook, Sept. 18th 1896.
 Editor HEADLIGHT:

There are several of our Tillamook people who have declared themselves Populists at various times and who honestly think that certain abuses exist in our government and that by the hands of a new party these abuses would be remedied. Such men as these are thoroughly sincere in their convictions and in some respects they are right, but they cannot in justice to themselves, support the present democratic ticket. Our Tillamook people believe first, last and above all things in paying their debts. They would not, knowingly, support any movement which would look to dishonest repudiation of a just obligation. Our farmers don't ask any man to accept from them spoiled butter, rotten vegetables, diseased beef, nor would they pay their debts in rotten currency. If they hire a man they expect and insist on paying him what they agree to pay. If he will work for his board they feed him at their own table and from the dishes of which they eat. If he is to have twenty dollars a month he gets twenty dollars, good anywhere, and the hired man knows this, and appreciates it. No Tillamook farmer can afford to support a party who would pay the hired man in fifty-three cent dollars.

Our Tillamook farmers build as good a house as they can afford to and sometimes even a better barn, and they clear their land and cultivate it. All of this they own and enjoy. They don't own nor claim to own, nor desire to have the farm on the other side of the road unless they can pay for it. They cannot afford in common honesty and self respect to support a party whose policy is that of a communism whose principles are opposed to individual industry, economy and the property that comes from such things.

Tillamook farmers know that there are in the great cities men whose wealth runs into the millions, who have more than a proportionate share of this world's wealth. At times a justifiable discontent is felt that one man's children are clad in silks and fine linen, and have so many of the luxuries of life while their children must toil and be contented with coarse clothing and the simplest of pleasures. But they forget that in those same cities there are classes of people actuated by an intense hatred of all law, all virtue, all security, all rights of property.

That these people organize themselves into societies pledged to incendiarism, murder and violence; that in their societies they denounce and literally spit upon the American flag. These people are known as Anarchists. It was men of their order who murdered the policemen in the streets of Chicago, and it was Altgeld, Governor of Illinois who pardoned those murderers who were unfortunately and by a strange miscarriage of justice, left unhung. And Altgeld is today the strongest, most influential man in the councils of the populist party. Furnishing the funds for the free-silverites are another class —silver mine owners. They are wealthy men, men whose every day personal expenses are as much as one of us spends in a month for our whole living and the support of our family. If they can get their silver coined free it will double their wealth.

Are we very anxious to vote ourselves hard times and cheap money in order to make them richer? Are we in sympathy with a pack of anarchists who curse us because we own a house and hay rick which they would burn or blow up if they dared? It would be better for us if the Truckee Mill was running on both sides, if the four other mills on this bay had all they could do and if a lot of these windy scrubs were milking cows and burning brush instead of letting their wives earn a living while they tell how the money affairs of a nation should be conducted.

At the request of a few friends, Mrs.
 R. R. Hayes, has decided to open a private school. A sewing class for Saturday afternoons, will be organized. Pupils from other schools may be admitted to this class. For terms etc., consult Mrs. Hayes at her residence. Instructions in book-keeping, will be given to those who wish it.

The Astoria Railway.

A document was filed for record today whereby the A. & C. R. R. Co. gives to the Central Trust Co. of New York a blanket mortgage on its line of railway, now constructed and to be constructed from Goble to Tillamook bay for the purpose of securing the payment of a series of 4 per cent first mortgage bonds of one thousand dollars each. These bonds may be issued at the option of the railway company, but shall not aggregate more than eight million dollars or exceed four thousand dollars for each mile of railroad constructed.
 —Astoria Budget.

Huntington's Railroad.

The Astoria Budget has the following to say of the line of railroad which it is proposed to construct from Goble to Tillamook. "There is no doubt but that the S. P. will absorb the Goble line. The survey of the road from Goble to Portland has been kept a profound secret but has nevertheless been made. The fish plates used on the line are marked "S. P." The rolling stock to be used are the old "O. & C." cars and are already repainted in the Southern Pacific's shops at Portland. A big dry dock and elevator will be built and Hammond has stated that a free tug service will be placed on the bar on the completion of the road. Mr. Hammond is building the road with his capital, and at the completion of the line will receive ten per cent for the use of his money and a portion of the subsidy. The incoming of the Southern Pacific will mark a new era in Astoria.
 The Southern Pacific will spend millions of dollars to develop its properties and make Astoria one of the best towns on the coast."

Work Stopped.

The following telegram from Clatskanie to the Oregonian of Sept. 17th contains food for reflection to those who believe that a railroad would be of benefit to Tillamook:

CLATSKANIE, Or., Sept. 17.—Work at this point on the Astoria & Goble railroad was suspended yesterday on account of the free silver agitation. If Bryan should be elected this fall, it is said the railroad will not be built at all.
 The projectors of the enterprise will not invest their money for something and get nothing in return. If McKinley is elected, the work will be resumed, and the cars will be running on the road in less than a year. So say the powers that be.

Town Council Meeting.

A regular meeting of the Town Council was held on Monday evening. Those present were W. H. H. Carey, Nels Thompson, J. J. Stewart, F. R. Beals, Fred Arthur, Marshall, and H. H. Alderman clerk; absent Mayor Reynolds and councilman J. W. Haskins.

The question of a drain along Stillwell Avenue and 1st St. to the slough was quite fully discussed and the members were unanimous in the opinion that the drain should be constructed. The matter was however laid over to an adjourned meeting on Wednesday evening that the council might be fully informed as to the proper methods of proceeding.
 The matter of properly grading Second Avenue East was taken up. It appeared that the county authorities had signified their willingness to gravel a certain portion of the Avenue provided that the town did the grading and that the town had not yet fulfilled its part of the contract. It was decided to complete the work under the supervision of councilman Carey and Stewart.

Bids for printing city ordinances and notices were opened and the contract awarded to the Headlight, this paper being the lowest bidder.

The following bills were allowed: Edmunds & Co., printing "$2 46 Fred Arthur, Marshal, salary 30.00
 " " " roadwork, 9.75
 H. H. Alderman, clerk salary, 10.00 Total. $52 21

The Board then adjourned until Wednesday evening.

Kind Words.

Mr. W. F. D. Jones, formerly of the Tillamook Headlight, has gone to Santa Clara County, California, where he will take charge of a newspaper. Mr. Jones has been a successful newspaper man at Tillamook, and will soon make himself known in California when he gets hold of a newspaper down there. The Headlight is owned and edited by Mr. D. DeK.
 Bowman, one of California's most successful newspaper men.—Ocean Wave.

MCKINLEY CLUB HOLDS A MEETING.

TWENTY-EIGHT NEW MEMBERS SIG THE ROLL.

Items of Interest from the Village of Woods

The McKinley Club held an interesting meeting at the Court House on Saturday evening. The attendance was good and there was a spirit of enthusiasm manifest throughout the proceedings that speaks well for republican prospects in November. The meeting was opened by a song from several gentlemen who kindly consented to act as a glee club for the occasion. The song was entitled "McKinley is our Man" and adapted to the tune, "Marching through Georgia," and the singers were Messrs. Thos. Goynes, Tom Handley, D. DeK. Bowman and Mr. Miller.

After the singing, W. L. Brooks was introduced, and though he had had scarcely any time for preparation he made an interesting short address on the money question. He was followed in a few brief remarks by Mr. Bowman of the HEADLIGHT whose place he had kindly taken for the evening, as the latter gentleman had been too busy moving to have any time for preparation. Mr.
 Bowman promised to speak next Saturday evening. Another song, entitled "The Republican Hymn" completed the evening's program, proper.

After the program had been completed, a call was made for persons who wished to join the club to come forward and sign their names to an application for membership and twenty-eight gentlemen responded, thus swelling the membership to upwards of sixty names.

Following this came the adoption of a constitution and by-laws and the election of officers. Following is a list of the officers elected: President, A. W. Severance, V. P.
 W. L. Brooks, Secy. R. R. Hays, Treas.
 W. H. Reynolds.

Messrs. Handley, Hays, Goynes, Reynolds and Brooks were appointed a committee on Program. The Club will hold regular meetings until after the National election, every Saturday evening, after which its meetings will be held monthly.

Nehalem News.
 (From the Times.)

The section was visited by an electrical storm last Saturday evening. These storms are unusual here.

Miss Jennie Pettit closed a very successful term of school at Feley, Wednesday.

E. T. Davies, a timber land dealer, of Portland, spent several days in this vicinity this week. W. S. Cone, of Bay City accompanied him.

The schooner Eureka arrived in from San Francisco Saturday. She is chartered to load lumber at Himple & Wheeler's mill.

A Gentleman named Bales has purchased a tract of land of A. J. Keaton at the mouth of Foley creek, and we understand will establish a general merchandise store at that place.

Misses Daisy West, Nellie Stanley, Mabel Ross, and Messrs. Alex Berve, Ed. Reddaway, Pearl Folkenson, L. G. and Will West came over from Seaside Sunday returning today. The young ladies of the party were quite anxious to make the acquaintance of a pet bear at Nehalem City, anticipating his nice strong hugging proclivities. "What's the matter with the young men of Nehalem that they allow bears to do all the hugging?" —Ed.

The Young people of Tillamook come forward, and ask for a "Musical Club" of their own; the idea originated with Miss Blanche McNair. Success to the Club. Our young people are determined to keep up with the times. Some seem to think that School and the study of music is too much for the average student. Here is a sample of what can be done; All last winter Master Sibley attended School in Bay City, through fair weather and foul most of it foul; He braved the storms the distance from Holstonville to Bay City making the trip daily over very rough water. On Saturdays he was ready with a well practiced music lesson. The Senior Musical Club, is to meet in the near future. Illness of some who wish to become members is one cause, why the Club is not in full swing.

At lot of new type and office furniture for the HEADLIGHT office, arrived on the Str Newsboy. The type is all of the latest designs and our patrons may be assured of up to date work.
