

Jones Is Grange Speaker Thursday

John G. Jones of LaGrande,

Democratic candidate for representative from Oregon's second congressional district, was speaker last Thursday evening at the regular meeting of the Oregon Trail Grange.

He was introduced by Tom Jones of Nyssa.

Prior to the talk, members of the Grange and guests enjoyed a pot-luck supper. At the business meeting, Bob Holmes, master, asked for reports of committees.

Leona Winter, chairman of the home economics committee, reported on the afternoon meeting at the home of Owen Finger with 10 members and one guest present.

Booster night was discussed and the date set for the first meeting in December. There was also a discussion on the growing of mint and the value of the crop. A report was given by Ennor Bush, fire insurance agent, who told farmers they should protect their hay.

Arma Goodell reported that discussion of bills to appear on the ballot at the Nov. 4 election will be the program for the next meeting. The Grange master appointed Ed Jamison to get further information for the next meeting.

Charles Adams, Lurella Bergam, Bernice Chaney, Dean Lancaster, James Lissman and George Schiemer, all of Nyssa, and Raymond Holy and Ted Holly, both of Adrian, are among the 466 full-time students enrolled this year at the college of Idaho in Caldwell. Students from the Jordan Valley area registered at the C. of I. are Margaret Borders, Johanna Skinner and John Skinner. The freshman class of 206 is the largest in the history of the college, according to the registrar's records.
