But Mr. Clow denies the insinuation, says that he only made use of a few "trustles" on one or two occasions, and at such work as he considered the state properly liable, but still, when he found that some persons were kicking about it, he charged himself with the amount of the services and paid it over at the proper time. To substantiate this stands Mr. Clow's record as an honest man, which has never before been called in question, and also his $5500. record as superintendent of the pentientiary, which in all respects

There was no necessity whatever to ring in such a senseless statement, and the soldier democrats of this vicinity who fought under Gen. Logan, feel that it is an insult to his memory which they should resent.

AGITATION is going on throughout the state for the enactment of a law making newspapers that use auxiliary sheets incompetent for the publication of legal notices. We are of opinion that the legislature would the reof, cast for Hon. Binger Herlaw making newspapers that use which took its starting point from the state house last Saturday in the removal of Superintendent Clow by Gov. Pennoyer. It just stampeded the democratic hosts so that they business as cheaply as his judgment dictates, and if he can give acceptable the reading matter to his constituency more cheaply by the auxiliary plan than by a full home print, it is a part of his business.

CALL POR REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

A republican convention for the state of Oregon is called to meet at the city of Portland, Oregon, on Wednesday, the 11th day of April A. D. 1888, at 11 o'clock a. m. of every union soldier, the staunchest democrats regretting that political affiliations prevented their voting for him. This is the man of whom the Vidette said in a recent issue:

"Logan at the war raised a regiment for the purpose of nominating caudidates for the following officers, to-wit. Representative in congress, three presidential electors, supreme judge and district officers, and to select six delegates to attend the national republican convention, and to transact such other business may properly come before the ment for the Southern Confederacy and then he sold out to the North for $50,000 and a commission.
