Diminished Account of Doings in City and Country.

SUIT FOR DIVORCE.

David Hutchinson Wants to be Untied from Flora M. Hutchinson, who "Makes his life a Burden."

David I. Hutchinson to-day, thro' his attorneys, Timon Ford and W. M. Kaiser, commenced suit in the circuit court for Marion county, against his wife, Flora M. Hutchinson, praying for an annulment of the marriage contract now existing between them, and for the custody of their four minor children, and for costs and disbursements of the suit, etc. The complaint alleges that the plaintiff and defendant were married in Marion county, September 20, 1875; that defendant has treated plaintiff in a cruel and inhuman manner, and with personal indignity, rendering his life a burden, etc. A part of the alleged wrongful acts of the defendant, as set forth is that in the spring of 1887, she commenced to curse and abuse the plaintiff, by calling him a d—d liar and by telling him she would do as she d—d pleased, and that she would go where she d—d pleased, and that she would go away from home and remain away from three to ten days at a time; and that she kept up this sort of treatment until the 25th day of June, 1887, when she left the home of her husband, the plaintiff, and has not since returned; that after leaving home she falsely accused the plaintiff of not properly providing for her, and of threatening to kill her, etc. If all the allegations set forth in the complaint are true, Mr. H. must be a very badly abused man indeed.

You Can't Take a Saneon

Out of an attenuated bile, with meagre liver, pigeon chest and a slight cough. But a man or woman to whom constitutional vigor has been denied can get it to a very considerable extent by the persistent use, in regularly proportioned, attenuated doses, of America's chief tonic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. To the nerves and muscles of the stomach that genial invigorant imparts tone, and to its operations regularity. The proximate result is thorough digestion and complete assimilation of the food, and the ultimate sequence, blood fertile with the elements of muscular tissue, a healthy appetite, rightly rest unimpaired, and disappearance of the nervous symptoms to which debilitated invalids are always subject, and which they are very prone to take for the manifestations of serious organic disease, and dose accordingly. In diseases of the kidneys and bladder, always excessively weakening, and for constipation, fever and ague, and liver complaint, use the Bitters.

Date Changed.

Owing to unforeseen circumstances, Walter Thomas Mills, the prohibition orator of Ohio who is called "the little giant," will speak in the opera house here next Saturday afternoon and night, instead of April 4th, as first announced. Being secretary of the International College Prohibition Association, he will, by request, address the students of the Willamette University and the public generally at 1 p. m. and all classes again at 7:30 p. m. Free, but reserved tickets can be purchased.

Republican Club Meeting.

Pres. George Burrill, of the Republican Club, has received replies from many prominent republicans in various parts of the county, invited by him to deliver addresses at tomorrow night's meeting of the Republican Club, promising to be present and to take an active part in the exercises. The band will be out and an excellent program has been prepared. Republicans, turn out and make this meeting a rouser.

State Farmers Alliance.

John Nelson, who was appointed by Gov. Peavy to attend the National Farmers' association, is now in Portland working up an interest in the proposed state association, to be held in this city, May 20.

Innocent Tax Fall Estimate.

Sheriff Miller to-day made his final return of the delinquent tax roll of school district No. 24. The delinquent list turned over to him for collection amounted to $804.10 and of this sum only $61.87 was returned as uncollectable.

The Community's Loss.

In the death of W. B. Rice, which occurred Sunday morning, our city loses an honored, upright and influential citizen, and the Oregon Pacific railroad company an official whose place it will be hard to fill. For about 10 years Mr. Rice was passenger and freight agent and telegraph operator for the Oregon & California railway company at this place, and in that position became a universal favorite. No dissatisfaction ever grew out of his official action and no complaints were ever made, which is the highest meed of praise any man could receive. Always genial, pleasant and courteous, to know him was to like him, and no one will learn of his death who knew him but will feel a keen pang of regret that so early in life he has been called to pass over to the great majority on the other side of the dark river. A devoted wife and two little ones mourn with inconsolable grief, mingling their tears with the mother, sister and brother. Sunday evening a large concourse of citizens attended the brief funeral services at his late residence, conducted by Rev. E. R. Pritchard and Rev. S. G. Irvine, and accompanied the remains to the depot to be conveyed on the south bound train to Ashland, where the funeral obsequies will take place. Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Barker and T. J. Siles went to Ashland, the two gentlemen being a committee from the A. O. U. W., of which order Mr. Rice was a member. —Albany Herald, March 27th.

Carriage Repository.

Messrs. Scriber & Pohle, the well known carriage makers and blacksmiths of this city, have opened a carriage repository at No. 288 Commercial street, and have filled it with the finest line of vehicles ever brought to Salem. Their stock consists of two and three seated hacks, covered and open carriages, carriages, buggies, carts, sulkeys, buckboards, etc., both of their own manufacture and the best eastern factories, notably the Studebaker and Wilbur. They are liberal and reliable men to deal with and guarantee their own work and back up the guarantees of eastern work which they have on sale. They will take old vehicles in part payment for new ones, and have unrivaled facilities for repairing and general jobbing, horse-docking at their shop 312-313 Commercial street. A call at their shop or repository will confirm every word of the above.

Small Fire.

About eight o'clock last evening the barn belonging to G. W. Gray, situated near the fire bell tower, was discovered to be in flames. The fire department responded promptly and the Captains had a stream on the building within two minutes from the time the alarm was given. Tugs followed with their engine and in a very few minutes the flames were extinguished, although the building is badly damaged. The barn contained a little hay, feed and straw belonging to Roth & Rupp, which was damaged about $25. Mr. Roth had taken his horse to another barn early in the evening. The fire is supposed to be incendiary.

Haverly's Mammoth Minstrels.

On Tuesday evening, March 27, Haverly's celebrated minstrels will hold forth at the opera house with a first-class performance. An eastern exchange speaks of them as follows: "Messrs. Queen, Stowgaid Randall, in their original acrobatic act entitled 'Hustling,' introducing their trick cottage, deserve great credit for their originality. Their act is full of such genuine humorous situations that the audience are convulsed with laughter throughout its entirety. Col. Haverly deserves commendation for presenting such an original novelty with his famous organization."

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.
