Diminished Account of Doings in City and Country.

A PECULIAR CASE.

The Will of Robert A. Shaw, Who Disappeared from Champoz Seven Years Ago Admitted to Probate.

The will of Robert A. Shaw, deceased, was admitted to probate to-day by County Judge T. C. Shaw. The will was executed on the 24th day of December 1871, with John Hoefler and Caspar Zorn as witnesses. It bequeaths his estate as follows: Legacies to each of seven children of five dollars each, to be paid out of proceeds of the sale of personal property; all the real estate consisting of one-half of a donation land claim, and appurtenances thereto to his two eldest sons, Alfred T. and Joseph N. Shaw. On the 7th day of September 1880, Mr. Shaw disappeared from his home at Champoz and has not since returned, nor been heard from by his family and the petition of his son, Alfred T. Shaw, asking that the estate be admitted to probate sets forth that it is generally believed that he is dead. A gentleman from Champoz informs us that a rumor has reached him that Mr. Shaw is still alive and living on a farm over in British Columbia, but this is generally discredited as his health was very poor at the time of his disappearance, and the neighbors are of the opinion that in temporary aberration of the mind he wandered off and died in some place unknown.

A Harrowing Accident.

Yesterday afternoon while the eldest son of H. H. Savage, of South Salem, was engaged in harrowing his father's garden, the team became frightened and ran away, dragging him along by the reins. The harrow was in some way overturned and one of the sharp teeth struck the lad on the cheek and entered to the bone, tearing a gash which severed the middle lobe of the ear and tore the upper half of that member from his head, with the exception of a little piece of skin and cartilage at the top. He also received several scalp wounds and numerous bruises about the body. Dr. W. H. Byrd, who was called in, replaced the severed ear and it is hoped that it will grow into place again, although it is scarcely probable that it will take a long time for the sore to heal and there is great danger of erysipelas or some other disease setting in. This morning the boy was resting as easy as could be expected.

The Minstrels.

Haverley's Minstrel show in the opera house last evening, was attended by a rather light audience, but its merits deserved a full house. The press commendations of this performance are many and unqualified, and this mammoth and talented company certainly deserves all the praise it elicits. The music is good, the old men get off a number of laughable jokes, the costumes are elegant, and the repertory well arranged. As an evidence of the appreciation of the audience nearly every song was encored. Hilton, the great equilibrist, performed no end of surprising feats. After two hours of jokes, music and dramatics, the performance wound up with a five-act racket called "Hustling," in which a trick house and three lively acrobats produced a deal of fun. Haverley has won a good reputation in the show world, and his present combination is evidence of his determination to keep ahead.

Breaks Bulk Again.

Mr. Thurston T. Shaw, fell off a building on which he was working Thursday of last week, at Milton station, and broke both arms at the wrist. He was working on a scaffold and stepped off, falling head downward. Naturally he put both hands forward with the above result. Dr. Stone reduced the fractures, and Mr. Shaw is doing as well as could be expected. The blow falls very heavily on him, as he depended on his hands for the support of himself and family. Pendleton East Oregon. The injured man is well known in this city, being the son of County Judge T. C. Shaw. The judge yesterday received a letter from his son-in-law, Dr. Stone, which stated that the young man was getting along as well as could be expected, although it will be many weeks before he will be able to work.

Resolves at the Asylum.

Notwithstanding the many precautions taken by Superintendent Dr. Harry Lane and his efficient assistants, Drs. Levin and Williamson, six or seven cases of measles have broken out in the insane asylum. Dr. Lane is of the opinion that the disease will run through every ward of the institution, but no great trouble is anticipated, as the disease in its present epidemic form, is fatal or serious in but few cases.

Notaries Appointed.

Governor Penney yesterday made the following appointments of notaries public: W. B. Simpson, Derry; S. B. Higgins, Portland; W. S. Ferguson, Pendleton; W. S. Keontz, Echo; W. G. Brown, Arlington.

St. Paul.—J. W. Smyth, and J. L. Cook.

Why it isn't kept up.

With commendable taste part of the Albany depot grounds are being improved and beautified and will soon blossom the rose. If the O. & C. would give Salem a decent depot at a suitable location, the same should be done here. But no one has any heart to fix up around such an out of the way barn as the present depot.

Returned from California.

Dr. J. W. Cusick, wife and daughter, returned to-day from their Southern California trip, having been absent three months to a day. Although they had a delightful trip they express great pleasure at being home again, and their many friends are glad to see them back.

Worth Your While.

Look in at Stalger Bros.' for genuine bargains in fast ware for cash. Complete lines of the best goods in the market. Cut rates apply to everything in the leather line until their removal to the Geo. E. Good stand.

A Word to Delegates.

The people demand that you select men fit for the various offices and due respect to appearances demands that candidates, delegates and voters alike should wear those new suits just received at G. W. Johnson's.

Articles Filed.

Articles of incorporation of the Pioneer M. E. Church of St. Johns, were yesterday filed in the office of the secretary of state; incorporators, L. B. Chapman, F. V. Hanson, John Kenworthy; value of property, $750.

No Supreme Court Today.

The supreme court held no session today, the adjournment being out of respect to the memory of Chief Justice Waite, whose funeral occurs today.

A Matter of Comment.

It is a town talk that you can get the best value for your money in the shoe line in the city at Stalger Bros.' until after their removal.

Delegates to the Prohibition Convention from Jackson, Douglas, Coos, Lane, Benton, Linn, Polk and Marion were on the O. & C. train this morning. The Coos County delegate is J. H. Dean editor of the Coquille City Herald.

Mr. V. F. Hopkins, traveling agent of the San Francisco Examiner, has been seriously ill with measles, complicated with pneumonia, at the residence of Dr. Henderson the past week; but is now recovering. Mr. Hopkins was taken sick while here in January and was compelled to return to San Francisco, and had only been here a day or two this time when he was taken down.

Date Fixed.

As will be seen by an advertisement in another column the concert to be given by the musical society of Willamette University has been definitely set for Wednesday evening, April 4th. The entertainment will take place in the University chapel. An excellent programme has been arranged, and the concert should be well patronized.

Setting Along Swiftly.

Clarence Crane, who had his face and eyes severely powder-burned several days ago, and who has since been confined to his bed from the effect thereof, is now able to sit up and his physician hopes that he will be able to be out in a few days.

Former Salemite.

E. M. Starr, a popular young man who left Salem for Salinas, Cal., something over a year ago, has returned from that place to Los Angeles, where he has secured a position in a flouring mill.

Heard at the Asylum.

R. S. Flemming, who was committed to the Asylum from Multnomah county on the 15th of February, died at that institution on Monday.

Work for Daniel.

The directors of school district No. 24 have let a contract for setting a row of trees around the North Salem school grounds to Dan Wagnon.

IN MEMORIAM.

Mrs. Ogle, whose maiden name was Myers, was married to Chas. L. Ogle in Adams county, Ill., October 5, 1887. Soon after coming to this state consumption laid its fatal hand on her, and despite all that medical skill and kind treatment of loved ones could do, she sank rapidly and passed away Sunday, March 25, 1888, at 10:45 p. m. Deceased was a member of the M. E. church and for years led a consecrated christian life. I had the pleasure of visiting her a few times during her sickness and found her trusting in Christ, perfectly resigned to the ruling of an all-wise providence. When she found that death had claimed her, with fortitude begotten of faith, she said to her weeping friends: "I am ready to go," and so died in great peace. We laid her to rest in the beautiful I. O. O. F. cemetery. A large concourse of sympathizing friends followed the remains to the tomb.

Thou art gone to the grave but we will not deplore thee, Whose God was thy ransom, thy guardian and guide, He gave thee—he took thee—and he will restore thee, And death has no sting, for the Savior has died.

W. ROLLINS.

SALEM, OR., March 28, 1888.

STAYTON ITEMS.

The sound of the gong again reminds us that Lee Brown's saw mill is again running on full time. The cornet band intend re-performing their drama and musical entertainment in Melama some time this week.

The republican primary here Saturday went off very quiet, and unless we had known what was going on we would never have suspected it being anything political. Miss Briggs received last week quite a stock of millinery goods and although it is quite early she has been busy. Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Stayton also expect their stock of millinery up in a few days.

Church is still in progress in the Christian church though neither meeting have gotten any joiners so far. They seem in no way discouraged but still continue the meeting. M QUAD.

Benton County Democrats.

The democratic convention for Benton county met at Corvallis last Saturday and nominated the following ticket: Representatives, T. W. B. Smith, M. M. Davis; commissioners, A. Logan, Caleb Davis; sheriff, Wm. Mackey; treasurer, M. S. Neugass; superintendent of schools, J. J. Bryan; assessor, E. Skipton; surveyor, A. J. Porter. No nomination was made for clerk, the convention deeming it folly to place a candidate in the field against Hon. Bush Wilson, who has held the office of county clerk for twenty-six years, and who will no doubt secure the nomination this time.
