PROTECTING THE WOOL INTEREST.

We are indebted to Senator Dolph for a copy of his speech on the proposed revision of the tariff, delivered March 12th. He stands by the interest of the American laborer, and shows by a convincing array of authorities the injury that would be wrought to our material interests by any considerable reduction of the tax on imported staples.

From Senator Dolph: WASHINGTON, D. C., SENATE CHAMBER, March 12. JOHN MINTO, Esq.—My Dear Sir: I am just in receipt of your favor of the 1st inst., enclosing resolutions of the North Pacific Sheep Raisers' and Wool Growers' Association.

WASHINGTON, D. C., SENATE CHAMBER, March 9. DEAR SIR—I am in receipt to-day of yours of March 2, enclosing copy of preamble and resolutions unanimously adopted by the North Pacific Sheep Raisers' and Wool Growers' Association at Hillsboro, Oregon, which I will bring to the attention of the senate.

Since I last wrote you on the subject of the tariff, the Mills bill has been born, and, as you have heard, it promises to place wool on the free list. It is scarcely necessary for me to assure you and the people of Oregon generally that, for one, I will fight this proposition to the bitter end. I do not think that the bill can pass the house; I am absolutely confident it cannot pass the senate.

Representative Herrmann delayed his acknowledgment until the 20th ult. He replied as follows: Hon. John Minto, president, and James Withycombe, secretary, of the North Pacific Sheep Raisers' and Wool Growers' Association.

GENTLEMEN—The resolution protesting against all further reduction of the tariff duties on wool, and the most excellent preamble of the same, have been by me duly presented to congress and submitted to the committee on ways and means.

The Mills bill reducing the tariff in conformity with President Cleveland's free trade suggestions, is now occupying the attention of the house, and we have the comforting assurance that the material interests of Oregon will be zealously watched by our members in congress.

A DISGRUNTLED DEMOCRAT.

Our austere neighbor, the Vidette, is unhappy on account of the corruption of the republican party. He attended Mr. Mills' lecture on Saturday evening, and was so impressed with that facile orator's antithetical picture of the sheep and the goats, that he has been a victim of nightmare ever since.

The Vidette editor thus continues his jeremiads: "With the potent money influence there, it is an utter impossibility for a democrat (virtuous soul) to win in an election." The great Napoleon said he had obliterated the word "impossible" from his dictionary.

Then the democrats of Multnomah, virtuously indignant as they have a right to be, are not too choice to compound a felony! They will resort to the sacrificial process, and offer up on the altar of Mammon a portion of their champions to save the rest.

The Vidette man may well be discouraged at this business. "This state of things," he explains, "is what we want to see rosted out." What tamely surrender to the cold water disciples! Let them drive the little end of their wedge, and rive in twain both of the old parties!

Our democratic friend will feel better by-and-by. He must remember Commodore Perry's injunction, "don't give up the ship." There is a good time coming. When he makes the disheartening admission: "The democratic party can better let the whole ticket go, than to sweat itself in getting one of its members in the hands of the opposition," we feel that his spirits have run down, and he takes a jaundiced view of things.

We call attention to the dispatch from Topeka, Kansas, published in our telegraphic columns to-day, as disproving the false charge made by Mr. Mills, in his lecture on Saturday evening, that the republicans in that state are not honestly enforcing the law.

THE PARDON OF PEARL PAGE.

Gov. Penneyer has pardoned Pearl Page, who robbed Geo. Dickenson of his money and watch, her plunder amounting to $500, and who was convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary for one year.

As a justification of Gov. Penneyer's interference, we are told that the robbery was committed at the instigation of her paramour, Harding. One or two tender jurymen also say they were unduly influenced in agreeing in a verdict of guilty, and only gave in at last under the belief that a light sentence would be imposed.

These several reasons are advanced as having influence with the governor for the pardon he has granted the woman. He has shown himself willing to stand before the people of Oregon and avow his disregard of the criminal law of the state, and the court and jury that found her guilty and awarded punishment.

Gov. Penneyer has placed himself in an indefensible position, and he cannot be too severely reprobated for his weak surrender to a brazen harlot. The Oregonian yesterday informs its readers that Portia pleaded the case of Shylock. Who was judge on that celebrated trial, and where was Antonio's counsel the while?

In Helena, Montana, the city election resulted in a victory for the republicans. NEW TO-DAY. NOTICE OF PAYMENT. All persons holding warrants against Marion county endorsed by the treasurer are hereby notified to present the same for payment, as there is money on hand for that purpose, and no further interest will be paid on them.
