LATEST DISPATCHES.

Rescue Conkling's Condition Greatly Improved.

THE DEADLOCK CONTINUES.

Another all Night Session, and no Signs of Accommodation.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Notwithstanding an all night session the deadlocks in the house of representatives was this morning still unbroken. From 2 o'clock until daybreak, the members of the house sat patiently in their seats or reclined on more easy sofas in the rear of the hall. No motions were submitted, no points of order raised, no parliamentary inquiries offered. The house was in a state of siege, the advocates of the direct bill recognizing their inability to cope with the parliamentary tactics of their antagonists. They refrained from the fear of being worsted if they attempted further proceedings.

Conkling Much Improved.

NEW YORK, April 11.—Edward S. Stokes visited Conkling at 10 this morning. When he came out he said: "I never was more surprised in my life than to see the improvement in the condition of Conkling. Yesterday I believed he would not recover, and sent a telegram to that effect. To-day he was sitting up and recognized me. Shortly after 9 o'clock this morning Dr. Barker, in the form of an official bulletin, announced to the members of the press, that Mr. Conkling was beginning to recover. He said: 'a change for the better has taken place during the night.'"

An Aged Murderer.

COLUMBUS (Neb.) April 11.—John Dumpe, aged 60 years, living with his son Charles on a farm near this place, got into a quarrel yesterday with his wife, and seizing a club crushed her skull, killing her instantly. His daughter-in-law attempted to interfere, when the old man knocked her down and beat her into insensibility. He then fled. The sheriff and posse are in pursuit.

Want a Postal Telegraph.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Petitions from various parts of the country signed by Knights of Labor have just reached here, urging the desirability of the gov't management of the telegraph, and the strong popular demand for it. This constitutes, it is believed, the largest array of names ever signed to a single request presented to Congress.

Minister Phelps to be Chief Justice.

LONDON, England, April 11.—Minister Phelps, it is said, will return from America on June 21st, and will then present letters of recall, as he is to be appointed Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court.

Application Denied.

NEW YORK, April 11.—Recorder Smythe to-day rendered a decision in the Gould-Sage matter. He denied the application to submit the complaint of the Kansas Pacific bond holders to the grand jury.

Women Mixed up in It.

TRUCKEE, April 10.—The town of Boca is on the verge of a riot. The difficulty originated between the admirers of two women. The factions finally formed, and the town is now divided into two classes—employees of the Boca brewery and lumbermen. Last night the brewery crowd crossed the river, and numerous quarrels occurred. Wm. Beck, a brewer, was shot, but it is thought he will recover. Beck's friends caught his supposed assailant in a bar-room, and a general row took place, many being badly cut and injured. The brewery men sent word over that they intended to take the town to-night.

W. D. Pugh, the architect, went to Corvallis to-day to look after work on the Agricultural College building.

Riverside and Naval oranges received this afternoon at A. Strong & Co's.

A Dangerous House to Live In.

FREEMONT (Ill.), April 10.—A large neighborhood in this city is very much excited over the mysterious fires which break out at the house of Louis Hildebrand, on Center street. For over a week he has been the victim of five or six fires a day, and so far their origin has baffled the most thorough examination. The flames will burst spontaneously from the walls, the floors or window or door casings, and everything hanging on the walls has been scorched. Nearly a dozen of the neighbors have witnessed these peculiar manifestations. In several instances the fire would suddenly break out while some of the family or the curious neighbors were looking directly at the spot. Wednesday morning the flames started no less than six times, and Mr. Hildebrand's hands were badly burned in extinguishing them. In the afternoon he moved out and completely gutted the house, and since that time the peculiar antics of the fire have ceased. Mr. Hildebrand is a respectable and quiet German employed in the office of the German Insurance Company in this city, and owns the house himself. The floor, ceilings and walls are scorched in no less than thirty places, where these spontaneous fires have broken out. These flames have been seen by Mrs. A. Keeler, Mrs. Thomas Helmbeck, Mrs. Vandegraft and several others besides the family, and the most patient investigation fails to reveal the cause.

The Secretary Means Business.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—Secretary Endicott sent a letter to Senator Cullom declining to revoke the order transferring Major Handberg, of the engineer corps, from Chicago to San Francisco. This is looked upon in army circles as the keynote of a plan which the secretary of war has adopted for future guidance. He is determined that no outside interference will be allowed to hamper the detailing of officers of the department. For years it has been the custom for officers unlucky enough to be detailed to an undesirable post to invoke the aid of a senator or a member of the house in order to save themselves such a disagreeable duty. Now things have changed and the army and navy details are beginning to be looked upon as irrevocable orders.

Gen. Booth's Daughter Married.

LONDON, April 10.—Members of the Salvation Army assembled in congress hall to-day to witness the marriage of Gen. Booth's second daughter, Emma, to Mr. Tucker, an ex-officer in the Indian civil service. Seven thousand persons were present. The hall was decorated with floral arches, palms and tropical plants. After the ceremonies a banquet was given. The festivities will continue for two days. They have attracted a large number of the aristocracy, and tickets of admission are selling freely at high prices.

Stanford a Candidate.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 10.—A gentleman of this city who just returned from Washington, and who is on intimate terms with Senator Leland Stanford, states to a newspaper representative that Stanford had finally decided to allow his name to go before the republican national convention as a candidate for the presidency, and that having reached that conclusion, he desires the support of the California delegation to the National convention.

WHOLESALE POISONING.

The Lives of Thirteen Persons Imperiled by a Poisoner.

CENTERVILLE, Ga., April 10.—From Union county comes the news of a wholesale poisoning in which thirteen persons were the victims, two of whom are dead.

Nathan Cochran, who owns a corn mill about 300 yards from his house had taken some corn there to grind, leaving it in the mill over night, and grinding it next day. The meal was taken home, and some of it was used for dinner. In a few minutes Cochran was deathly sick. Shortly afterward his two grandchildren were stricken down.

In the meantime Mrs. Gaddis, Cochran's stepmother, who had used some of the same meal was thrown into convulsions. The family of W. S. Ward also fell victims, making thirteen in all who were suffering from the poison.

An analysis shows there was arsenic in the meal. The supposition is that it was spread through the corn, while in the mill, by a man named Mulding, who had been discharged by Cochran. The suspected man is in jail.

A Forger's Confession.

PARSONS (Kan.), April 10.—Additional forged mortgages, aggregating about $3000, have been discovered that were made by O. L. McLain, the real estate and loan agent of this city, who was arrested last week and lodged in jail in default of $2000 bail. Clark James, a farmer living northeast of the city, one of McLain's victims, and Henry Wilson, a farmer living northwest of the city, the holder of an $800 mortgage for money loaned through his agency, called on him at the county jail to-day and McLain confessed to the fact that all of the signatures to the mortgages and accompanying notes, including the notary certificates, were forgeries. The prisoner broke completely down and said that he had begun his career of forgery twelve years ago, and by additional forgeries and various shifts, he had managed to stave off discovery.

Bayard Prefers the Senate.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—Among the rumors concerning the Chief Justiceship is one that Secretary Bayard would not object if the President selected Senator Gray to fill the vacancy and thus open the way for the former to return to the Senate. Some of Bayard's most intimate friends say that he went into the cabinet against his professed inclination, and he has never been entirely comfortable and happy at the head of the foreign service. The duties of Senator were much more congenial to him, and they think he would be glad to resume his seat in the Senate.

Hold Safe Burglars.

PEDMONT (Mo.), April 10.—Last night burglars took a horse from the stable of Col. W. F. Leeper, living one mile from Mill Spring, hitched him to a sled and drove through the streets of Mill Spring to the store of M. P. Page. Breaking into his store room, they took out his safe, loaded it onto the sled and drove a mile and a quarter, when they opened the safe with a sledge hammer and chisels and secured but $8 in money. The safe was ruined and Mr. Page's books and papers lost.

Spreckles and the Sugar Trust.

NEW YORK, April 10.—The indication of a strong opposition to Spreckles' eastern plans is given by a writer in the Commercial Bulletin this morning, who reports that the street rumors are identical with those circulated by parties in Philadelphia, that Spreckles' opposition to the sugar trust is not genuine and permanent.
