A LITTLE TOO SENSITIVE.

Prof. Yoder was in town to-day and favored this office with a call. He is the republican candidate for superintendent of schools, and has proved himself a fit man by his successful service as a teacher. Some little stir has been made in the community where the professor lives over the publication in this paper of correspondence in regard to his candidacy. Letters have been sent to us, which appeared right enough on the surface, but when put into cold type seem to have contained a latent sting. This is unfortunate, and some of Mr. Yoder's friends feel aggrieved. To relieve the minds of such people we can only say that that gentleman has our hearty endorsement, which has been given before to-day in our unreserved commendation of the county ticket. To these super sensitive persons we would suggest that an editor is not responsible for the sayings of his correspondents. In election times political talk is looked for by newspaper readers, and men who put themselves up for office are apt to be very freely talked about. Letters sent to editors discussing the merits of candidates and professing to give the state of public sentiment in certain localities, are readily accepted, provided they are free from abuse or manifest unfairness. It is under this rule that Mr. Yoder's name has been used in our columns. But this is not detrimental. In a political campaign it is better to be disparaged than ignored. Anything rather than cold obstruction and neglect. It is told of Dr. Johnson, the levitan of literature, that his first literary venture proving a failure, no one asking or knowing about the book, he prevailed on the editor of some literary journal to insert an article of his own in which he soundly abused it. This answered the purpose. The book became in demand and the edition went off. Prof. Yoder need be under no concern about his election, because he is certain to keep up with his ticket, and the ticket will get there. Praise and abuse alike keep up the current of talk, and the man that engages the largest share of public attention will find it brought home to him in the number of votes he polls. Let us have some more memorabilia of this aspiring schoolman.

We were favored with a call this afternoon from ex-Gov. St. John, who is attracted to a newspaper office being a former newspaper man himself. We tried hard to convince our distinguished visitor that he was aiming after too much in clamoring for total prohibition. That we must creep first and then go that in a gas-as-you-please race, the tortoise had been known to outstrip the hare. The governor said he had heard some such statements before, but they had not served to convince him of error. We desisted at this. What can you do with an obstinate man?

Subscribe for the JOURNAL.

We publish in another column a very pleasant article from the Alta California setting forth the advantages of Oregon. This is John P. Irish's newspaper, and he may be the writer of the article. He is charged with coming to this state as an emissary of Grover Cleveland to talk the Webfoot voters into democracy; but if he employs his leisure hours in studying our natural resources, and inviting immigrants to avail themselves of desirable opportunities, this friendly service atones for his political sin, and we greet the eloquent newspaper man with a cordial welcome.

Brace Up.

You are feeling depressed, your appetite is poor, you are bothered with headache, you are fidgety, nervous, and generally out of sorts, and want to brace up, but not with stimulants, spring medicines, or bitters, which have for their basis very cheap, bad whiskey, and which stimulate you for an hour, and then leave you in worse condition than before. What you want is an alternative that will purify your blood, start healthy action of Liver and Kidneys, restore your vitality, and give renewed health and strength. Such a medicine you will find in Electric Bitters, and only 50 cents a bottle at H. W. Cox's drug store.

Their Business Booming.

Probably no one thing has caused such a revival of trade at H. W. Cox's drug store as their giving away to their customers so many free trial bottles of Dr. King's new medical discovery for consumption. Their trade is simply enormous in this very valuable article from the fact that it always cures and never disappoints. Coughs, colds, asthma, bronchitis, croup, and all throat and lung diseases quickly cured. You can test it before buying by getting a trial bottle free, large size $1. Every bottle warranted.
