THE GREAT STATESMAN DEAD.

He Passes Away Unconscious, Sur- rounded by Sorrowing Friends.

New York, April 17.—At 5:30 o'clock, Dr. Barker, who had just left Conkling was seen. His countenance at once betrayed the worst. He said Conkling was fast filling with blood. His breathing was becoming shorter and shorter, and he added that there was general wasting away of the vital powers. Dr. Barker, when pressed for an expression of opinion as to how long he thought Conkling would live, declined to make any positive statement in that direction.

Dr. Anderson says Conkling will probably die in two hours.

New York, April 18.—Conkling died at 1:50 a. m. At the bedside of the dying man were Mrs. Conkling, Judge Coxe, Dr. Anderson and Mrs. Oakman. Mr. Conkling passed away without moving a limb. He looked as though peacefully sleep- ing. There were a number of persons outside on the street, waiting to catch the last report. Within doors there were between forty and fifty persons also waiting to hear the worst. They were composed chiefly of representatives of the press and friends of the dead senator. Mr. Conkling died in the rear chamber, on the second floor of the residence. "It was a dreadful struggle that the patient fought against death," said Judge Coxe, "but the end was peaceful and unaccom- panied by pain. The interment will be at Utica."

A Marvel in Destructive Engines.

PHILADELPHIA, April 17.—Wm. Cramp & Sons, ship and engine builders, have nearly completed a dynamite cruiser gunboat called the Yorktown, designed for the United States navy. It will be launched on Saturday, April 28, in the presence of Secretary Whitney. It carries four pneumatic guns for the hurling of dynamite projectiles, each with a range of at least a mile. The guns are of 15-inch calibre, and the shells, which can be fired with great accuracy twice a minute, will contain 600 pounds of explosive gela- tine. It is claimed that the gun, properly handled, will be the most destructive agent of war yet in- vented.

A Beer Boycott at Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, April 17.— Conditions are favorable for a general lockout of brewers. Moerlin having refused to reinstate a man at the request of his fellow-workmen they struck, and their action was ratified last night by the brewers' union, which declared an immedi- ate boycott on Moerlin's beer. The boss brewers, in anticipation of this, decided to stand in case anyone was boycotted. In obedience to a resolu- tion, one of Moerlin's customers, who this morning stopped taking Moerlin's beer and tried to buy elsewhere, was refused. Both sides are committed to the contest.

Railroad Discrimination.

ST. PAUL, April 17.—A Fargo (Dak.) special says: Judge McCon- nell to-day rendered a decision in the celebrated case of J. W. Hawk vs. the Northern Pacific Railroad Company, begun to compel the defendants to furnish cars to the plaintiff. The decision was in favor of the plaintiff, who will now bring suit for damage in each case where he failed to get cars as demanded.

Strike of Burlington Switchmen.

KANSAS CITY, April 17.—All Burlington switchmen in the yards here quit work at 7 o'clock this evening, and the road is badly crippled in handling freight. The cause of the strike was the refusal of the company to reinstate switch- men whom they had discharged for assaulting a night yardmaster.

DEATH OF AN ENGLISH POET.

Matthew Arnold Dies Suddenly of Heart Disease.

LONDON, April 17.—Matthew Arnold, the noted poet, scholar, critic and theologian, whose recent article on "Civilization in the United States" attracted marked attention, died suddenly yesterday in Liver- pool from heart disease.

Yesterday morning he was ap- parently well. He attended the Presbyterian church, and after luncheon went out for a walk with Mrs. Arnold. He was still in high spirits. Soon after leaving the house he fell forward and never afterward spoke. His daughter ar- rived at Liverpool an hour after his death. No inquest will be neces- sary.

Immediately after Mr. Arnold fell he was carried into the house of a doctor near by. He was breathing, but unconscious. The physician poured spirits down his throat, but he never rallied, and died within four minutes after being taken in doors. The doctors have given a certificate that Mr. Arnold's death was due to heart disease.

A Murderer's Uneasy Conscience.

LOUISVILLE, April 17.—Augusto Anderson committed suicide in a hotel at Shelbyville, Ky., yesterday, after confessing to a triple murder. He was a Norwegian stonecutter, and had only been in Shelbyville ten days, being engaged in dress- ing stone for the foundation of a church. A few minutes before committing the deed he was in the hotel office talking with several parties. It was observed that something unusual had disturbed him. He could speak English very imperfectly, but enough was learned from his re- marks that he was conscience-strick- en over a great crime he had com- mitted, he claiming to have murder- ed his wife and two children in Nor- way eight years ago. Since that time he said he had not a moment's peace. He then went up stairs to his room, sat down on the side of his bed, placed the muzzle of a re- volver to his head, pulled the trig- ger and fell back on the bed a corpse.

Why She Committed Suicide.

ALBUQUERQUE (N. M.), April 17.—Victoria Lee, the youngest daughter of John D. Lee, the Danite Chief, who was executed for the part he played in the Mountain Meadows massacre, committed suicide in Arizona a few days ago by taking laudanum after returning home from a party at which she seemed one of the gayest present. Nothing was then known as to what caused the girl to take her own life, but the following note, found written on a slate, explains all: "My heart is buried with Johnnie Taylor and it will not be long before I lie by his side."

Johnnie Taylor was killed in a saloon row at Winslow several months ago and Victoria was in love with him.

Fire in Stanfords Palo Alto Stables.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 17.—Fire was discovered about 10:30 this eve- ning in the Palo Alto (Senator Stan- ford's) stables. The fire was discov- ered in a small shed by the watch- man, and it is supposed to have been caused by an incendiary. The following horses burned to death: Clifton Belle, Rexford, Emma Robert- son, Lowell, Howard Maiden and Norlaine. Norlaine is not yet dead, but it is impossible for her to live long. She has the fastest trotting record for yearlings in the world. Two other horses are still alive—Po- lo Alto and Manzanita. The loss is $200,000.

Death by Electricity.

ALBANY, April 17.—The assembly to-day passed a bill providing for the execution of the death penalty by means of electricity. This is the bill recommended by the com- mission. It prohibits newspapers from publishing details of execu- tions. The vote was eighty-seven to eight.

Elder Moss, of Seattle, will com- mence a protracted meeting to-mor- row evening in the Christian church in Portland. They will be contin- ued for an indefinite period. All are invited to be present.

Wheat Advance.

CHICAGO, April 17.—Wheat sold to-day seven cents higher than it did a week ago. So strong was the feeling that the opening was exact- ly one cent above the closing last night.

The new York market opened ex- cited, and members of the exchange exceeded the rules in their efforts to buy.

Louisiana Goes Democratic.

NEW ORLEANS, April 18, 1 a. m.— The indications are that Nicholis is elected governor by a majority of 20,000.

The young men's democratic asso- ciation claim the election of their entire city ticket, over the straight democratic ticket, by a large major- ity.

The Emperor Searing his End.

LONDON, April 17.—A dispatch from Berlin to the Exchange Tele- gram Company says it is learned from a direct source that the physi- cians at their consultation to-day agreed that the emperor's malady was approaching the last stage.

Chicago Physician (to Mrs. Breezy) —I am sorry to hear that your daughter is not well, Mrs. Breezy. Is it anything serious?

Mrs. Breezy—Oh, I fancy not, but Clara is such an ethereal, delicate organization that the least thing upsets her.

Chicago Physician—She didn't say what she thought the matter was?

Mrs. Breezy—No; she simply com- plained at breakfast morning that she was feeling very rocky—New York Sun.

Arrested for Larceny.
