STRAY BITS.

A baptismal garment known to be 153 years old is in use at Pekin, Ills.

Every man on the Kansas City police force is a church member. Two of the officers are elders in the church and any number of them are deacons.

It is said that there are not more than 100 negroes in the entire city of Paris, and throughout France very few persons of African blood are to be found.

A Montreal butcher named Desmarcheis was arrested and fined $100 recently for kissing a woman against her will. He decided to go to jail rather than pay the fine.

In order to cure whooping cough in Warwickshire village, England, they cut a piece of hair from the nape of the child's neck, clap it very fine, and spread it on a piece of bread and give it to a dog.

The sum of £80,000 was recently offered for the well known English medical journal, The Lancet, which was founded in 1823 by Dr. Wakley. The offer was declined, the paper not being for sale.

Hanson cuts containing dummy figures representing a corpse have paraded the streets of London as an advertisement of the management of the Princess's theatre, where "The Mystery of a Hansom Cab" was about to be played.

In a little German village a young girl of 18 has for a fortnight lain in quiet slumber. She is kept alive by the injection of a nourishing liquid, and round her bed a couple of medical men are watching every symptom with great attention.

Milo Zuehl, formerly prima ballerina of the Eden theatre in Paris, received as a wedding gift when united recently to Prince Baskietoff, a Mincovite magnate, 150 silver drinking cups, all fashioned like dancing slippers, of different sizes.

The rage in London is Japanese art. Books pertaining directly or indirectly to Japanese art are in demand, and Japanese exhibitions are being opened on every hand. The first production of the new rage was to be the formation of a Japanese art class.

A point in the Pacific ocean, ten miles from Santa Barbara, is called "Coal Oil point," because of the odor, which is so great that when a vessel passes all on board are frequently made sick. On a calm day sheets of oil may be seen floating on the water, and there is every indication that the spot is just above a submarine oil well.

BASE BALL TALK.

The Boston will practice in a rink. Indianapolis will open and close the season in Chicago.

Tom Dossley has joined the Washingtons at New Orleans.

Now it is said that Eiterbrook will play left for Indianapolis.

Gleason and Welch will each receive $3,000 for this season's work.

Cleveland has arranged to play at Pittsburgh on April 11 and 12.

Dumdon, the deaf mute pitcher, has married. His bride is also a mute.

Washington appears to have captured a notable base runner in the deaf mute Iloy.

King, the Princeton pitcher, signed by the Athletics, cannot play with the team until June.

Catcher McGuire looks like the ghost of his former self. He has been in training all winter.

King, the St. Louis pitcher, wants $3,000 for this season's work. Last year he was paid $1,500.

Boston will release Catcher Daily. He has been offered for sale, but no League club seems to want him.

Aron has paired Mark Baldwin and Hoover. So Tom Daly will have to handle nearly all the experiments.

Jack Tilly, the once noted out fielder of the Toledo club, is now in the employ of a New York mineral water firm.

The Kansas City club has accepted the terms of Davis, of Baltimore, and McManis, Cunningham and Greer, of Brooklyn.

A new southern league is talked of, with clubs at Macon, Atlanta, Nashville, Birmingham, Columbus, Montgomery, Savannah and Chattanooga.

Titoomb may do better work after he has worked off some of the winter rust. He was added pretty freely by the New Orleans boys at his first appearance on the season.

The coming season on Association grounds will be a cold one indeed for the professional lead head. With the percentage and turnstile system in vogue nothing goes at the gate except the real stuff.

At the recent Association schedule meeting, the Louisville club made a final offer of $7,000 to Latham. Von der Ahe refused, with the remark that $10,000 would not buy his annual third baseman.

President Spaulding says Boston is not as anxious for Clarkson as she is represented to be. Another club has offered more than Boston, and a third club asked Chicago to submit a proposition for Clarkson's release.

The mileage for the League teams for this season will be as follows: Chicago, 10,512 miles; Detroit, 10,128; New York, 10,060; St. Louis, 9,551; Boston, 8,794; Indianapolis, 7,729; Washington, 8,841; Philadelphia, 8,073.

All of the Texas league clubs have been incorporated. Each club has a paid up capital of $5,000, except Galveston, which starts with $12,000 in its treasury. The salaries of players are limited to $1,000 for the season, no umpire will be paid $75 per month each. The regular season will open April 1 and close Oct. 31.

TURF NOTES.

J. I. Case has refused $20,000 for Phyllis (from a Kentucky stock farm company).

Nearly 900 trotters have made records better than 2:25. Seventy-six have just equalled that time.

Insolence is well thought of by posted turfmen for the great Kentucky handicap, as he only has to carry 112 pounds in that race. Latest news from his stable says that he has wintered finely and is now doing well.

Senator Stanford has sold the 2-year-old filly Palo Alto Belle, full sister of Bell Boy, for $5,000. The purchaser is J. C. Sibbey. This filly was held in reserve at Palo Alto to beat the yearling record in case Nerlane failed to secure and hold the honor.

The double team and saddle races about arranged by the Cleveland club for their summer programme are creating quite a desire among horse owners to try the mettle of their trotters, and already many owners have signified their intention to enter their horses.

Weekly Capital Journal

The Cheapest Newspaper in Oregon!

THE BEST FAMILY NEWSPAPER

IN MARION COUNTY.

Do you want a paper that you can with confidence take to your friend as an intimate friend; a clean, fresh and vigorous exponent of the truth; a foe to any system that builds up colossal fortunes for the few at the expense of the many, or that reduces the farmer and laborer to serfdom? A paper that will not descend to acrimonious personalities, to vituperation or abuse; but which depends on fair statement and reason for its weapons. A paper that dares treat its political foes with candor and courtesy. Devoted to the material growth and prosperity of Salem, of Marion county, and of the fertile and wide extended Willamette valley. Using every legitimate means to convince the prospective settler and business man of the advantages which, as residents, we all know full well exist; and, finally, a paper which recognizes the fact that the reduction in the price of weekly newspapers on this coast, has not kept pace with the reduction in the price of the great staples of commerce, and has boldly struck out forever from the stereotyped "terms" at the head of its columns, the lowest price ever charged for such a paper in Oregon, and has substituted therefor as low a price as was ever charged for such a paper in the world.
