SILVERTON ITEMS.

By this time our farmers have completed the seeding of wheat, oats and barley; and are now waiting the "golden harvest."

Mr. A. Wolf visited Portland last week, on business. Mr. Frank Libby, who has been on the sick list for some time past, is slowly improving. Silvertown has been booming a $85,000 school house.

Miss May Coolidge is visiting friends at The Dalles. Mr. J. K. Buff, who for sometime past has been confined to his house, with a very sore hand, is rapidly improving, and expects to teach school again this fall.

Mr. A. E. Smith is visiting relatives near Goldendale, W. T. Mr. Theo. Schleder, our newly elected marshal, is the right man in the right place. Lettie, daughter of R. L. Wilster, is dangerously ill, at the residence of her parents, on Water street.

Mr. E. McClaine has beautified his residence by adding to its appearance--a new fence. Rev. Mr. Fowler and family moved into the new parsonage, just completed for them.

The G. A. R. will hold services on Decoration Day, the 30th of May. Every one is invited. The members of the Post will meet at the hall at 8:30 a. m. Prof. D. M. Yoder, T. R. Hibbard, and M. Fitzgerald and wife, visited Portland last week.

The Appeal says, "the appointment of postmaster of Silvertown was as good as could have been made among the democrats." A large number of our people attended the picnic at Macleay, last Saturday. The latest politics here is, prohis urging the democrats to stick to their ticket.

If Prof. D. M. Yoder is elected for county school superintendent, we will have as good a man as Marion county ever had. Mr. John Eakin and wife of Salem, arrived here last Saturday.

The sociable given by the Woman's Aid Society, at the residence of Dr. P. A. Davis, was a pleasant affair. T. D. Porter of the JOURNAL, paid our town a short visit. Come again Mr. Porter. A party of young folks from Woodburn, visited our city last Sunday.

Sam'l. Putnam, is billed here, on the 22nd, 23rd and 24th of June, and will deliver several lectures. Mr. Putnam made many warm friends while here before, and no doubt will receive crowded houses every night, on his return. Hon. J. D. Lee, addressed a large number of people, at the Liberal hall, last Tuesday evening.

Dr. Gilbert, of Salem, made our little town a pleasant call last Tuesday. A Fine Flag. Col. Thos. C. Smith, commander of the 2nd regt., O. N. G., and his competent adjutant, Lieut. M. W. Hunt, were found at headquarters this morning, both admiring their new regimental colors, just received from Adjutant General Shofer. It is a beautiful flag, six by six and a half feet square, of blue silk, double, with a deep yellow silk fringe.

In the center is the coat of arms of this state, hand embroidered, in colors, surrounded by the stars in red; the eagle is of brown and black thread, while below it all, on a red silk scroll, are the words in yellow and black letters, "Second Infantry, O. N. G." The pike is ten feet long, and heavily gilt mounted, and the tassels, of five or five and a half feet length, are of white and navy blue silk. The battalion will probably turn out with its new colors, and the colors will be escorted to their place in line, at the head of the regiment, on decoration day.

The Verdict Unanimous. W. D. Sult, Druggist, Hippus, Ind., testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case. One man took six bottles, and was cured of rheumatism of 10 years' standing." Abraham Hare, druggist, Bellville, Ohio, affirms: "The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my 29 years' experience, is Electric Bitters." Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters does cure all diseases of the Liver, Kidneys or blood. Only a half dollar a bottle at Dr. H. W. Cox's Drug Store.

Wool! Wool! Will pay the highest market price in cash for wool. Squire Farrar & Co's, corner Commercial and Court streets, Salem.

The secretary's report was read showing a growth in numbers, influence, and financial standing. A committee on a plan for life insurance, appointed at the last meeting of the State Grange to report at this meeting, reported adversely and the report was adopted.

On good of the order Messrs. W. A. Sample, H. M. Kennedy, and O. J. Kizer from Eastern Oregon giving good reports, made remarks followed by Lecturer H. E. Hayes.

W. A. Sample presented resolutions from the Grange of Umatilla county in reference to extending the work of the order. By motion they were referred to the committee on division of labor.

A. F. Miller presented the matter of extending the order in Washington Territory. Worthy Master Boise made remarks upon the same subject. Closed for the night.

THIS MORNING'S SESSION. Grange assembled at the hour named and opened by Overseer J. G. Powell.

Judge C. E. Moor, of Benton county, made a report in reference to the Agricultural College, and submitted a resolution upon the subject, and moved the reference to committee on Agricultural College. Carried.

Judge Moor asked that Mr. Stump, of Benton county, be accepted as a member in his stead, which was voted.

TELEGRAPHIC SPLINTS.

Seattle will spend $10,000 on a fourth of July celebration.

E. B. Bradley, teller of the Union National bank, of Chicago, has disappeared. Another pilgrim for Canada.

The Emperor Don Pedro, of Brazil, is dying in Milan, Italy. He is stricken with paralysis and has lost the power of speech.

Frank Glover and Joe McAuliffe had a glove contest in San Francisco yesterday. Glover received terrible punishment.

Gen. Sheridan is ill with nervous prostration, and a bulletin issued at midnight (last night), reports his condition critical.

By the explosion of a barrel of varnish in Hackett's furniture factory, Philadelphia, last evening, John Scully and David Clayton were killed, and Thomas Kenny was severely injured.

Senator and Mrs. Stanford sail for Europe on Saturday. His wife's sickness is given as the reason for his departure, but to dodge a vote on Judge Fuller's confirmation, it is said to be the cause of this sea voyage.

The Dickens' Readings. Mr. Charles Dickens' readings in the opera house, last evening, were listened to by a good sized audience. He gave three selections from Pickwick, which have long been celebrated for their imitable humor and good natured burlesque of social types in London. These were the Pickwick club on a bird hunt, the breach of promise case of Bardell vs. Pickwick, and Bob Sawyer's evening party. These were read in former days to public audiences by the distinguished author, and as much fame was won by his dramatic power as his felicitous impersonations. The present reader, beside his inherited talent, has all the advantage of lifelong associations, and he comes among us with so realistic an appreciation of the airy creations of his father, that they appear before us as living substances. The readings are graceful, without violent gesticulation, but full of suggestiveness and by play. Mr. Dickens was heartily applauded for the delightful entertainment he afforded.

A PLEASANT TALK WITH DICKENS. A JOURNAL reporter met Mr. Dickens at the place where the depot used to be this morning, and bravely introduced himself to that gentleman.

"I merely wanted your impression of our state, Mr. Dickens," explained the reporter nervously.

"Well, I haven't seen much of it, you know," said he, "but I must say that what I have seen I like very much. This morning reminds me very much of a June morning at home."

Mr. Dickens soon placed the reporter at ease and a very pleasant chat ensued. Mr. Dickens is a very approachable gentleman, and discussed literature, booms and farming with equal ease. Mr. Dickens has been traveling continuously for seven months, and he says he is getting exceedingly tired. He reads in Portland this evening, and immediately starts for Helena, Montana. Mr. Dickens is so well pleased with his tour and trip across the American continent, which, by the way, he has discovered, is quite a large country, that he will return here again two years later. Next year he spends in making a tour of England.

"Another wonderful discovery has been made and that too by a lady in this county. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She bought of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night and with one bottle has been miraculously cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus writes W. C. Hamrick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Get a free trial bottle at H. W. Cox's drug store.
