REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

Declaration of Principles and Assertion of Popular Right.

The Republicans of the United States, assembled by their delegates in National convention, pause on the theshold of their proceedings to honor the memory of their first great leader, the immertal champion of liberty and the rights of the people—Abraham Lincoln; and to cover also with weeaths of importable renembrance.

We also recall with our greetings and with prayer for his recovery the name of one of our living heroes whose memory will be treasured in the history both of Republicans and of the Republic—the name of that noble soldier and favorite son of victory, Philip H Sheridan. In the spirit of those great leaders, and of our own devotion to human liberty, and with that heatility to all forms of despet mmami oppression which is the fundamental idea of the Republican party, we send fraternal congratulations to our fellow Americans of Brazil upon their great act of emancipation, which completed the abolition of slavery throughout the two American continents. We earnistly hope that we may soon congratulate our fellowcitizens of Irish birth upon the peaceful recovery of home rule for Ireland.

We'are uncompromisingly in favor of the American system of protection. We protest against its destruction proposed by the president and his party. They serve the interests of Europe; we will support the interests of America. We accept the issues and continently appeal to the people for their judgment. The protective system must be maintained. Its abondonment has always been followed by general disaster to all interests, excethose of the usurer and the sheriff. We declare our hostiley to the introduction into this country of foreign contract labor, and of Chinese labor, alien to our excitation and our Constitution, and we demand the rigid enforcement of the existing laws against it, and favor such im-mediate legislation as will exclude such labor from our shores.

We declare our opposition to all conditionations of capital organized in trusts or otherwise, to control arbitrarily the condition of trade among our citizens, and we commend to Congress and to the State Legisatures, to their respective jurisdictions, such legislation as will prevent the excuounducthurges on their supplies, or by un-just rates for the transportation of their products to market. We approve the leg-islation by Congress to prevent alike un-just burdens and unfair discriminations be-tween the States.

We reaffirm the policy of appropriating tiers, not aircus, which the Republican parry established in 1862, against the persistent opposition of the Demograts in ongress, and which has brought our great Western domain into such magnificent development. The restoration of uncarued land grants to the public domain for the use of actual settlers, which was begun the use of actual settlers, which was begun under the administration of President Arginistration of America applies alike to all citizens of the reguldic, and imposes upon all alike the same obligations of obedience to the laws. In a republic like ours, where the citizen is the sovereign and the official the servant, where no power is exercised except by the will of the people, it is important that the sovereign—the people —should possess intelligence.
