WHAT do republicans propose to do? To better the condition of the laboring man, of course.

"TURN out, democrats," is the burden of an appeal just issued to the democrats.

ACCORDING to a recent canvass purported to have been made by both parties relative to Indiana, the state will give 12,000 plurality for the republican candidates.

MR. CLEVELAND, by his message for which I sincerely honor him, has challenged the protected industries of the country to a fight of extermination.

THE grand old man has never had a chance to veto pension bills; but he eagerly improved the opportunity when a member of the senate to vote against the bill granting a pension to the widow of Abraham Lincoln.

THE civil service rules, what do they amount to? They are heeded no more than if they were not.

IGNATIUS DONNELLY has withdrawn from the field as the farm and labor candidate for governor of Minnesota and has taken the stump for Harrison and Morton and for W. R. Merriam, the republican candidate for governor.

SUGAR is almost as much of a household necessity as bread, and should therefore be made as cheap as possible.

THE ordeal of hand-shaking and speech-making through which the republican nominee is going was never before paralleled in the history of the world.

AT Potsdam, N. Y., a few days ago, a republican pole was about to be raised, when, just as all was ready, a prominent citizen and democrat stepped forward and said: "Gentlemen! I desire that no republican should assist in the raising of this pole."

EVERY republican and everybody else interested in the continuation of a protective system, ought to work day and night, early and late, to promote the interests of the laboring classes.

IN Indiana the greenback candidate for governor is Dr. Hiram E. Leonard. He ran in 1884 and got 8,388 votes.

THE New York Herald prints a most remarkable letter from one of its traveling correspondents. It says Cleveland is as good as defeated unless he can overcome the 70,000 majority with which Harrison will carry the state outside of Kings county and New York.

THE JOURNAL continues to be the only republican and the leading paper of Salem. A more or less esteemed contemporary this morning forsakes the party.

THE motto of California means, I have found it. Only in that land of sunshine, where the orange, lemon, olive, fig and grape bloom and ripen and attain their highest perfection in mid-winter are the herbs and gum found that are used in that pleasant remedy for all throat and lung troubles.

Santa Abie the ruler of coughs asthma and consumption. Mr. D. W. Mathews has been appointed agent for this valuable remedy and sells it under a guarantee at $1 a bottle. Three for $2.50.

When the Canfield and West Coast railroads are all in operation once, Bellingham bay country will not only surprise the people scattered over this broad United States of America alone, but those in a distant land across the deep and rough waters as well.

UNIVERSITY NOTES.

Points of Personal Mention and Notes of News.

Arthur King, an old-time student, was visiting among the boys the first of the week.

A. W. Bagley, after being confined to his room for several days, is able to be in school again, this week.

The reception at the Woman's College Saturday evening was a pleasant affair, and all seemed to enjoy themselves.

Allen Cooke read a good composition in chapel Wednesday. C. E. Dickerson, an old-time student, was present to enjoy it.

The first term closes next Friday, and the second will begin Monday following, which will be a good time to enter school.

The college classes are reviewing this week, and the academy classes will begin Monday, preparatory for examination next Friday.

The military company drill every Friday afternoon, in the armory, and have a large roll and are making good progress in the manual of arms.

J. C. Shoemaker came in from his mine on the Santiam, and entertains the boys with the glowing prospect of his claim. He thinks his fortune is made.

Hon. E. H. Belknap, of the class of '84, and representative elect from Benton county, was at chapel Monday, and addressed the school in a pleasant and appropriate manner.

Prof. Starr was absent in Benton county the first of the week, and Prof. Van Scoy was called away yesterday afternoon. Members of the classes heard the recitations during their absence.

Dr. Stratton, of Mills college, Cal., addressed the school to-day in a pleasant and instructive style. He first gave an interesting account of his career as a student of the Willamette University in the early days.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 1st, 1888. Messrs. WELLEN BROS., Salem, Oregon.

Gentlemen: We had the pleasure recently of making shipment to you of our new "White Cross" Extracts, and send you by mail to-day a very neat show card which we would like you to place prominently in your store, and which will call the attention of your trade to the goods.

It has been our intention for some time past to place upon the market the finest line of flavoring extracts manufactured in this country, and after months of study and experimenting with the prominent brands now before the public we have at last succeeded in placing before you a quality which beyond doubt has no superior.

We can not too strongly impress upon you that you can unhesitatingly recommend them to your customers as the finest that can possibly be manufactured. The package and style generally is such as to attract attention, and we predict that when your trade have tested the quality of the goods your sale for "White Cross" extracts will be large.

By complying with our request you will confer a favor upon yours truly, A. SCHILLING & CO.
