The Jordan-Tate Fease.

Al and Willis Jordan, the young Polk county reprobates, were given a preliminary examination this morning before Recorder Strickler. Hayden the eloquent was appointed by the court to defend the scapegoats, but notwithstanding they were bound over to await the action of the grand jury. Their bonds were fixed at $100 each, but this they could not raise and in consequence were committed to jail. They are accused of making an assault with knives upon Henry Tate of South Salem. Tate is one of those peculiar shaggy-looking creatures who are worth nearly as much as the powder that would be required in dispatching them. The half-witted fifteen year-old girl whom the Jordans spirited off to a dive of ill fame is a nephew of Tate's, and there he permits her to languish. He claims to have as deep a love for her as for his own children, and yet is content to let his imbecile charge continue in the life she has been persuaded to lead.

The Great American Turkey.

To America, or rather Plymouth Rock, is due the establishment of a day for Thanksgiving. Springing from the religious zeal of the Puritan, the custom, spreading over New England through the North, and then throughout the entire South, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, until in the midst of the throes of the greatest civil war that ever shook a continent, in 1862, the fourth Thursday in November of each year was, by the solemn enactment of the great high parliament of the greatest republic that ever existed, established as a day for national Thanksgiving. This custom is peculiar, and, in fact belongs entirely to the American republic. No other people have, as a nation, a day set apart for this purpose alone, to give thanks to the Great Giver of all good, for the preservation of their country.

Where to Eat Your Turkey.

To-morrow the ladies of the Christian church will serve a sumptuous dinner in the church from 12 to 3 o'clock. Everybody invited. The ladies of the Baptist church have in preparation a grand dinner which they will serve in the church parlors from 12 to 3 o'clock.

At the W. C. T. U. hall where the ladies of the W. C. T. U. will serve a sumptuous dinner from 12 until 4 o'clock.

Almost a Failure.

The fine new passenger elevator recently placed in the Capitol promises to be a failure without a better head of water can be obtained. The elegant carriage creeps slowly up under the pressure of a six-inch main. To make this elevator a success there should be at least a sixteen-inch pressure.

It Still Worries Albany.

The first of the season Corvallis was in the lead in the wheat market; but Albany soon caught up. Then Salem was far behind. The O. P. boats started, and now that city leads us one cent, which we cannot understand, as considerable of the wheat comes this way.—Democrat.

The River is Low.

The Occident went down this morning with only 115 tons of freight. That is all they felt safe in taking, as the river has been gradually falling for several days. The winter rains are not so frequent as they should be for heavy draft vessels.

Talk of New Boats.

A gentleman who is in a position to know informs us that the O. R. & N. have in contemplation the building of two new boats at Portland for the upper Willamette traffic. This is cheering news.

To-Morrow is a Holiday.

Remembering this, govern yourself accordingly. The postoffice will be closed for repairs and turkey from 12 to 3 o'clock.

NOTICE.

There will be a supper served in good New England style on Thanksgiving night for the benefit of party goers and others at the Home Restaurant, (W. C. T. U. Hall) under the opera house. Terms reasonable. d2t.

E. M. LAW, Prop.

To Begin Life Anew.

To-day Clarence P. Dixon stepped from the penitentiary a free man, G. v. Penoyer yesterday having commuted his sentence. He was sent up from Portland for a term of three years and began service in July, 1887. He was convicted of the embezzlement of $8000 from the C. P. R., of which company he was the freight agent at Portland. When it was discovered that he was short in his accounts he fled to British Columbia and remained several months, free from the fear of the officers of law. During this time his young wife secured a divorce. Remorse preyed upon the erring young man to such an extent that he came to Portland and gave himself up and was sentenced as above. After his incarceration the wife came to this city to reside and immediately began working to secure his pardon. This she accomplished, as announced in yesterday's JOURNAL, and they are now together. He sees the folly of his past life and starts again with good resolutions, admitting that it is through the fidelity and untiring energies of his divorced, though faithful, wife that the commutation was granted.

The sequel is in a marriage license being to-day issued by County Clerk Babcock to Clarence P. Dixon and Miss Annie W. Harbin. They are to be quietly married this evening and will leave by to-morrow morning's train for Nevada, where their future lot will be cast, and they depart with the well-wishes and God-speed of all.

A man who has practiced medicine for 40 years, ought to know salt from sugar; read what he says:

TOLEDO, O., Jan. 10, 1887.

Messrs. F. J. Cheney & Co.,—Gentlemen:—I have been in the general practice of medicine for most 40 years, and would say that in all my practice and experience, have never seen a preparation that I could prescribe with as much confidence of success as I can Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by you. Have prescribed it a great many times and its effect is wonderful, and would say in conclusion that I have yet to find a case of catarrh that it would not cure, if they would take it according to directions.

Yours Truly,

L. L. GORSUCH, M. D.

Office, 215 Summit St.

We will give $100 for any case of catarrh that cannot be cured with Hall's Catarrh Cure. Taken internally.

F. J. CHENY & CO., Toledo, O.
Sold by druggists, 75c.

SUPREME COURT.

Salem, Nov. 28.

The State of Oregon, upon relation of P. A. Davis, John Hicks, J. C. Hayes and E. L. Smith, respondent vs. Adolph Wolf, M. Fitzgerald, George Sacra and Archie Wolford, appellants; appeal from Marion county. Argued and submitted. Court adjourned until Monday, Dec. 3.

Be Warned.

To whom it may concern: All persons having fruit or shrubs needing to be pruned had better wait until the danger of freezing has passed. We may have a cold snap yet. So be ware. All wanting such work done leave orders at Moore's & Manning's or with the undersigned.

D. D. PRETTYMAN.

Thanksgiving Vacation.

At the Willamette University the Thanksgiving vacation by a petition signed by most of the students, was extended to include Friday to allow some to go home. The faculty reserved the right to prohibit any going to Portland or any other smallpox district.

Union Services.

To-morrow is Thanksgiving day and the churches of Salem will conduct union services at the Baptist church at 10:30 a. m. Rev. A. R. Medbury will deliver the sermon, and music will be furnished by a select chorus of voices.

How often do we hear our friends say: "Oh I am feeling pretty well but have a slight pain in the back that I suppose will soon pass away." But does it pass away? No, not often unless assisted by some good remedy. Pain in the back is frequently followed weakness, flushing of the body, mucous and milky discharges, eruptions of the face and neck, dizziness, loss of appetite, general debility and Bright's disease of the kidneys. If you have any of these symptoms do not delay but save time and money and health by using Oregon Kidney tea. It is a safe and speedy remedy. Sold by D. W. Matthews & Co.

A Judge Appointed.

Gov. Penoyer to-day appointed M. V. Harrison as county judge of Gilliam county, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of W. W. Steiner a few days ago.

Ladies, do not run in your complexion by the use of poisonous cosmetics and face powders. If your face is red or sunburned, if you are so unfortunate as to have pimples or blotches on your neck and face, a special specific will not cover them like a coat of paint but will most effectively remove all blemishes from the skin and restore it to its natural bloom. Sold by D. W. Matthews & Co.

OCCIDENTAL JOTTINGS.

News And Notes of a General Interest to the Westerner.

A stranger is advocating the establishment of gas works at Albany. And now it is Astoria that is having a scrapping match with the Salvation Army.

Lew McVay was tried at Corvallis for assaulting his brother with a dangerous weapon and sentenced to one year in the penitentiary.

Astoria guests fish from their bedroom windows and throw the flimsy tribe from their books, ready cleaned, into the frying-pan on the kitchen stove.

In all probability the Harney county will be set off into a new county by the next legislature. Then if the western part of Grant is attached to part of Gilliam and Crook and made into a new county, there won't be much of Grant left.

They are having a great time on Soap Creek killing bears. Recently several men killed two and last Thursday another was dispatched. Several other bears have been sent and a big hunt is anticipated soon.

Sullivan, the Chinese gambler, now in Albany, says he has a gambling house in Seattle, which costs him $6,000 a year to run. During the last year he claims to have made $15,000. At present he is relieving the Albany celestials of their loose change.

In the case of the State vs. Henry Miller, in the circuit court of Benton county, the jury yesterday brought in a verdict of murder in the second degree. Miller is seventeen years of age, and was on trial for the murder of a boy named Elmer Wright, at Mill Four, Benton county, last May. He will receive his sentence on Friday at 2 o'clock.

On her trip down from Alaska, Saturday, while in the entrance of Queen Charlotte's sound, the Idaho was caught in a heavy gale and blown on a reef, and after considerable labor she was gotten off. She lost her mainmast in the storm, and was badly strained by striking on the reef. She will be repaired before the return voyage.

LOCAL SUMMARY.

F. O. G. H. O. R. N. Watts of Lafayette is in the city.

Wheat is still at 77 cents, with prospects of a further rise.

Judge L. Flinn of Albany was in attendance at Supreme court to-day. The greasy Italians and their bears are still camped within easy reach.

Albany has a tame deer which is becoming quite a pet of the town generally.

Dr. George Wright will locate in McMinnville for the practice of his profession.

James Kelly, a one legged vagrant, is serving a sentence of fifteen days in the county jail.

George S. Washburn of Eugene was to-day granted a notary public's commission by G. v. Penoyer.

To-morrow is the day upon which all songs are sung and all airs played in a common key—the turkey.

All goes well in the work of street railway construction. Large forces of men are at work grading and leveling.

All singers who wish to assist in the union services at the Baptist church to-morrow are requested to meet this evening at the Baptist church, where Prof. Parvin will conduct the drill.

There will be gospel meeting at the C. P. church on High street every afternoon at 2 p. m., and at 7:30 p. m., conducted by Kirkpatrick and Moody. Interest is increasing and the public are cordially invited.

We are waiting, with our weather open, for some news of the Astoria road. President Devlin has returned from the East and our board of trade is in daily expectation of a reply to their communication.

The Democrat says Salem papers are entitled to great credit for the manner in which they keep their readers posted about the smallpox in that county. Their manly course is in strong contrast to that taken at first by the Portland papers.

In the bids for furnishing stationery for the state of Oregon the figures were as follows: W. B. Allen, $1,123.14; T. M. Patton, $1,213.05; G. D. Barnard & Co., $1,203.50; Lowndale, Wheeler & Co., $1,123.14. The contract was awarded to the latter firm.

W. C. T. U. COLUMN.

Extracts from an address by Miss Willard at the opening of the National Temperance Hospital:

When I joined the ranks of temperance workers in 1874 a thought so adventurous as that alcohol in relation to medicine was a curse and not a blessing had never lodged within my cranium. But, as in duty bound, I studied the subject from the practical, which is the nineteenth century standpoint.

"I invested the cause of inebriety, and found the medical use of alcoholic stimulants a prominent factor in this horrible result; I sought for expert testimony, and found Dr. N. S. Davis, ex-President American Medical Association, saying 'that in his ample clinical practice he had for over thirty years tested the medical uses of alcohol, and had found no case of disease and no emergency arising from accident that he could not treat more successfully without any form of fermented or distilled liquors than with.' found Dr. James R. Nichols, of Boston, so long editor of The Journal of Chemistry, declaring as his deliberate scientific opinion that the entire banishment of these liquors 'would not deprive us of a single one of the indispensable agents which modern civilization demands,' found Dr. Green, of Boston, saying before the physicians of that city: 'It is upon the members of the medical profession and the exceptional laws which it has always demanded, that the whole liquor fraternity depends more than upon anything else to screen it from opprobrium and just punishment for the evil it entails, and that after thirty years of professional experience he felt assured that alcoholic stimulants are not required as medicines, and that many, if not a majority, of the best physicians, now believe them to be worse than useless.'"

Meanwhile I learned that across the sea such great physicians as Dr. Benjamin Ward Richardson, Sir Andrew Clark, Sir Henry Thompson, and Sir William Guil held views which for their latitude were almost equally radical; and Dr. James Edwards, founder of the London Temperance Hospital, had demonstrated publicly and on a grand scale the most excellent way, his hospital having 4 1/2 per cent. fewer deaths than any other in London, taking the same run of cases, and that the Royal Infirmary at Manchester reported the medical use of alcohol fallen off 87 per cent, in recent years, with a decrease in its death-rates of over one-third. Besides all this, and independent of any such investigation, the "intuitions" of our most earnest women leading them out of the wilderness.

May God's presence and blessing be upon each brain that plans for the National Temperance Hospital, and upon every heart that holds it dear."

Baby Gone to School.

The baby has gone to school; ah, me
What will mother do,
With never a call to button or pin,
Or tie a little shoe?
How can she keep herself busy all day
With the little "hindering thing" away?
Another basket to fill with lunch,
Another "good-bye" to say,
And the mother stands at the door to see
Her baby march away.
And turns with a sigh that is half relief,
And half a something akin to grief.
She thinks of a possible future morn,
When the children one by one,
Will go from their home out into the world,
To battle with life alone,
And not even the baby be left to cheer
The desolate home of that future year.
She picks up garments here and there,
Thrown down in careless haste;
And tries to think how it would seem
If nothing were displaced.
If the house were always as still as this,
How could she bear the loneliness?

THE QUESTION OF THE DAY.

PROTECTION OR FREE TRADE?

An Examination of the Tariff Question with Especial Regard to the Interests of Labor.

BY HENRY GEORGE.

CLOTH, $1.50. PAPER, 35 CENTS.

This is the clearest, fairest, most interesting and most complete examination of the tariff question yet made, and will prove invaluable to all who wish to understand the subject.

The most thorough investigation of the subject that has yet been put in type—New York News.

The appearance of this book marks a new epoch in the world-wide struggle for free trade. Henry George has a power of putting economic truths in such a clear and simple language that any child can understand him, while the most learned man can enjoy the accuracy of his statements and the suggestiveness of his thoughts.—Thomas G. Shearman in New York Star.

Whoever wants to see the strongest argument—not only against protection, but against all tariffs—will find it here.—Christian Union.

The singular success of Mr. George is that he has made political economy interesting.—Unitarian Review.

A book which every workman in the land can read with interest and ought to read.—New York Herald.
