Marriage for a Quarter.

A story is told about a minister's marriage fee that causes amusement among the clergy. He was paid $1 for marrying a couple. After they departed he was about to hand the money to his wife when the door bell was rung. The newly-married wife said she wanted a certificate. No marriage was good without one. It cost twenty-five cents for a blank that would suit her. The reverend gentleman filled the blank out in the usual form, and she went away seemingly satisfied.

A few days later she again appeared at the door. "Mister," said the woman, in an aggrieved tone "I looked through the papers and can't find a notice of our wedding. You ought not to treat us different from other folks." So the dominie went to a newspaper office and paid fifty cents to have a notice inserted. When he returned home he handed the remaining twenty-five cents to his wife with the remark: "Here, my dear, hurry up and take this before that woman makes another call."

Dimes and Dollars. Mrs. A. (in street car)—Oh, let me pay the fare.

Mrs. B.—No indeed; I'll pay it. Mrs. C.—Don't think of such a thing, I have plenty of tickets for all.

Mrs. D.—But it isn't right, you know, it really isn't, for you to use up those last tickets when I've got to get a new bunch. Let me pay.

Mrs. A. (in restaurant an hour later)—Well, I declare, I've forgotten my purse.

Mrs. B.—So have I mine. Isn't it strange?

Mrs. C.—I would like to pay for the lunch but really I brought so little money with me that—

Mrs. D.—Never mind, The proprietor here knows me and I'll tell him to charge it to Cousin George.

An Amusing Turkish Story.

Many a culprit has been brought to justice by faltering in his answer to a cleverly framed question. An amusing story is told illustrating this, of the Turkish Khojah, a kind of typical scamp. He was stealing turnips from a garden, and had filled a sack with them, when up rushed the owner. "What are you doing?" exclaimed the angry proprietor, "A violent gale of wind caught me up, whirled me through the air and deposited me here," said the unabashed Khojah. "Well, but how came you to be holding some of my turnips?" "Why," said Nasid-ed-din, "the wind was so very violent that it tossed me about, and, to steady myself, I grasped these in my hand." "Good again," said the owner, "but tell me now who filled the sack?" "Ah," replied the Khojah, "I was just considering how that question should be answered when you came upon me so rudely and unexpectedly."

To Mt. Hood's Summit.

The Mount Hood wagon road company are making an excellent road to the foot of the glacier on Mount Hood. The plans and specifications of the new hotel are completed and it will be a fine structure. As contemplated it will contain sixty rooms besides offices, parlors, etc., and will no doubt soon become one of the most celebrated summer resorts on the coast. With magnificent scenery, cool bracing mountain air, the very purest and coldest water, fine hunting and fishing, beautiful drives, any quantity and quality of mountain climbing it can not fail to eclipse anything of the kind on the coast.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure.

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight adulterated phosphate powders, short in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 106 WALL, N. Y.

For the Public Good.

It is an indisputable fact that the handsomest vestibule trains that are now run on the American continent are those on the Burlington route, leaving from Union depot in Denver, also St. Paul, immediately on arrival of all through trains from the west. The first and second class coaches are magnificent, the seating chairs extremely luxuriant, and as for the meals that are served in these palatial dining cars—yum yum yum. The next time you go east to Kansas City, Chicago or St. Louis, if you mention to the ticket agent that you want your ticket to read from Denver or St. Paul over the Burlington route, you will get it, and you will always be glad of it.

If you go via the Northern or Canadian Pacific, the elegant vestibule trains of the Burlington route, between St. Paul and Chicago or St. Louis, will carry you along the eastern shore of the Mississippi river for a distance of 350 miles, amidst scenery that cannot be surpassed; or, if you go via the Oregon Short Line or Southern Pacific and your ticket reads via the Burlington route from Cheyenne or Denver, you will pass through all the thriving cities and towns located in what is popularly known as the Heart of the Continent.
