Occupation for the Melancholy.

Do you know any melancholy maiden with a ready pencil who has had a "disappointment in love," and would like to indulge in an occupation suited to a lugubrious mind? If you do, ask her if she saw the following in one of the dailies recently: "A lady wanted to draw at home, original designs for coffin furniture. The unkindest cut of all is in suggesting that the work should be done at home. Such nice, cheerful drawings for a tired husband to see on the table upon his return, and enough to make a father regret that his daughter had ever learned to sketch at all.—London Figaro.

Decrease in Valuation.

SANTA BARBARA, July 21.—The assessed valuation of this city by the city assessor amounts to $5,214,580. Last year it was $5,398,944, a falling off of this year of over $180,000.

AN INCENDIARY FIRE.

Fire Bugs Getting in Their Work at Tacoma. ANOTHER BROKEN DAM IN OHIO.

Further Accounts of the West Virginia Disaster.

Another Broken Dam.

LANCASTER, O., July 20.—One of the most disastrous storms ever known in the Hocking valley culminated yesterday in the breaking of Sharp's dam at Sugar Grove, on the Hocking canal. The dam held in store a large body of water that supplied the lower levels of the canal. Heavy rains had filled the reservoir to its banks, when suddenly the dam gave away, and the water went out through the valley, taking with it every movable object. For twenty miles the soil is plowed up. Trees, fences, crops and hundreds of head of live stock were swept away. No lives were lost because the houses are situated on a bluff that overlooks the valley. But the canal for miles is a wreck, and thousands of feet of railroad track is washed away.

Another Fire.

TACOMA, Wash., July 22.—Fire at 1:30 this morning in Dougan & Brigham's carpenter shop, on the west side of Railroad street, between Ninth and Eleventh streets and was undoubtedly of incendiary origin. Four buildings, extending from Railroad to C street were totally destroyed, but fortunately no wind was blowing, and the fire was confined to the four buildings. One of these is a boarding house, and the others were stores and carpenter shops. It is impossible to learn the loss and insurance at present, but probably $10,000 will cover it. Had there been any breeze the best business blocks in the city, and the court house would probably have gone. Great excitement prevailed until the flames were got under control.

The West Virginia Flood.

WHEELING, W. Va., July 21.—An Intelligencer special from the flooded district to-night says: It is feared that the death list will be much increased when points cut off from the outside world are heard from. A later dispatch says that the village of Morristown, in Wirt county, was swept entirely away. Great suffering exists among those who lost all they possessed. The county commissioners will issue an appeal for aid. The cloudburst occurred on Limestone mountain, where the five creeks have a common source. The damage to the crops was enormous, and the farmers will be dependent upon charity until the next season.

A Tripple Tragedy.

CLEVELAND, O., July 22.—A man by the name of Hoadley killed his wife while she was visiting at the residence of her father. When she came out to go to the barnyard he seized her hand and held her while he fired three bullets into her breast, leaving her for dead. Her father hurried out, or hearing the shots, and was fired at by Hoadley and killed. The miscreant then fired on his mother-in-law, and then at his wife's youngest sister and, but for the timely aid which arrived, would doubtless have killed them too. He then returned to where his wife lay, and finding her still alive, emptied two more chambers of his revolver into her head, and then shot himself, inflicting a fatal wound from which he died soon after.

THE VERDICT UNANIMOUS.

W. D. SULT, Druggist, Bippus, Ind., testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case. One man took six bottles, and was cured of rheumatism of 10 years' standing." Abraham Hare, druggist, Belleville, Ohio, affirms: "The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my 20 years' experience, is Electric Bitters." Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters do cure all diseases of the Liver, Kidneys or Blood. Only a half dollar a bottle at Daniel J. Fry's drugstore.

SARIT WINS.

We desire to say to our citizens that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Aches and Pains and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. Sold by Daniel J. Fry, druggist.
