

THE CAPITAL JOURNAL.

CLYMER ITEMS.

Miss Carrie Smith, of Salem, is spending the week with her sister Mrs. C. R. Houghton.

Miss Matilda Hunt has gone to Salem to attend the winter term of school at the academy of the Sacred Heart.

John McCrow has just completed a large stock barn, and intends feeding about fifty head of beef cattle for the supply of his Salem meat market.

Clarence Simeral has been doing a good business this fall, with his engine, sawing wood and chopping grain for this vicinity and Silverton.

Miss Jennie Griffith entertained a number of her young friends at dinner last Monday, in honor of her 24th birthday anniversary.

J. B. Patton is slowly recovering from what threatened to be paralysis caused from lifting bridge timbers. It is now thought he is out of danger if he will only exercise prudence until recovery is complete.

Our school directors either from negligence of duty or scarcity of applicants have failed so far this season to supply our school with a teacher, which state of affairs is very unfortunate for the bright little boys and girls whose school days are passing.

Miss Mary Jones, Maggie McGrow and Henry Clymer have each recovered from a serious attack of typhoid fever. Dr. Davis, of Silverton, had charge of all these cases and no one could have been more successful. Henry Clymer has so far recovered as to be able to resume his studies at the Willamette medical college of Portland.

Laughter as a Health Promoter. In his "Problem of Health," Dr. Greene says that there is not the remotest corner or little inlet of the minute blood vessels of the human body that does not feel some wavelet from the convulsions occasioned by good hearty laughter. The life principle of the central man is shaken to its innermost depths, sending new tides of life and strength to the surface, thus materially tending to insure good health to the persons who indulge therein. The blood moves more rapidly and conveys a different impression to all the organs of the body, as it visits them on that particular mystic journey when the man is laughing from what it does at other times. For this reason every good hearty laugh in which a person indulges tends to lengthen his life, conveying, as it does, new and distinct stimulus to the vital forces.—London Standard.

SALEM!

INTERESTING FACTS ABOUT

Oregon's Most Lively City!

As we send this paper by thousands over the whole length and breadth of the land, many people who know Salem by its reputation will be pleased with a little history of its various attractions.

The citizens of Salem are a very proud people—proud of the beauty and fame of their city. With 15,000 population, possessing large wealth, we enjoy all the modern advancements of our sister cities like Portland, Seattle and Tacoma and San Francisco. Streets are lighted by electricity and traveled by horse cars. The most magnificent public water works supply pure water from the Willamette in plenty and most adequate fire protection. We have the district telegraph messenger service, letter carriers, two telegraph offices and two express companies.

Fine structures abound throughout the city. The school buildings are numerous and large and the high school is as grand a pile as is often seen. The famous Cheemete hotel, built as a matter of pride by Salem's wealthy capitalists, leads all on the Pacific coast as a fine hotel. The state has located here extensive and imposing buildings, the State House, State Penitentiary, State Insane Asylum, State Blind School, State Deaf and Dumb male school and the United States Indian Training School. Elegant private residences are common but of yet greater interest than these are the miles and miles of pleasant homes of our thrifty mechanics; therein lies the surety of our future.

All denominations have prosperous churches and fine houses of worship. The Women's Christian Temperance Association is firmly established and intends building a magnificent business block and is prospering. It has a fine library and reading room for public use.

We have two daily newspapers. THE CAPITAL JOURNAL is the less aged but a sprightly sheet which springs at once into the full flood tide of success. Any new enterprise coming to Salem will find able supporters, if they are worthy of it, in the public spirited editors of our newspapers.

The Reed's Opera House is a large and excellent one. There are numerous summer resorts, several fine parks, an excellent trotting course, bicycle clubs, social clubs, etc.

This is one of those clean, pure Western cities where almost no malaria now exists. Our death rate is way down in the bottom figures and we have no epidemics.

Our natural scenery is Swiss-like. Mountains almost entirely surround us rendering drives outside the city very beautiful. Rivers and trout streams wood-lands, abound in every direction. City is practically free from debt and taxes are moderate. Our laboring classes never have resorted to strikes, boycotts or anarchism as wages are good, work plenty and want almost unknown. We have all the secret orders in this city that is possessed by any other city of twice its population, and all in a flourishing condition.

COME WITH US AND WE WILL DO YOU GOOD. Salem is a good place to live in and it is a good place to do business in. Any new branch of trade will prosper here for facilities are ample and competent help plenty. We have all the motive powers—water, steam, gas and electric. Real estate may be had for factory sites at reasonable prices. People may live here with great economy, or in luxury. Our banking facilities are unsurpassed. We have a fine outlying district of farm lands. Old residents remain, there are almost no departures, and new ones are fast coming among us.

WHY NOT INVESTIGATE SALEM? If you would learn more of the resources of Salem and surrounding country send for the CAPITAL JOURNAL, the best paper on the Pacific coast to-day for the money. It is reliable and stands on its own footing. Address the CAPITAL JOURNAL, Salem, Oregon. J. L. MITCHELL, Manager.
