SOCIAL EVENTS.

Through the City's Social Realm—Items from Neighboring Towns.

REV. GWYNNE'S RECEPTION.

Tuesday night one of the most pleasant socials in the history of the Presbyterian church was given. The church and auto-room were well filled. A fine opportunity was given for the congregation to become acquainted with their new pastor and each other.

A PLEASANT DANCE.

There was a very pleasant dance given last night at the A. O. U. W. hall with A. J. Basy as manager and music by Prof. Coomer, Diamond and Miss Pearl Scott. The following are those who took part in the evening's pleasure.

THE UNITY CLUB.

Met Tuesday evening at the residence of Mr. Wm. England, on Liberty Street. A number of invited guests were present. After the reading and discussion of essays upon LaFayette and Charlotte Corday the company were entertained with music and singing.

HOME MINSTRELS.

The Second Regiment band is making arrangements to give a minstrel entertainment at the opera house New Year's night. The band will make extensive preparation and the performance will be first class in every respect.

SERENADE—SURPRISE PARTY.

A surprise party was given Miss Alice Steiner, at the residence of her father, on 12th street, Thursday evening. While the little party inside were in the midst of their evening's pleasure, sweet strains of music pealed forth from the front yard.

CONGREGATIONAL FAIR.

The church fair, or in other words called the Kirness, which was given by the Ladies' society of the Congregational church last night was largely attended and was a very pleasant affair to those witnessing it.

not have been otherwise. The forty young people who belong to the club carry their part of the city's amusement with them in all their meetings.

SEVENTY-THREE.

E. S. Warner, of The Enterprise, probably bears the proud distinction of being the oldest active compositor in the state of Oregon. For sixty-one years this venerable old veteran has eked out an honest subsistence with the stick and rule, and even in this, the closing quarter of his seventy-third year on earth, he continues in the profession to which he has adhered since youthhood, with an activity, an alacrity and a zeal that would do credit to one of half his age.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

On Tuesday evening of this week Miss Myrtle Henderson celebrated her sixteenth birthday, by inviting a number of young friends to a pleasant party at her home. It is unnecessary to state that the invitation was responded to, and that the guests were royally entertained by the young hostess.

SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT.

The Canby school under the management of S. A. D. Gurley will give an entertainment Saturday eve, Dec. 20, 1890. The exercises will consist of addresses, dialogues, select readings, declamations, vocal and instrumental music, etc.

JUSTICE FIELD'S DECISION.

Justice Field recently rendered the decision of the United States supreme court as follows: "There is no inherent right of the citizen to sell intoxicating liquors by retail; it is not a privilege of a citizen, of the United States."

GOOD TEMPLARS.

Union lodge of Good Templars gave a supper and literary entertainment in their hall last Wednesday evening. Capital lodge was invited and a number of the members from that lodge were present.

ANNIVERSARY MEETING.

Next Sunday night at the Presbyterian church occurs the annual anniversary of the organization of the Christian Endeavor society. Dr. Gwynne will preach a Christian Endeavor sermon. Special singing to be rendered. The secretary's report will be read and an address by the president given. Young people will be especially welcome.

HOME PARTY.

A few young people met at the home of Miss Allie Chandler, on Cottage street, last Wednesday evening and spent a few hours very pleasantly in games and other amusements. Among those present were Miss Chandler, Miss Combs, Miss Shafer, Miss Minnie Smith, Misses Mary and Alice Steiner, Messrs W. A. Guin, D. Steiner, F. A. Legg and Mr. Cooley.

GRAND MASQUERADE BALL.

There will be given by the Gervais Public Hall association, a grand ball, at their new hall in that city, New Year's eve, December 31st, for the benefit of the piano fund. Music will be furnished by Diamond's orchestra, of Salem.

The Word Enriched.

The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited, and when Syrup of Figs was first produced the world was enriched with the only remedy laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system gently in the Spring-time or, in fact, at any time, and the better it is known the more popular it becomes.

A nice Christmas present that is a constant reminder of the giver is a comfortable rocking chair. Keller and Marsh have 150 patterns of rocking chairs in stock. Picture framing is a specialty with them.

Select your holiday presents early and so get the cream of the display. Get something useful and sensible, you can find something suitable for lady or gentleman, at the old White Corner.

LUMBER.—Contractors and parties contemplating building, should call to call on J. F. Jacobson for estimates on rough and dressed lumber. Yard and office near agricultural works. 9-25-o-d-1f.

CITY AND OTHER NOTES.

Worthy of Attention to the Readers of Saturday's Journal.

The Monmouth Democrat announces that one of their citizens "has just finished a barn for himself." The average reader is left in painful suspense and doubt as to what kind of a "horse" that citizen is.

Johnson, Boothby & Co., the leading clothiers are well prepared to supply all your wants in the clothing line. They will be glad to show you over their store and let you look over their stock. No necessity that you should buy unless you are well satisfied.

The verdict pronounced on a fashionable party was "well dressed from head to foot." Klein was responsible for the truth of the latter claim.

The fact that Patton's State Street book store is generally well filled with sight seers, is sufficient evidence that he has something there worth looking at.

There have been some elegant residences erected this year. Though they have very handsome exteriors, the interiors are in keeping with them. This is only explainable when we learn that those handsome curtains and carpets come from Lunn's dry goods store.

Brooks & Cox, the reliable druggists, on State street, are still keeping in stock a choice line of perfumes of the most celebrated makes.

"Never do to-day what you can put off till to-morrow." The old proverb is not applicable to getting a pair of good shoes at Denham's. Don't put off going around and getting a pair.

Keep your eye on Geo. F. Smith's ad.

Shakespeare makes Macbeth say: "I'll make assurance double sure, and take a bond of fate." That is what folks do who get their goods of Buren if they want good goods at reasonable rates.

Some of our exchanges keep springing puzzles on their readers, such as the adding of an uneven column of figures to make 21, and many other puzzles, but the greatest puzzle is the P. E. S. (an spring on its readers is about as this: How can an editor evade we ring lig patches on his pantaloons if delinquent subscribers pay not their bills? Send in your solution.—Athens Press.

Holiday Slippers.—Don't buy old style slippers, get something new. No old style carried over from last year. We have the finest in velvet or p.u.h. patent leather, trimmed to be found in the city at prices that are Eastern. James Denham & Co., boots and shoes, 118 State street. 12-13 if

"Can art equal nature?" is a question old as the hills. How nearly it may be accomplished may be seen at Catterlin's art gallery. He will make cabinet photos for $2 per dozen.

On Tuesday as Mrs. R. Bemrose was putting down a carpet near a hot stove, her clothing caught on fire from the stove. Her son Bruce, heard her give the alarm, and came to her assistance. He pulled off his coat and threw it around her and smothered the flames. But for his prompt action, she would undoubtedly have been burned to death. As it was his left hand badly burned.—Clackamas News.

The cost in human life of the wars of the world during the last 35 years, exclusive of mortality from sickness, is estimated at 2,254,000.

Queen Victoria's crown kept with other royal regalia under strong guard, and worn only on state occasions, is worth $600,000.

What rapid strides the Bible is making in accessibility to mankind is proven by the fact that it is now accessible in their own language to a tenth of the world; early in this century to only one-fifth.

You will find Davidson & White have a full line of deep sea fish, large Eastern oysters, both in the shell and can, fat turkeys, geese, ducks and chickens. They also have a fine line of smoked salmon. Fresh butter and eggs a specialty.

Don't fail to attend the cantata to-night and hear the juvenile chorus of forty-four voices.

The grandma with the old-fashioned spinning wheel, by Miss Scriber, will please the children and recall boyhood memories to the old.

De Leon keeps his shop in the best and cleanest condition, so if you want comfort while getting shaved, don't fail to call at his shop on State street.

G. W. Johnson & Son declines to be interviewed, but wants it distinctly understood that they are still on deck with the best line of clothing and furnishing goods.

John Knight, the scientific horse shoer, can be relied upon for careful attention to horses entrusted to his care. He fully understands the nature of a horse's foot and works accordingly.

Go to Montee Bro.'s for holiday photos, Postoffice block.

The Woolen Mill store is continuing to supply the Salem made woollens to all corners. They have suits made up of all their leading patterns and also make to order from their samples. If you want a suit that will stay by you call and see them.

Closing Out Sale. J. W. Crawford is closing out his stove and tinware, preferring to sell these portions of his stock at great reductions to again moving them. d-&w-1f

Ladies, now is your time to get a fine French kid hand-sewed shoe very cheap as we will sell them at low rates in order to introduce them. Never before have you bought these shoes so low as we offer them. At Ben Forstner's Earners' store. 1211 St

"FIDDLEDY MYNKS."—The new society game at Brooks & Harritt's.

Who suffer with the Remedy at Hand. Gentlemen: I have been a great sufferer from sciatic rheumatism for five years. A portion of the time confined to my bed. Having been treated by the best physicians without relief, I am now taking the second bottle of Dr. Ross's Rheumatic Symp. It acts upon the liver and regulates the kidneys and digestive organs immediately, and has done me more good already than all the other medicines I have taken. I cheerfully recommend this medicine. Mrs. Altha Herrington, wife, Mich. Sold by Smith & Steiner

Excitement runs high in this city over System Builder, as everybody is using it for catarrh of the Stomach, Consumption—Dyspepsia, impure blood and to build up the System—it certainly must be an excellent preparation, when everybody speaks so well of it. d&w

A SURE CURE FOR PILES. Itching Piles are known by moisture (the perspiration, causing intense itching when warm. This form as well as Hemorrhoids treated by the best physicians without relief. I am now taking the fourth bottle of Dr. Ross's Pile Remedy, which acts directly on the parts affected, absorbs the mucus, dries itching and effects a permanent cure. At cents. Duggist or Mail Order. Free. Dr. Ross's, Philadelphia. Sold by Smith & Steiner.

DIED.

LESLIE.—In Salem, Oregon, Saturday morning at 7 o'clock, Dec. 13, 1890, Miss Helen Leslie.

The deceased was a daughter of Rev. David Leslie, and was born at the old Methodist mission a few miles below this city, in 1838. Rev. Mr. Leslie, the father of the deceased, came to Oregon in 1837, and took up his residence where the mission was then located and where Miss Leslie was born the following year. In 1847 they came to Salem, where Father Leslie was one of the prime movers in the founding of the Willamette university. His wife and the mother of the deceased, died in 1841, leaving six small children. In 1844 he was married again to Mrs. A. Hudley, and by her he had two children, both of whom have been dead several years. One of the children is buried in the East; one in tropical lands; two daughters and one son were carried over the Willamette Falls in a dreadful accident and were drowned. The second wife died in Salem, on the 14th of last April. Miss Leslie was the last member of this noted pioneer family.

The deceased had been a life-long member of the M. E. church, and thoroughly devoted to Christian work. She had been in poor health for a long time.

The funeral service will be held to-morrow, in the M. E. church, at 2:30 p. m., and the remains will be laid in the family lot, by the side of her father in the I. O. O. F. Rural cemetery.
