VATOLDIA INCORPORATED.—Articles were filed yesterday with the secretary of state incorporating the "Vatoldia" of Salem, H. P. McNary, Frank Hughes, A. E. Crosby, Henry W. Myers, Frank A. Welch and Frank R. Cross were the incorporators, and the capital stock is $1000. The boys already have a well equipped hall and appliances for physical culture. They will soon add bath rooms and a library. It is their intention to make it an association where the mental culture can be accomplished. Due care is taken as to who are admitted as members, lest the moral tone on which it is planned should be lost. They intend to make the "Vatoldia" an attractive place where young men can profitably spend their evenings. Their efforts are receiving the hearty support of the business men in general.

OTIDE MUSIN COMING.—The readers of the JOURNAL will be glad to learn that Otide Musin, who is recognized as the world's greatest violinist, will be in Salem three weeks from next Friday night, which will be April 21st. The New York Tribune in a recent notice said: "Unlike other foreign artists who come to this country, Musin has the wisdom of surrounding himself with a first class company, and is happy when his company receive some of the glory he receives each night, hence his great success, both financially and artistically, in this country. On his last California tour he played fifteen nights at an average of $1300 per night, the largest receipts ever made by any virtuoso in America."

MORE OF THE COMBINE.—When the steamer Northwest reached this city last night a telegram was awaiting her giving instructions not to contract for any more freight, but to clear up her work as she goes down preparatory to go on the Columbia river route. This same order will keep the Toledo off the Willamette, the belonging to the same company. The boats belong to the Columbia river combine, and in order to keep their place in the combination, they will employ the orders of it and bring all their boats to the Columbia to drive the competition boats off the river. The Maunzillo going below will leave the upper Willamette practically without any competition. The Oregon Pacific will have the only boats on the river.

ALKA TONIGHT.—The Alka-Hesperian society will have a grand debate in their hall in the insurance building. The question is: Resolved, That when the courts fall in the administration of justice, the people are warranted in taking the execution of the law into their own hands. Such speakers as Hon. Tilton Ford, Rev. Robt. Whitaker, W. M. Kaiser, and A. O. Condit are among the speakers for the discussion. This subject was taken up by a number of comments and opinions of the recent New Orleans trouble. Every one is invited to come up and hear the debate.

DIAMOND EDGE.—Dr. Leon & Jolly have the finest lot of diamond edge tools of any barber shop in Salem, and they know how to handle them, too.

ARBOR DAY IN SALEM.

A Very Credited Program Rendered at the East Salem School.

Friday afternoon was observed in the Salem public schools as arbor day. Each of the twelve rooms in the two departments planted a tree, and in addition to these the graduating class also planted a class tree.

The program was opened by the exercise from the primary department. The pupils from each of the six rooms planted the tree which, with one exception bore the name of some prominent person. The name chosen by the scholars of Miss Victor's room, "Louisa May Alcott"; Miss Brehnan's, "Gen. Wm. T. Sherman"; Miss Northrup's, "Oliver Wendell Holmes"; Miss McNary's, "Wm. Cullen Bryant"; Miss Melten's, "Geo. Washington"; Miss Cooper's, "Pansy." This part of the program closed by a song, entitled, "The Lovely Trees."

The grammar department opened their part of the program with a festival song. This was followed by the naming and planting of the trees. The scholars from Miss Van Wagner's room selected as the name for their tree, "Lanchoe Triste" (the sad night); Miss Peebles', Thomas Jefferson; Mr. Whipples', Gen. Custer's; Prof. Anderson's, Col. E. D. Baker; Miss Reynolds', President Lincoln; Miss Allyn's, Gen. Grant. The class then sang the "Star Spangled Banner."

Rev. Gwynne gave a short address to the school and visitors at the close of the tree planting.

Pure air, pure water and pure coffee are what men and women need. These bestow health and happiness on all who have them. Pure air comes from above, pure water from below, and pure coffee from the Great Eastern Tea Co.

A SUCCESSFUL SHOW.

Streets of Salem Crowded With Cheerful Farmers.

DISPLAY OF BLOODED ANIMALS.

An Air of Prosperity Visible on Every Hand—Both Local and Imported Stock.

The observer who was on the streets of Salem today must have wondered from where all the people came who were pushing their way along the crowded sidewalks. The clerks in the stores have had all they could do all day. The streets have been almost jammed with vehicles, horses and passengers. Signs of general prosperity are seen by the cheerfulness displayed on every hand, and a strong healthful condition in this part of the valley.

The horses were in a much better condition than they were at the show a year ago. The time being set two weeks later had a good effect both in the condition of the horses and in the attendance. Some of the horses which were left on the farms last year were seen in the parade today. Yet a week later would doubtless be a better time for the show. The condition of the streets has been a great disadvantage to the display today. Among the horses in the city today are some with a reputation as will be seen by the notices given in the comments. Besides some imported horses there were others bred in the east. Some from California and from all over the valley. In all it was the best display of horse flesh ever held in the Capital of Oregon.

The procession for the parade formed on Commercial street under the leadership of E. C. Cross, as marshal. The JOURNAL will give a very complete account of the parade when did not take place until 2 o'clock this afternoon. A short description of a number of the best horses seen in the parade.

"Vivian," owned by Whitney, Hall & Co., Woodburn, a thorough bred French norman 6 years old, weighs 1800 lbs., 16 1/2 hands high; a fine form and an excellent traveler. A slick black with white hind feet, will make the stand at Salem.

"Halcyon" owned by A. C. Coulter, Yan, hill county. Sire "Old Ham," dam Waterloo, weighs 1200 lbs., is a bright chestnut and is a full blood hamiltonian, and was foaled in 1882, was bred by Iadd & Reed, of Portland. His style of traveling and form are blameless.

"Johnnie Hall," a runner, owned by Chas. Stewart, Clackamas county, foaled 1880 in California, bred by D. R. Wells, sire Woodbury; dam Lucy Dunn, by Rifleman who was sired by imported Glencoe. Made a mile dash in McMinnville in 1:47, and in Butte, Mont., lowered it to 1:40. Will make the season at Independence and Derry.

"Pointman Again" and "Sir Stafford," both well known in Salem where they have been for several years. The first will make the season in Salem, and Sir Stafford in Independence.

"Young Marquis," foaled April 25th, 1884; by Old Marquis, full blooded Clyde, imported by S. G. Reed; dam a Lionheart mare, sired by Old Emigrant. Young Marquis is dark chestnut sorrel, 16 1/2 hands high, weighs 1650 pounds, and has a long, flowing flaxen mane and tail. Owned by J. A. Tanner, C. N. Tanner, proprietor. Will stand at Salem.

"Deo" and "Obel," owned by A. Nichols and Huston Bros., are black French coaches. Deo is one of the largest horses on the ground, and is well known in the valley. They will both make the season in Salem and Albany, being in Salem Friday and Saturday of each week.

Obel is a beautiful black, 16 1/2 hands high, and weighs 1600 pounds. He is a wonderfully well built horse, having a smooth, well-turned body; clean, comely legs, sound feet, and over all a handsome head and neck. In him one beholds a combination of the qualities that have made the French coaches famous the world over, for beauty, strength, grace and spirit. He is a sure foot-gracer, and always transmits his good qualities.

"Sanquhar Yet No. 2318"—owned by Hayes & Vercler, bay; foaled March 1882; bred by Thomas Kerr, Whitehill, Sanquhar, Scotland; imported by Galbraith Bros., Janesville, Wis.; sire Lord Nithsdale; dam Kate by Lochend Champion.

Sportbro Bang Up 1891.—Owned by Hayes & Vercler, bay; foaled 1883; bred by Mr. Curtis, Beck Row, Mildenhall, England; imported 1889; weight 1900 lbs.; sire King of the Country; dam by Honest Tom.

Willie Winkle, 2905. Owned by Hayes & Vercler; bay; stripe on face; black legs; foaled 1884; bred by H. E. Crum, Ewing, Kippoch, Heleaburgh, Scotland; imported 1888; weight 1800 lbs.; sire Newman; dam Maggie by New Times; grand dam Start by Surprise, great grand dam Susan.

The breed of horses was of the widest range of any show ever given in Oregon. Among them were seen French Normans, English Clydes, French Shires, Scotch Clydes, Percherons, Altamonts, Hamiltontians, Canadian Normans, California thoroughbred runners and grade breeds of all kinds.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Sheriff E. M. Croisan went down to Gervais today to make the sale of the property of McKinley Mitchell. The sheriff collected $5,000 yesterday of Marion county's taxes. Work is still progressing on the delinquent list.

Owing in part to the horse show, the attendance at the lecture at the opera house this afternoon, was small. Mr. Cobb gave a very practical address.

Bone dust for your lawn—for sale by Sroat & Gile.

A young couple, who came into the city today to take in the sights were so absorbed that when the driver on the electric car repeatedly rang the bell for the fares, they only "nudged" a little closer together and she was heard to say: "It is a dull day in Salem today." Yet the streets were crowded with people.

Wonderful Results. Results often follow the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla. Severe cases of scrofula, upon which other preparations have been powerless, yield to the peculiar curative powers of this medicine. Distressing cases of dyspepsia, excruciating complaints of the kidneys and liver, agonizing itches and pains of salt rheuma, disagreeable catarrhs, and aches and pains of rheumatism, are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. It purifies the blood, and at the same time tones the stomach, creates an appetite, and gives strength to every function of the body. Give it a trial.

General Debility. For four years my wife suffered with large tumor bunches on the glands under the arms, and general debility of the whole system. She became so poor in health that we were on the verge of despair regarding her recovery. Physicians did not seem to derive any benefit from their treatment. She finally concluded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. The immediate effect was so marked and satisfactory that she continued to take it, and this is the result: She has gained in weight.

From 34 to 111 Pounds. It is a pleasure and in better health than she has been for years. The bunches under her arms have disappeared, and we believe Hood's Sarsaparilla will be too good for them in time. J. J. Nicholson, 220 Commercial Street, Boston, Mass.
