SCHOOL ELECTION -THE JOUR-NAL bas a number of communications on the school clerk election Monday, but does not publish them for the very simple reason that Friady Afternoon Proceedingsthere is nothing to discuss. There are three candidates, but no politics is involved. Republicans cannot afford to make this a party fight, eyen if they could win it as such. It is not understood that there is a the Republican city committee did for their own convenience, but not as a political act. This is the spirit in which the citizens generally take it, and they are men as a rule who prize both the schools and their political associations very highly.

JOINT DEBATE.-This Saturday evening at Alka-Hesperian hall will occur a big joint debate between Republican and Democratic speakers, three on each side, the best obtainable. Wm. Kaiser, Judge Walton, Judge Bonham, and other members of the debating society will uphold the Democratic cause, while Tilman Ford, Geo. Burnett, and Mr. Fitzgerald will take the Republican side. It will be a free debate and will draw a big crowd at Insurance meeting of the year, as the the present condition of the road as the guest of her sister, Mrs. Judge it is apparent that the farmers in su'ject is "Resolved that the Republican administration be contiqued in power."

cap. THE JOURNAL has treated these persons on y as they deserve- hibit. as wolves and plunderers of innocent people in the name of a good cause that they are rapidly sinking into oblivion via the St. John route. While they refer to both parties, here as elsewhere their main attack and their burlesque songs are all in abuse of Republicans, President Harrison, Vice President Morton, John Wanamaker, the senate and egislatures of the different states.

People are to stand all this from an itinerant newspaper vender. who is here today and there tomorrow for revenue only. A smart lawyer on a public platform can do these things and amuse the crowd. These persons are in no wise responsible to the temperance people of Salem, or of their own states, and whether they do good or harm is of fittle consequence to them, so they get their $7.50 a night, and plenty of dupes for their papers and sing
