GOOD LUCK SOCIAL.

The sodable given at the Unitarian church last evening had been advertised as something new and attractive. "Think for yourselves," is one of the precepts taught these young people. They are stimulated to originate and execute their plans under the chaperonage of their elders, and every one was surprised and delighted to see how well they had profited by this teaching in carrying out their idea of a "Good Luck" sodable. The decorations of silver horse shoes, the bright colored ones for souvenirs, the arrangement of the chairs, and the beautiful horseshoe drill proved that for originality and ability to execute, the young people of this church cannot be surpassed. The various talent of the little folks made a most bright and attractive feature of the program. The drill which can only be given by its originators, will, at the earnest solicitation of the audience, be repeated at an early day.

ORATORIAL CONTEST.

A Demorest silver medal oratorical contest will be held at the M. E. church in South Salem under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. about April 10th. This is one of the features of temperance work among children and has become quite general throughout the United States. The class consists of Alice O'Donald, Clara O'Fling, Gracie Davis, Charles Lennon, Lizzie Swartz, Katie O'Fling, George O'Fling, Etta Williamson, Clyde Mason and others. The Independent Order of Good Templars will follow shortly with another class. R. R. Ryan is superintending the work of both classes.

A. O. U. W. AUXILIARY.

An auxiliary society of the A. O. U. W. was organized Wednesday evening with the following officers: Mrs. Richard Holman, president; Mrs. N. J. Lottritz, secretary; Mrs. Crossan, lady of honor; Mrs. E. M. Crossan, past lady of honor; Mrs. H. B. Holland, chaplain; Mrs. Hutton, outside guard. The grand recorder is expected to arrive here next Monday, when the lodge will be instituted. All the ladies are requested to meet Newton Clark, the grand recorder and organizer, at Valley lodge, A. O. U. W., 208 Commercial street, Monday, April 3d, 1893, at 7:30 p. m. sharp! N. J. Lottritz, recorder.

CHARITY CONCERT.

The ladies who conducted the benefit concert at the Congregational church on Tuesday evening produced a really excellent program but owing to small attendance they obtained only $9.00. They wish to thank Mr. White for generously contributing the use of a piano. The ladies deserve great credit for their effort to assist Mrs. Merrill of South Salem and we feel sure she appreciates it.

K. P. LODGE AT AURORA.

On Wednesday evening, March 29th, Hermes lodge No. 56, K. P. of P. was instituted here by D. D. G. C. G. F. McCounell, G. C. R. S., assisted by C. C. Steve McFadden, V. C. W. E. Finzer, P. M. F. G. W. Whitney, M. of F. J. B. Woodburn, M. of A. Thos. James, I. G. Geo. Will, O. G. J. A. Dickey. The work was particularly interesting and the beautiful repast served by Jacob Gresh added one more laurel to his wreath of honor as a caterer.

LABOR SOCIAL.

The social entertainment given at the I. O. G. T. hall Tuesday night by the Salem Federate Labor union was well attended and proved very interesting and enjoyable. Capt. John O'Brien and others delivered addresses. Another social will be given two weeks hence.

GOLDEN WEDDING.

A few friends met at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Morris near Turner and gave them a happy surprise on 50th anniversary of their wedding, March 29th, 1893. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. W. Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Rodgers, Mr. and Mrs. Dake, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Hilliary, Mrs. Husk, Mrs. Kirkpatrick, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. O. I. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. McPherson, Mrs. John Neal, Miss Sadie Rodgers, Miss Anna McKinney, Mr. Charles Morris, and Mrs. Staples. A number of grand children and great grand children were present. Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Cornelius sent regrets and said they were celebrating the advent of their first grand child. Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Parker of Moscow Idaho, sent regrets and a fine birthday cake, ornamented in the highest style of culinary art, and inscribed with "Golden Wedding" and dated 1843-1893. After the contents of the boxes and baskets of the visitors had been placed upon the table, it fairly groaned beneath the load of good things. Bro. I. M. Wagner was installed as master of ceremonies and after pledging Uncle Jimmy to keep plenty of stove wood, milk the cows and curl the ducks' tails and that Aunt Cats should keep the buttons all in their places and Uncle's toes from the cold—they were joined for life and led the way to the dinner table. James M. Morris and Catalina Cornelius were joined in bonds of holy matrimony at the residence of the bride's parents, near Burlington Iowa, March 29, 1843. They crossed the plains with an ox team in 1845 and arriving at the Dalles where "Rolled the Oregon and heard no sound save its own dashing," in advance of steamboats and cars, they and their traveling companions fell to work with axes and whipsaw and from the pine trees constructed a boat that carried them to the Willamette to Oregon City. At the upper Cascades their boat was unloaded and turned loose to run the rapids and on being secured at the lower Cascades, was found but little injured. Owing to the Indian outbreak when Dr. Whitman was killed in 1847, Uncle Jimmy shouldered his trusty rifle and furnished his own horse, joined the volunteers and marched to the frontier and assisted in downing the "reds" also did the same in 1856 and Uncle Sam is still owing him for that service. They crossed the plains in same company with Rev. Ezra Fisher, Rev. Johnson father of Hon. Cary Johnson Absalom Cornelius, Joseph Moist, A. Hackleman and scores of others whose names I cannot recall.

W. R. C. SOCIAL.

The Sedgwick Post Relief Corps conducted a successful social Monday evening and all who attended report a delightful time.

OUR WOOLEN MILL PEOPLE—Lead out this season again as manufacturers and dealers in Oregon clothing, being cloth makers and clothing manufacturers and selling their own goods, take great pleasure in calling attention to their large assortment of men's spring suits in all styles, round cut and square cut, sacks, cutaway frocks and long frocks, boys double and single breasted suits with long and short pants, boy's jersey suits with extra pair of pants. These goods are all wool, made here in our city and sold at prices that are lower than ever before, and do not forget that when you buy one of these suits you are furnishing our home people something to do besides keeping your money in circulation at home. Special attention is called to that pair of premium blankets now on exhibition in our window to be given away May 15th. Every purchase of $2.50 worth of goods gives the purchaser a ticket. All orders by mail will have the same show as though purchasing in person.

THAT RATE.—The Oregon Pacific is evidently getting "tired" of the cut on rates already, for the indications are that they are looking for a hole to crawl out of. The Etwood has maintained its two-thirds rate and is getting more business than ever, which of itself is evidence that its rate is the best, as well as its service and treatment of patrons.

OUR SUPPLEMENT.—We present our readers with an Easter page to commemorate the holy season. The second number of the breeders and sportsman's supplement will prove interesting to all lovers of field sports and of that noblest of quadrupeds, a good horse. The advertising space is so much sought after, it was all taken in advance.

TAXES.—Sheriff Knight collected about twelve thousand dollars taxes yesterday, being the last day legally before penalty goes on. The county commissioner's court meets next Wednesday, and they alone can extend the time for payment of taxes.

A MOVE FOR PURE FOOD. What is Being Done in Salem to Keep out Adulterated Goods.

During the past few months it has become known to the trade that M. T. Rineman the "Fruit Palace" grocer of State street has put upon the market private brands of many standard articles in his line. The question naturally suggests itself to the mind of the consumer, "Why does he do this?" In order to solve this problem the writer approached that wide-awake merchant recently with the query: "Mr. Rineman, why do you put up your own brands of coffee, tea, spices, etc.? It must add an increased expense to the various goods to do this, and we cannot understand the advantage unless it is simply to advertise your business."

"Well," responded Mr. R., looking up from his books, "there are several reasons why we do this, and I will try to explain some of them for the benefit of my many customers. First and most important among my reasons is this: Every housekeeper has some particular article which she likes to use only in its purest form, and in these days of adulterations, it is difficult to get a thing twice alike in the general market. To meet the wants of such I have established the "Fruit Palace" and "M. T. R." brands. I have them put up under my own direction, and know just what they contain."

"What are the peculiarities of some of your so-called pure goods?" "For instance, there is my "Fruit Palace" brand of coffee, I know it always contains a relative percentage of the very best Mandolina Java and Arabian Mocha. It is always browned just the same, put up in full weight, air tight cans, and is always fresh. Many of my best patrons already insist upon having no other coffee, and declare it the most delicious flavor they have ever used."

"My 'M. T. R.' spices are put up on the same plan, and are rapidly growing in favor. I admit it has cost not a little trouble to get just what I know will always give genuine satisfaction, but in offering my patrons this brand of goods I know they will be satisfied with every purchase."

"The M. T. R. ginger is a blend of the best obtainable brands of pure Cochon and Jamaica products. The M. T. R. mustard is the pure farina of the mustard seed, put up after the original Durham recipe. The M. T. R. cloves are a direct importation from Zanzibar, fresh and double the strength of many articles offered. The M. T. R. cinnamon is the finest cleaned Colombo bark, ground in its prime, and rich in flavor. The M. T. R. nutmegs and mace are imported directly from the Banda Islands and put up for me by the most skillful process. The M. T. R. black and white pepper is from the finest grade of shot pepper imported from the original groves of Tellicherry. It has four times the strength of many brands being palmed off on the public, and is of a rich flavor. The M. T. R. sage, thyme, marjoram, savory, etc., are the cleanest and best varieties of those herbs to be found in the American market."

"So much for the spices. Now just a word about our 'Fruit Palace' bottled goods. They include everything in the line, and like all of my other private brand goods are guaranteed the best of their kind known, and are put up by expert packers. Our 'Fruit Palace' tea is a fine, uncolored Japan, which buyers can be assured is always of the same high quality. Much fault is found with even the most expensive baking powders, and many buyers believe they are merely sold under their name, hence I have had put up a superior article, and call it the Fruit Palace baking powder. A gift goes with every can of this, as well as with the tea.

"Last but not least is the Fruit Palace soap, a superior laundry article, containing no resin or other adulterations. It takes the lead of all others.

"Careful buyers can be assured that the Fruit Palace and M. T. R. brands are always a guarantee of the best quality in their line, and ever of a uniform grade."

"Mr. Rineman," said the scribe, "do you find that the people appreciate your efforts in this direction?"

"Indeed I do, both by their repeated statements, and more so by my books, which show that during the past year our sales have increased over one-third. Our recent invoice also shows that our stock as compared with a year ago, has been nearly doubled. All this is the result not alone of my efforts to supply pure goods, but the fact that we carry the most complete stock in every department. Competitors as well as our customers, admit this."

Hart, the tailor, now has in his complete line of spring and summer suitings which is the most complete assortment of wooleens ever carried in Salem, composing all the latest novelties from the Eastern markets. Remember In all cooking receipts calling for Baking Powder, or Cream of Tartar and Soda, Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder Will give better results. Simply use one teaspoonful of Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder to each pint of flour, or in the proportion of two teaspoonfuls to every pound of flour. How to avoid Alum and Ammonia Baking Powders: First, All powders offered at twenty-five cents or less a pound can safely be discarded as Alum, for a Pure Cream of Tartar Powder cannot be sold at such price. Second, Avoid all brands labeled "Absolutely Pure." Chemical analysis, as revealed by the Scientific American report, proved that brands so labeled contained, in every instance, either Ammonia or Alum. The first aim of a dishonest manufacturer is to deceive by his label. Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder not only does finer and better work, but its purity has never been questioned.
